*A one-horse affair with Geeky Looking always well clear when Perfect Princess refused to leave the mark, then Mystic Gem broke twice early.

...Apology...

Dear Trot Guide booklet subscribers

Your NZ Trot Guide was obviously late last week, this was beyond my control.

The books left my home on Wednesday, as they do every week, and they are usually in your letterbox the following day.

Last week they all disappeared, for reasons still unknown, and nobody seemed to receive them until at least Saturday, or later.

This is disappointing for all of us.

Being a quiet time of the year it meant the race info was redundant come Friday night.

Hopefully you all received your books, even though late.

I have credited each of you with another issue because of this mess up, and I am currently dealing with NZ Post to find out why this happened.

TAB books should have arrived on time, and I believe they did, given they are couriered.

THURSDAY HARNESS

Cambridge Te Awamutu @ Cambridge Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Percy The Punter

Eyes The Man

Cavalier Dream

An interesting maiden with the first starters all looking capable of bold debuts. Percy The Punter rattled out a 1:58.4 rate (1700m) when qualifying in slick time this track, 15 May, winning by 8 1/2 lengths. Must rate. Eyes The Man won Pukekohe trial in 2:04.7 (2050m), obviously has ability. Cavalier Dream qualified 3rd behind Saucy Legend and Outback Jack in a form trial earlier in year. One for odds. Add Ratzinger.

Race Two

Benny Mac

Takim

Vinnie Barbarino

Benny Mac cops the one alley and this should be another for Fergie who is now the chaser behind Dexter Dunn. Hard to see a quality 3yo like this one beaten. Takim going handy races, not always with luck on his side. Has ability and one for value in trifecta. Vinnie Barbarino, chased a smarty last time. Add 3,5,9.

Race Three

Locked And Loaded

Conte Del Forno

Aquadelmo

Locked And Loaded joins Rogerson-Simpson stable after racing out of Steven Reid barn. Handy efforts without winning of late, a change of environment often a key to these sort of horses. Not a great field and he should go good off the draw. Conte Del Forno is back off a break but was in good winning form at the Cambridge workouts on Saturday, home in 28.1. Drawn to be big danger. Aquadelmo going well, must rate.

Race Four

Strapon

Patient Spirit

Spot Of Gold

A tricky way to get the Pick6 underway. Strapon the danger if she trots off early, a hard horse to catch if she runs along at even sectionals in front. Should go close. Her stablemate Patient Spirit no star but also suited to this company. Will trot the journey. Spot Of Gold best horse, tough mark on 30m. Consider a spread to get through safely with Shara Boy a possible improver in new stable, and Deborah Jo Anne, better left-handed.

Race Five

Maheer Joy

Its OK Flyin

Ambrashia

The four-win horses, Maheer Joy and Its OK Flyin must be tough in lesser company, Maheer Joy dropping well back from strong field at Alex Park last week where she faded from parked after making a run to get handy. Super course record (3-2-1) and should be prominent. Its OK Flyin also well placed and loves the track. Pushed wide in fast race last time. Better here. Ambrashia won at big odds but no great surprise last time, stick with. Corlett not the worst run last time. Consider 3,6,9,10 in another even field.

Race Six

Ohoka Utah

Roman Conqueror

Strike Up The Band

A possible battle of tactics, stick with Ohoka Utah who has proven record from standing start in the south (3s-2w). Very easy front-running win at Alex Park last time. The one to beat. Roman Conqueror and Strike Up The Band attempting first stand starts. Quality horses with a win chance should they step.

Race Seven

Maheer Skipper

Flyin Cullen

Commitment

The draw falls of the way of the best horse in the race and from there it should be almost a given. Maheer Skipper a classy pacer dropping back from tougher Auckland company into a race he should win off the ace. Logical Pick6 anchor. Flying Cullen a possible spoiler if Maheer Skipper is looked at, should get the trail from one on second row. Commitment gets another chance off handy alley. Bomb Away could make it interesting early with high gatespeed and therefore a chance to make the favourite work.

Race Eight

Bunny's Bandoleer

Empress

Johnnie Deesel

Bunny's Bandoleer a handy sort likely to enjoy mobile start and with a touch of speed he should be able to hold and lead. Top tip in a bad field. Empress drawn to follow through along the marker line and is racing consistently. Johnnie Deesel probably the most talented, but still erratic. Can win if he trots the journey. Take the field if the budget allows, it's a shocker!

