THURSDAY HARNESS

SELECTIONS

Race One

Rae Galleon

Varanne

Platinum Plus

Rae Galleon began brilliantly then galloped when she last raced on the track a week ago. A stunning dead-heat victory a week earlier. Only has to put her best foot forward to win this time. Varanne an able stablemate of the favourite. Ran on well on debut and does rate. Platinum Plus getting stronger and this looks suitable.

Race Two

Lady Be Mine

Angelea D

Kristiaan

Lady Be Mine dashed into second money on the track last week, unlucky not to win. Joins Graeme Anderson stable. Must be tough to roll, even off wide draw. Angelea D was luckless fresh up, look for a more prominent effort this time up. Kristiaan has talent, mixed Ashburton display can be improved on. Add 9,14.

Race Three

Grin CJ

Pacific Peer

He's The Man

Grin CJ ran a handy placing two back, then appeared rather unlucky when last produced at Winton, 25 May, getting home late without room. Can go well at reasonable odds. Pacific Peer a bit of a battler but drawn to ping and get handy, place chance again. He's The Man not suited to one draw but has enough ability to take this if he can step reasonably well. An open event with several chances, possibly 8 & 12 next best.

Race Four

Heza Courage

Life Of Tara

Lola Bromac

Heza Courage was trapped wide, held up turn after getting cover at Winton, his final sprint handy after interrupted passage. Looks a nice maiden and a good draw has him right in this. Life Of Tara dashed home well for second money last time, an improvement on earlier form. Rates on that. Lola Bromac did work to find the lead last time, undone only late. Consistent filly. Consider 10,11,13 in multiples.

Race Five

Prince Harry

Shadon

Come Follow Me

A tricky one to get a handle on. Prince Harry was again strong last week, beaten only by Come Follow Me who has to rate highly again in this after showing her true worth in winning. Shadon splits that pair, she can be very dangerous if she steps swiftly and runs over 2200m. Consider 4,7,11,19 in a toughie.

Race Six

Mapenzi

Meadow Rock

One More Legend

Being a conditioned race there is little form. Mapenzi ran a cheeky race at Ashburton on Monday, hitting the lead on the turn and fighting on to finish. Has speed and can get most of these with sprint over last bit. Meadow Rock joins Graeme Anderson in local stable and did win two-horse trial on Tuesday to fit her for this. Form isn't great but she has always shown a little something. One More Legend gets good chance to turn form around after mixed C1 efforts. 4,8,9,10 possible dangers and others to consider.

Race Seven

Dudinka's Christian

Noble Shark

Birchwood Jack

A nice 2yo making debut here. Dudinka's Christian a well-bred colt with Nigel McGrath who impressively won an Ashburton trial, 21 May, a mile in 2:01.3, home in 57.4 to beat some nice types. Very hard to beat if he handles the occasion. Noble Shark went the fence last week and that didn't suit, stick with him, shouldn't be a maiden for too long. Birchwood Jack scratched last week, stay with him, last effort was good. On Fire ran well last time and consider, while Under Enemy Fire and Heroic Star are other hopes.

Race Eight

Hilarious Life

Patchwork Star

Parasite

Possibly an easier leg with the very-much in-form Hilarious Life the obvious choice and Pick6 anchor. Would have won but for galloping 100m out at Addington. Big chance. Patchwork Star working her way towards a win, not to be left out, while Parasite a danger off good draw, nice win last time. Others 1,4,10.

Race Nine

Holloway

I'm A Star

Rosewood Mac

Holloway was a little flat when she last raced this track, though she obvious choice on season's form. Can find the lead and best these. I'm A Star a danger, should come onto front row with scratchings and that helps. Can win. Rosewood Mac also racing solidly and well-placed off front. Look to 12,14,17,19 as cover.

Race Ten

Malosi

Hezallclass

Xavier

Malosi cops an Auckland Reactor draw on one on the second row. On form he is the clear top pick, though things may not go all his own way. Still too good to leave out. Hezallclass promising winning form this time in, the second last week was good. Tough if he found front. Xavier a little flat last furlong at Winton though he still fought on. Draw no help, but he a danger with cart into it. Others 1,12,13, all good enough with trip.

Race Eleven

Rakarebel

Chicco Marx

Rare Temptation

A good draw for Rakarebel, following fast beginner in Chicco Marx who should hold lead. Both horses strong hopes without leaving marker line. Rare Temptation good at Ashburton, Monday, his first run in three months. Can go well. Add Falcon's Bute, won from trail last week, and Daisy's Dream if she gets off ballot.

