SELECTIONS

Race One

Flaming Action

Inda Photo

Popz Delight

Flaming Action has raced well against tougher 3yo company this season without a win. The one draw a slight concern but very hard to beat if she trots away. Inda Photo only a solid start away from being competitive this grade. Has the draw. Popz Delight a little off his game at Oamaru but go again on prior form.

Race Two

Lively Compton

Washing Gem

Shikaka

Lively Compton a handy trialist in Canterbury in recent times. Has a draw to use and the stable produces them to go first up. Washing Gem drew bad and was never in it when fresh up out of new stable last time. Could be quick improver, does has some ability. Shikaka good at Addington, Tuesday, should be right there again. Consider local mare Lady Gwenavere, always goes well this track.

Race Three

He's The Man

Sacre Couer

Oh Whatafella

He's The Man led and just run down at Oamaru, a good effort. Seemingly the one to bet if he can reproduce that again. Sacre Couer hard to follow but falls into a winnable race. Drawn to get every chance. Oh Whatafella trailed and had every show at Oamaru but fought hard. Trifecta must. Agnes Patron the upsetter.

Race Four

Malosi

Nighttime Magic

Mepocketwo

Malosi found Rider On The Storm a little too good at Addington last week, though he tried hard in the straight. This more to his liking and it will take a handy run to beat him. Nighttime Magic is very capable and did run well at the workouts on Saturday. Must have. Mepocketwo a good win last time and will carry on.

Race Five

Ants

Jani Franco

Suemosam

Ants in hot form and ready for third win on end. The latest win was over a month ago but he is proven fresh. Should get another. Jani Franco has terrible form but is not short on ability. Won Rangiora workout on Saturday, beating stablemate Gladys Emanuel who is also a sound chance in this. Consider Sapient off long mark.

Race Six

Howzat Fire

Alwaysanadventure

Kabisa

Howzat Fire ran home very well off a fast last 800m when second on debut behind The Big Mach. Only a 2yo, but he looks well above-average and he can take this. Alwaysanadventure tidy enough at Gore behind Coastal, since solid workout run last weekend. Goes close. Kabisa and Ranfurly Day others for Pick6.

Race Seven

Harper Road

C C Lobell

Singtheblues

Harper Road had no luck at all at Oamaru, searching for runs in straight without a gap. Drawn to be prominent and will take stopping. C C Lobell not going too badly and the logical leader here with high gatespeed. Gets her chance. Singtheblues a solid try at Oamaru, fading on tough trip. Add 6,11 if going wide.

Race Eight

Keytoourdreams

Totally Different

I'm A Star

Keytoourdreams a very unlucky runner at Timaru last start, bashed at start by two rogues and afterward an outstanding effort. Great beginner with super chance of winning this. Totally Different a classy horse at his best and was forward with smart workout last Saturday, second to Special Ops. I'm A Star gallant chasing Roman Gladiator at Invercargill a must, while Cup Day too good to leave out, but not looking a winner.

Race Nine

Flying Ermis

Meglea

Camsplace Dexter

Flying Ermis stiff not to have gone much closer last time, never clear from 3-deep on turn. Going well and is a winner waiting to happen. Meglea back to better form of late and a classy mare when she is right. Has to rate. Camsplace Dexter races well here and this could set up for his big finish. Consider 4,6,18.

Race Ten

Nighttime Magic

Jaccka Sudi

Patchwork Star

Nighttime Magic may start earlier in night but if this option taken he looks the one. Jaccka Sudi going handy races without all the luck and this a chance for him to grab a win. Patchwork Star should have been a late scratching last time when starters assistant ran in front of her after tape was released. Huge run afterward, though that's no reward to punters who were on. Consider 4,5,11,12 in Pick6.

Race Eleven

Bunda Cliffs

Righteous Franco

Beau Shiraz

Bunda Cliffs had no luck at all last time, his prior form sound. Close to grabbing another and this not a great field. Draw probably suits his style. Righteous Franco a smart win on debut and solid efforts since. Also looks well-placed. Beau Shiraz fought hard when chasing Bettor's Strike, this track, 08 May. A must include in all bets. Davinable took a lot of money fresh up so follow the smoke and consider her.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Have Faith Sunny Sierra Valley Of Fire
 A handy maiden trotting field. Have Faith put up another good run when chasing Idle Earl at Oamaru, importantly her manners seem to be very solid now. Can overcome unruly draw. Sunny Sierra a talented filly who needs the mobile at this stage, so this in her favour. Valley Of Fire also appreciative of moving start.

Race Two

Rangataua Ray Hilarius Life Goodwin's Blueagle
 Rangataua Ray simply too good and in slick sectionals at Oamaru, a great run off the clock. Drawn to get handy and they will struggle to hold him out for sheer speed. Hilarius Life continued grand run of form with narrow defeat at Oamaru. Must go close off inside gate. Goodwin's Blueagle going massive, keep following.

Race Three

Christian World Jack Frost Cmeffy
 Barrier draws all-important at the 2000m standing start, as are quick beginnings. Christian World made debut a few weeks ago and ran well, backing up good workout form. Should run well fresh. Jack Frost never a lot of luck and this his chance should he step well. Cmeffy a top effort on debut, franking good trials. Rock Star went well after slow start last time, and English Prince good enough, but draw no help.