Race Nine

Mr Rickerby

Atomic Motoring

Soul To Squeeze

Mr Rickerby has been impressing at the Cambridge workouts for local man Sean McCaffrey, winning at least two on the track. Sure to be well-supported to win on debut and he is probably one to risk as an anchor in Pick6 given other fields are a bit of a minefield. Atomic Motoring gets his chance is easier company and rates upset hope with experience an aid. Soul To Squeeze has no form, upset chance off one on second row following likely favourite, and possible leader. Not tempted by too many others, they've had a lot of chances.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Thames HRC @ Alexandra Park SELECTIONS

Race One

Zenthura

Dancing Dolly

Delta Dream

I wouldn't mind owning a maiden in a $10,000 race as weak as this. Zenthura must appreciate a drop to this company after chasing the good 2yo's around for the much of the season. Has run some good, solid races. Here's his chance. Dancing Dolly did OK from second row last time and is obviously well-placed this company. Looks hard to beat. Delta Dream going well in better maidens, is race fit. Driving Rain the upsetter.

Race Two

Cyclone Night

Mo Cullen

Nite Fever

Cyclone Night qualified smartly for Gareth Dixon at Alex Park, beating Cadillac Cruiser and Caribbean. Dream among others, home in 59.4, 29.1, but not pushed too hard. Looks a Christian Cullen filly of promise and will go well first up. Mo Cullen has advantage over the former from good gate, and also has good form under her belt in three runs. The likely danger. Nite Fever dashed home wide in Tuesday company last time, a good effort behind Ambrashia. Regal Hawk and My Mum Maggie for trifectas.

Race Three

Lisphia

Return To Gold

Nullabor Song

Well, it didn't take long for the American-bred mare to make a splash in NZ. The money poured on her late so the confidence mirrored the performance, winning from end-to-end. Should strike again off the pole. Return To Gold was a good winner last time, her second run for Reid team. Wide draw a disadvantage but she better than most. Nullabor Song going good races a must include off handy alley. Consider Simply Magic.

Race Four

World Of Dreams

Bute Brother

Lukcon Lad

World Of Dreams was rather unlucky in Harness Jewels last start, held up by tiring runners, and though never a winning chance she still went a great race. Since an impressive workout winner at Cambridge. She should give these the tidy up. Bute Brother did nicely on debut, the run of an improver. Bred to to the job. Lukcon Lad wasn't as good last time but stick with in multiples. Sailors Sin, Red Rocket others.

Race Five

Italian Stallion

Jonny English

Rico Gear

Italian Stallion was unlucky last week, looking for room, none there. Should take step from 2yo to maidens in his stride. Hard to contain. Jonny English overdue a maiden win, freshened since last race and looks possible leader and tough to roll with own rules. Rico Gear worked hard last time, also overstayer this grade. Add 4.5.9 in Pick6 to get you underway if you don't want to go too thin to start.

Race Six

La Femme D'Argent

Cornishman

Fayanni

La Femme D'Argent was nicely rated up front to take junior drivers event last week, an emphatic display that continued sound run of form from this talented mare. Vey hard to beat again if she steps well. Cornishman ran up to win, peaked on run last week. This looks suitable. Fayanni not badly placed on only 10m, has the ability to beat these. Consider 1,2,11,12.

Race Seven

Ebony Gem

Mystic Mink

Retail Therapy

A good beginning crucial here, slow starts put them out of play. Ebony Gem a genuine horse, better than these on his best night, though possibly hasn't shown his very best in a few runs. The stand might be a help to him and he can win. Mystic Mink flew last week to get up, an outstanding run, and drive. Must go close again on recent form. Retail Therapy smart animal, fresh for Michelle Wallis, watch tote. Add 1,3,5,8.

Race Eight

China Chinko

White Squall

Featherflight

China Chinko was solid last start, probably in a better field than this. A five-win claimer dropping to easy company and he's well-placed to win. White Squall came up short last Tuesday when fresh, should be improver and likes to run up the pace. Featherflight won Breeders Crown heat last time, good enough. Consider 6,7,8,10,11.

Race Nine

Lord Roddick

Fastlane

Tuapeka Tiz

Lord Roddick stormed home after galloping at the start last time, he would have won had he gone with them early. This his chance to take another win. Fastlane an overdue maiden graduate, but he did it nicely last week, though in slow time. Always promised to win more. Tuapeka Tiz well-placed this race, others 3,4,7,11.

Race Ten

Nicky's Dilemma

Keepers Star

Mr Whoudini

Nicky's Dilemma went a beauty last start in slick time behind Return To Gold, close up at finish. Drawn to get a nice run, gatespeed a query. Goes close. Keepers Star hotly backed when pulled up on debut for Steven Reid, stick with. Mr Whoudini probably top tip this race but the barrier draw makes it a tad more difficult. Hard to contain if he gets off the markers. Consider 5,6,7,8 in average field.