SELECTIONS

Race One

Dejazzman

Ruby N Diamonds

Flaming Action

Dejazzman produced a stronger performance when getting home for third at Addington last time behind Sunny Sierra. The mobile was a help and he not brilliant off the stand, but this looks his if he trots. Ruby N Diamonds is a local mare with a strong chance. Big run last time after impressive Rangiora trial. Goes well. Add Flaming Action, struggling to claim that elusive win, though tough to beat on form. 2,14,15 others.

Race Two

Reklaw's Chance

Royal Jade

Westburn Talent

Reklaw's Chance much better than form reads, all in good 2yo company, however. Beats these with a length or two up his sleeve if the real one turns up. Royal Jade a handy maiden going solid races. A trifecta must. Westburn Talent isn't the worst maiden around and will be prominent off the good draw. The locals Sheza Queen and Camtastic Echo others to throw in the mix after being forward at Nelson trials.

Race Three

Anvils A Coaster

Asmooth Cap

Holme Comfort

Anvils A Coaster joins Butt stable at Woodend after earlier career with Nigel McGrath. Won a Rangiora workout a couple of weeks ago rather nicely and should take beating off great draw. Asmooth Cap will race well after sound placing, slightly unlucky, at Addington. Holme Comfort has trialed smartly since handy grass track races at Blenheim gallops meeting. Worth a look. Konni Kase and Al Suprema for trifectas.

Race Four

English Prince

Hurricane Anvil

Hidalgo

English Prince has'nt had the rub of the green in two runs, a little better than form reads for him. Stick with this very suitable. Hurricane Anvil a nice maiden, also new recruit from McGrath to Butt's on the beach. Workout winner also. Draw not as sharp for him. Hidalgo won Motukarara workout on Saturday quite nicely, can go close off ace. Andrea Jane a newcomer to Brent Borcoskie stable and is co-owned by me. She did nicely at the workouts behind Hidalgo after working very wide at the 500m. She should go a handy race.

Race Five

Ronnie Coute

Dalriada Abbe

Turbo Pat

A super win from Ronnie Coute last time, and he's the best horse in this field by a few lengths. Will take a good effort to beat him. His stablemate Dalriada Abbe went very nice at Ashburton on Monday, though finishing well back. Super place bet. Turbo Pat a top chance if she trots early, must have if she does.

Race Six

Caitlin Banner

Sheze Purrfect

Tout Le Monde

Bar the barrier draw you'd think Caitlin Banner would win this. She seems to have bounced back this time in after rather average start to her career. Still the one to beat. Sheze Purrfect won Rangiora workout a fortnight ago after sitting parked, then placed again Nelson trials on Saturday. Ready to rumble and set for this. Tout Le Monde a sound chance in easier company, while Gennady Lacey went huge at Ashburton on Mon.

Race Seven

Franco Radial

Left In The Dark

Indian Giver

Historically a tough race to win off a handicap, though Mr Molly did break the hoodoo at summer meeting. Franco Radial a good beginner and likely to give them plenty to chase with A Butt aboard. He looks sound win chance. Left In The Dark a good chaser and has met good fields all season. Trifecta must. Indian Giver keeps winning and that was smart Addington victory last week. A bit to do off 10m. Consider Inisheer, able to go well after being freshened, Christian Fire, Totally Different, and Morty. The 3000m on Sunday suits them.

Race Eight

Explosive Turk

Crawdou

Barney Maguire

Explosive Turk has looked quite smart around the workouts and trials. He is a brother to Commander Turk who also did a good job. Can race well and is one to watch over the circuit. Crawdou a rank flop after getting badly worked up before the race when he debuted. Average Ashburton trial but he should go an improved race. Barney Maguire a nice workout winner on Saturday and not without a chance. 1 & 9 the others.

Race Nine

Kiwi Fantasy

Genes West

Franco Coolie

Kiwi Fantasy has looked a winner for last few weeks but still to grab one. It took a smart Bettor's Strike to beat him at Oamaru. Gets his chance here. Genes West an obvious choice off good gate and she has the quality, having met top fillies fields all year. Good eachway bet. Franco Coolie a nice horse ready to run fresh up.

Race Ten

Neat Treat

Davinable

Kok Chong

Neat Treat had to do a bit to get around the field at Forbury and that cost her. Good win in Nevele R Fillies Consolation start three back before good NZ Oaks sixth. Wins this, weak field. Davinable has come back looking stronger and is in form. Kok Chong won his maiden like he'd get another. Franco Elias for odds.
