TUESDAY HARNESS -CUP DAY

NZ Metropolitan T.C. @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Lord Rotarian

Day Of Reckoning

Ollie Nova

Class trotter Lord Rotarian will miss a start later in the day and is well-suited to the 3200m and lesser opposition here. His Kaikoura run very good considering you'd wonder if he'd suit that track. Handicap shouldn't be an issue over extreme distance and he looks the one to open the day on a good note. Has placed in one run at the distance. Day Of Reckoning beat all but stablemate Stig at Kaikoura, and that's no mean feat these days. Sure to be prominent throughout of front draw, a trifecta must. Ollie Nova in rare form and continued that with smart Addington trials win on Wednesday, last 400m in 29.1 and jogging. A genuine chance if he gets the 3200m, though has won at 3000m on the grass at Methven so it should be no issue. Inspire is out of form but looked bright winning Rangiora workout last Saturday, beating race rival and stablemate Roydon Flash. Her 3200m record exceptional, 4 starts, 2 wins, 1 placing, including a Rowe Cup. Galleons Assassin and Idid It Myway also worthy of consideration.

Race Two

Bad All Over

Megasam

Mystic River

A sensational trial at Addington on Wednesday sees Bad All Over jump into outright favouritism for this. He settled last, lopped the field with a lap to run to lead at the 1000m, and simply kept increasing the tempo, home in 56.7 and 27.7 to win by 3 1/4 lengths. It appears as though that would be good enough to win this. Megasam the big danger, a horse going through the grades and may not be too untroubled by second row barrier if Bad All Over is to get moving from the back. He rates highly again after big win this track in junior drivers event. Mystic River wasn't pushed at Wednesday's trials and could get great trip behind possible leader Keytoourdreams, the latter trailing Bad All Over after leading early at the trials. Consider Letitia Franco who zoomed home beautifully in same trial, not pushed to close late. They stand out.

Race Three

Anvil Tuasami

Kuai Diam

Rupeni

Anvil Tuasami's run at Ashburton unreal given sectionals they ran and how much ground he had to make up on the leaders, in the middle of the track from 450m. Huge win start before at Addington, bolting clear to win by 8 lengths, home in 28.7. Wins this with safe getaway. Kuai Diam showed his worth with big run at Kaikoura after moving up parked. Another to trial very smartly at Addington on Wednesday, too. Scott Phelan let him run to line under his own steam but jogged it, making big stretch of ground last 200m. Add Rupeni into the mix as the wide draw is in his favour and very dangerous if first to find the lead. Consider good mares Belle Eyre and Veecmee off smart trials at Addington, both going well without being pushed. The Cumberland missed away on Wednesday and will need to improve stand start manners, he's the bolter on ability.

Race Four

London Legend

Bachelorette

Days Of Courage

Open class star London Legend gets all favours of inside barrier with open conditions of the race. He has the gatespeed to hold lead easily and on recent form it will take a good performance to beat him. Forget Kaikoura Cup run, things did not go his way. Should win this with Mark Jones back on board. Bachelorette a class mare, super win at Kaikoura on a track you would consider would play against her. Drawn in no-mans land but will give great sight on sheer brilliance. Add Days Of Courage into that category, though may find it tougher from a gate where he's usually entitled to lead, but probably won't find it as he can't cross London Legend. Bright eachway chance if he drops into a good sit. Likmesiah ran a solid 58.8 and 27.3 off the front at Wednesday's trials and has class edge on most, while Fake Chance's form is great, could upset again.

Race Five

Stay N Alive

Holmezy

Live A Vision

Stay N Alive's two runs out of the Purdon-Payne barn have been outstanding, luckless and a good thing beaten at Ashburton behind Sir Lance, then nailed right on the line by Roman Gladiator in Tuapeka Cup after doing a power of work. He loves a good staying test and this will be one. Very hard to keep out. Holmezy also ran great race in Tuapeka Cup then backed that up with smart win off 20m at Gore 04 November. Big chance if she jumps off inside draw and stays handy. Live A Vision great staying type also well placed and his last two wins have been great. He is on the up at the right time. Luckisaladytonight trialed well and will go close for Ian Dobson, while Thomas Sharp can turn around disappointing effort at Addington last time and go better. Powerball classy but handicap makes it tough. High Flyin the bolter, ran on well in 4yo at Kaikoura.

Race Six                      Ruinin Outa Excuses                      Port Courage                      Victory Spirit
 Another nice race, though three horses stand out here and the way to go if you want to ease the numbers in Pick6. Ruinin Outa Excuses has taken all before him this season, a wonderful second to Changeover in Superstar last start, since forward at workouts. Will give great sight. Port Courage bolted in at Kaikoura, showing her class after being taken on in front. Sure to close up off good draw and will take beating. Victory Spirit went great at Kaikoura and backed that up with very tidy trial at Addington on Wednesday. Best off back row. Only Rocket Reign a danger to those three.

Race Seven                      Some Direction                      Pompallier                      Braig
 Some Direction ran home very nicely after quiet run 4-deep on markers at Wednesday's trials. Gets in on luxury mark off the front, she's used to handicaps. Must be very hard to beat as she is most genuine. Pompallier also well-placed and did bolt in at trials, going easily when left clear 200m out. He will run well on big Addington track. Braig also much the happier on this track as opposed to Kaikoura where he can be forgiven for of day. Has the credentials to win this and has drawn superbly. Look to Petite Sunset, Our Sunny Whiz, Genius, and Whatsundermykilt as cover in Pick6 and multiple bets.

