NOTE

Rangiora and Motukarara workouts were again washed out last Saturday.

The Motukarara trials were also abandoned last week meaning another quiet week for the Trot Guide.

Let's hopes the weather improves enough to have some this weekend and we can provide some commented results.

THURSDAY HARNESS

Forbury Park T.C. @ Forbury Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

I'm Easy

Break Twenty One

Daresbury

A gallop off the gate cost I'm Easy at Addington when hot favourite last week, though would she ever have beaten that great mare Andrea Jane?! Give another chance in this company, her workout win at Rangiora was good enough to suggest she'd win a maiden quickly. Break Twenty One showed good signs in three starts towards end of season. Freshened up and should go well. Daresbury ran on late last time and draw falls her way. Suzie's Sister fair at workouts, place chance, as is Oppie Fashion, one for longer odds.

Race Two

Partyywiththehotgirl

Franco Coolie

Tolerate

Partyywiththehotgirl looked beaten 800m out and kept trying hard to the line when a wonderful second at Addington last time. Prior form sound and on what she's shown this field should be well within her range. Franco Coolie a disappointment this time up, did do work last time and fade. No better chance to turn it around and is race fit which should help. Tolerate backed good maiden win with impressive finish wide for close up sixth at Oamaru. Don't run without him on that run. Mocca Man long time off scene, looked really smart at times in short stint on track. Watch tote. Daisy Dundee must be sound chance on good winter form.

Race Three

Glenfarg

Manhattan Rusty

Spirit Of Oaks

Glenfarg looked handy last time up, particularly at Rangiora when second in late April behind Ohoka Nevada. Quiet run at trials when unplaced behind Van Washing Man. Could win. Manhattan Rusty nice type, drawn to go well, last start was 2nd of 2 in Breeders Crown heat to stablemate Highbeam Rusty, also a chance if he goes around here off wide draw. Spirit Of Oaks has been a bit luckless in Canterbury, can figure.

Race Four

Roses In May

Barberino

Beaudiene Terminator

Best three look like they have the best draws with running numbers selected. Roses In May a length or two better than this field when caught on her best night. Hard to see her beaten if she doesn't cop bad luck. Barberino tries hard though no star. Should drop to favourite's back and run second. Beaudiene Terminator a talented horse but rarely shows it. Should finish in first three here. Roses In May likely P6 anchor.

Race Five

Domination

Frodo Hest

Crusader Command

The handicapped runners should be in business over the 2700m. Domination not totally great from the stand, can be touch risky. Recent form quite outstanding. Very hard to beat if she goes with them. Frodo Hest encouraging at Oamaru off lengthy break, chasing class stablemate Moment Of Truth. Should go well. Crusader Command in great placed form through winter, deserving of a win and solid hope off front limit. Rae Galleon awful at Oamaru capable of better. Stay with her, too. Major Grant, King Galleon P6 includes.

Race Six

Eigerwand

Ionafastone

Eastwood Ebony

Eigerwand missed it badly from one draw at Addington, he wasn't happy down there. Knocked over when winning chance at Oamaru start before. One more chance with Mark Jones up this time. Ionafastone also a victim in that Oamaru race when Rare Surprise broke and ran them off the track. Has to rate, prior form had been good. Eastwood Ebony kept fighting after doing a bit last start, likely sort with win hope this field. Consider Silver Liner, OK at workouts and handy qualifier when third at Addington.

Race Seven

Notaswethort

Fabiano

I'm A Star

A bit of an unlucky runner in the Kurow Cup behind Ohoka Rebel, this looks suitable to Notaswethort, especially with early scratching of Rudiani. The Allan Beck-trained and driven gelding could have finished closer with luck from turn. Must go close. Fabiano has 30m handicap to overcome but on best day capable of tidying this field up. Dexter Dunn jumps on. I'm A Star missed away in Kurow Cup but stick with her on winter form, certainly good enough with safe start. Others in P6 possibly 1,6,12,14.

Race Eight

Chicco Marx

Woodlea Fire

Orse M Aint It

Chicco Marx a great leader or follower and could get the sweet run from one on the second line here. Loves Forbury and will take beating. He'll follow Woodlea Fire, a handy type who can hold spot on marker line from the ace. Also winning chance. Orse M Aint It hasn't had everything go his way of late but finds a race here that should be suitable. Definite include. Consider Glengarry Sunrise if he starts, certain drop in grade. Our Riki unlucky at Oamaru and has chance off good gate with M. Jones aboard, with his stablemate Franco Elias an improver off better effort at Oamaru. A good race for a trifecta bet.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Franklin T.C. @ Alexandra Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Caesars Art

Dakota Kid

Eyres Abovetherground

Caesars Art dropped to last off wide draw when first up for 21 months at Alex Park on 01 August. Actually ran home well without being asked for much in a sprint home. Big improver and looks nice way to kick off the night if natural improvement comes from that run. Dakota Kid an eyecatcher last time, getting home well final stages. Well placed here, too. Eyres Abovetherground fair run last week, likes this sort of race.