Race Four

South Eyre Shesachristian Breath Of Life
 South Eyre finished smartly to chase home Sheng Li last week, prior form very sound. Draw may not be a disadvantage over 2600m and she will get home better than most. Shesachristian was taken on down the back straight last week and that may have cost her victory. Hard to catch if she leads. Breath Of Life coming back to best form, a great run off slow start last week. Consider Genes West at longer odds.

Race Five

Ronnie Coute The Fat Controller Come Follow Me
 Ronnie Coute has raced so well this season without winning many. Has been freshened and obviously set for this. Will take stopping with top driver on. The Fat Controller was disqualified from third last week following a smart trials effort. Sure to go well if he begins cleanly. Come Follow Me a must have, ready to win out of top trotting stable. Makarewa Don good enough but galloped for no good reason at Oamaru.

Race Six

Willoughby Cullens Charm Miss Chievous
 Barrier draws to play their part? Willoughby was expensive off the standing start at Timaru so he reverts to mobile here and gets the ace. Hard to beat on trial form. Cullens Charm just missed at Timaru, another tidy run, very close to win. Miss Chievous no answer to Edernay at Oamaru but she worked hard in the open. Consider 4,5,10,11 in open race.

Race Seven

Roman Gladiator Special Ops Fake Chance
 Roman Gladiator again too swift for them at Ascot Park last weekend, coming around a lap out and proving too good. Can sit last and beat these on current form. Special Ops has found a new lease of life and looks a strong chance again. Ran 3:20 (2600m stand) at Rangiora workouts on Saturday. Fake Chance ran well last start and is a danger if he got his own rules in front.

Island Sunrise Megasam Rudiani
 Island Sunrise comes out of some tough premier night races back into an event that is right up his alley. Super good two back then solid finish last week. Ready to win. Megasam another who will appreciate slight drop in class and is due a win, while Rudiani went huge after being slow away at Oamaru. 3,4,9,12 if you go wider in Pick6.

Race Nine

Midnight Invasion Another Moment Ella Powell
 A tricky leg of Pick6 with manners early in the race being the key. Midnight Invasion is likely to do things right and even though his form reads poorly his latest efforts are not that bad. Probably best horse in the race. Another Moment missed away last week costing himself any chance. Goes close if he behaves. Ella Powell in similar boat, needing to step, as is The Tin Man who is not short on ability.

Race Ten

Bettor's Strike Comebackmach Lifes Precious
 Bettor's Strike too good for them again after looping field to land one-one at Oamaru, dashing past Kiwi Fantasy after turning in. Draw probably shouldn't stop him. Comebackmach suited to good draw over sprint trip and likely to be asked to lead up. Lifes Precious the improver, never carted into it at Timaru off the back of a smart trials win at Addington. Consider Duarunner and Sticks.

MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR COLT WINS WORKOUT

By Jeff Scott

Multi-million dollar pacing colt Auckland Reactor was looking for more over his last 800m in 56.5s at the Motukarara workouts on Saturday.

Rolleston co-trainer Mark Purdon was rapt with Auckland Reactor's final Canterbury hit-out before the colt headed north at 3am on Sunday morning.

Auckland Reactor was to be one of 14 on the early float trip north in anticipation of further riches in the $1.5 million Harness Jewels at Cambridge on Saturday week.

Sold for a reported industry record $4.1 million earlier this month, Auckland Reactor will start a dominating favourite in the $200,000 Emerald for 3YO pacing colts and geldings.

Purdon and training partner Grant Payne have no concerns about freighting Auckland Reactor north.

"Apart from going to Invercargill, it will be his first big trip away, but he's such a relaxed type that he won't lose any weight or anything on the trip," Purdon said confidently.

Auckland Reactor had a movie star presence on an otherwise quiet Motukarara workout day.

Television media along with a press reporter and photographer were on hand for the unbeaten colt's public appearance.

Only the connections of Lladro were prepared to start their horse against the champion in the four win or faster pace.

Auckland Reactor stepped straight to the lead and cruised through his opening half in 65s.

Purdon allowed the Mach Three colt more action over his final 800m in 56.5s and final 400m in 27.8s, even though he was only out for little more than a training run.

Lladro was left in his wake when Auckland Reactor increased the tempo at the 200m, cruising away by three lengths at the line.

He ran the full mobile 2200m in 2:50, satisfying Purdon that he was perfect for the north sojourn.

Meanwhile the Purdon-Payne stable had to settle for second with 4YO stablemate Tricky Woman in the one win or faster mobile 2200m pace.

After showing gate speed to lead after 200m from a wide alley, Tricky Woman trailed Nighttime Magic mid-race and chased the Lew Driver-trained gelding to the wire.

Nighttime Magic ran the 2200m in 2:54.8, quickening over his last 800m in 59.1s and final 400m in 28.7s.

Rare Temptation (parked) held third ahead of Kaye At Quinns, shuffled three back on the inner from the 1600m.

VC and Bar and Village Ike made good ground late from the rear.

Misty Diamond, tough after being left parked (2:51.6), and big finisher Innes Lad (2:51), were the pick of the maiden mobile 2200m winners.