Race Eight                      Auckland Reactor                      Ohoka Utah                      Ohoka Arizona
 A great battle ahead. Auckland Reactor gets no favours with the draw while a couple of his stablemates get inside alleys to aid their chances. The former is unbeaten and yet to be seriously tested, most impressive winning at Kaikoura as lead up to this. Hard to go past him even from the draw. Ohoka Arizona trialed OK at Addington on Wednesday but didn't look quite as sharp as Ohoka Utah and we plump for the latter to use passing lane and go close, just ahead of Ohoka Arizona. Consider The Cavalier off handy draw.

Race Nine                      Mr Ricky                      Corka Dream                      Mr Molly
 The draw leads us to go with Mr Ricky in front of Corka Dream, so easily reversed if Corka Dream drew any other marble. Mr Ricky very slick at trials on Wednesday, coasting to the line nicely held. Should win off great draw while Corka Dream is looking for luck. The latter super at Rangiora workouts last Saturday, running 3:16.8 (2600m mobile), bolting in. Needs luck, no good thing. Mr Molly also tidy at trials Wed. Mister Barnett and Music Man your cover in Pick6.

Race Ten                      Monkey King                      Baileys Dream                      Changeover
 Monkey King looks best chance if he steps, that's the big question. He won nicely at Addington in preparation, running tidy final sections. His for the taking if he can get away on terms. Too much speed for these on his best day. Baileys Dream also gives Steven Reid big hand in the race. His Cup trial very tidy on Tuesday night, running Changeover close and pleasing connections. Drawn to suit out wide on front. Changeover looked good at Cup trials, leading final 1400m to win. Well beaten at Ashburton but give him that one, he doesn't lose often. Drawn well. Tribute an obvious choice on form, he's going great and has the benefit of tough racing for past season or two. Gives great sight. Awesome Armbro well-backed in past few days after smart Cup trial, cruising on Changeover's back up the straight. He strong second-stringer for Geoff Small. Classic Cullen not quite so sharp at Ashburton and Kaikoura and just needs to lift that little bit extra to win this. Not that he isn't capable of doing just that. Top trainers will have him ready. Waipawa Lad a form horse this season, probably not strong over 3200m and that's the question on him. Bondy luckless with barrier draw, needed front row draw to take advantage of brilliant beginning. It's a shame he drew where he did. Foreal suited to outside of unruly, a spot Steven Reid would love to trade. She stepped well in Cup trial and isn't a forlorn hope on her run at Ashburton, the run of the race. Flashing Red - well the jury's out on last year's winner. But never discount the old boy, nor Tim Butt and Phil Anderson's training ability. That always gives us hope of something better and something special when least expected. Sly Flyin also ran well in Cup trial and may not be finished just yet, either. Enjoy it, a great race this year, full of mystique.

Race Eleven                      Trotupastorm                      Lukes Creek                      Coolmaine
 Tread warily in this with Pick6. Trotupastorm showed why he has the raps on him when he bolted in this track 02 November, his best form always very good. Needs to behave himself which is questionable on Cup day. Would win if he trotted off and found the front again. Lukes Creek rallied well, run down last couple of strides on Tuesday night behind Brylin Paige. Improving with racing and a genuine win chance. Coolmaine followed Trotupastorm home last time and is very consistent. Must include in all bets, with his stablemate She Sells Sea Shells (lovely name) also going great and a chance. Consider Merry Poppins, Dazzle Eyre, Ella Powell, Montrose Kid, and Just A Cracker in Pick6, a race you need to negotiate carefully.

Race Twelve                      Radar Installed                      First Royal                      Romantic Star
 Radar Installed was driven quietly at Wednesday's trials but rounded the heat off very nicely, untouched. Should gain advantage off great draw and appears big winning chance in the final of a huge day. First Royal tucked away and also patiently handled at trials. He is class pacer and will be ready to rumble for this. Too much speed for most in final kick home. Romantic Star a rags to riches horse, claimed for $3500 and racing like a cup horse. Bolted in at Manawatu and impressed at Wednesday's trials, challenging Likmesiah hard in the straight on nice final sections. Can't ignore him. Take the ones you like in Pick6 and lets hope it has been a great day for you. Enjoy!

- 17 37X395 Foreal $21
- 18 622356 Flashing Red $16

This is the Final Field market released by the TAB following the barrier draw on Wednesday afternoon.

Monkey King eased slightly having drawn the inside of the unruly, his obvious preference to have drawn on the outside of the unruly, though that draw fell to Foreal, the only other horse out of the draw.

Awesome Armbro continued to firm in the market, edging into $9.00 after a super Cup trial, going to the post hard held on Changeover's back.

Bondy, a smart winner of the Kaikoura Cup, looks seriously disadvantaged off the second row, negating his brilliant standing start manners.

The book reflects his predicament, easing right out to $21.00.

Sly Flyin has trimmed up a couple of points off the back of a sound Cup trial, hitting the line with great purpose, and his draw in barrier three is ideal.

Notably, Baileys Dream went from $6.00 out to $9.00 in a surprising move, his Cup trial as good as any horse, mirroring his lead up form.