Race Two

Thomas Maguire

Eagles A Flyin

Bettors Star

A race that looks reasonably predictable and it should fall to Thomas Maguire, a good second at Cambridge on debut, winding up nicely to just miss. Scratched last week, sure to go well here and looks the one. Eagles A Flyin a disappointing hot favourite last week, stay with off the ace as debut run was very nice. Bettors Star a gallant try last week in similar race and looks sound trifecta chance once again.

Another Mountain

BK Commando

Night Of Glory

Another Mountain handled the C1 grade rather nicely last week, chasing home a talented trotter in Mystic Gem, and beating the rest rather well. Should take this with repeat performance. The handicapped BK Commando and Night Of Glory both improvers out of that same race, merit in both their runs. Must have's here. Castleton's Don a good looking type on debut with Richard Brosnan and might be worth a ticket.

Race Four

Will Carter

Little Big Sister

Jonny English

A very nice C1 field, the best assembled in the north for a while. Will Carter has heaps of ability and has shown it each of three times he's been produced, though maybe touch disappointing last time. Forward with recent Auckland workout win. Will keep most of these busy. Little Big Sister a brilliant maiden winner, again living up to that form. Rates with Fergie choosing to drive her over others. Jonny English unlucky last week after overdue maiden win. 1,4,9,11,12 the others in super race.

Race Five

Noble Warrior

Falcon's Fair

Matty Brogden

This looks a good thing on ability shown in the South Island. Noble Warrior steps out for Michelle Wallis after two workouts or trials in north in recent weeks, unplaced at Pukekohe 22 July, then third of six at Alex Park 05 August. Smashes them if the real one turns up. Falcon's Fair going a bit better than form suggests of late, has met some reasonable maidens. Matty Brogden showed talent last time, Mad Tim upsetter.

Race Six

Retail Therapy

Zenad

Puhinui Rainbow

Retail Therapy and Zenad went to battle last week, if you could say that, and the latter came out on top in a pedestrian sprint home. The former sat too long and should have been off to the death if he was to win. Chance to redeem the punters off level marks this time. Zenad must be huge danger again. Puhinui Rainbow a lovely horse, probably not up to winning this one, add into trifectas. Anchor on top two in P6.

Race Seven

Mr Whoudini

Clonmel

Village Sarti

Mr Whoudini made big ground last 100m when wide out on track in a race he couldn't win over 1700m last week. Back to average field and 2200m and he should get the cash once again. Clonmel raced like Jane for three starts then arrived as Tarzan last week to put them away, the money on. Can't follow him with any great conviction. Village Sarti an improver with two good fourths under belt, nice finish last week. Consider 1 & 7.

Race Eight

Isa Good Looking

Royal Don

Indian Wells

Isa Good Looking ran on well in better field last week though he has to step back in the handicaps this time to take on lesser company. No doubting his talent and will take beating with right cart into it. Royal Don nicely driven in boys race last time to win easily. Can continue the run of form if driven in similar fashion. Indian Wells the eye-catcher last week, breaking start, getting home well. Keep onside. Consider 10,11,12,15 in Pick6, often a tough leg these low-grade trots.

Race Nine

Mohua

Rowan Direct

Arodaz

Mohua makes her debut as a Christian Cullen filly with a reputation. Two trials, two wins, both impressive. Expected to go very close first time out. Rowan Direct impressed when winning at Manawatu earlier in the year, since spelled. Stable has them ready to be competitive, and did go 2:49 to win Alex Park trial 05 August, a good run. Arodaz shows promise and must be included in the mix alongside debut runner Baltic Warrior. Top two look strong in Pick6.

Harness 'Final Field' Wagering Report

Auckland T.C. - Friday 08 August

Race 1 – 1st Holtere opened $4.80 & closed $4.20 – Largest wager $1,000 at $4.50

The winner 'Holtere' was the best backed runner in the field followed by 'Trot West Defender' (2nd) which opened the 'book' favourite at $4.60. Last start winner 'Jonny English' (3rd) took some late money and closed in $1.00 shorter than his opening price of $13.

Race 3 – 1st Itz Cherry Ripe opened $1.70 & closed $1.60 – Largest wager $3,500 at $1.60

It was hard to sell any other runner than the favourite Itz Cherry Ripe and she took all the late money to close as our only losing result. Return To Gold (6th) was the next best backed runner but even after pushing her price out from an opening price of $5.50 to $6.50 punter's really only wanted to be on the favourite.

Race 4 – 1st Sea Spray Darling opened $5.00 & closed $5.50 – Largest wager $700 at $5.50

Eskimo Banker (3rd) $1,000 at $5.00

Indian Wells (6th) $508 at $9.00

China Chinko (8th) $1,000 at $3.00

Castletons Boy (9th) $500 at $11

We kept the winner Sea Spray Darling safe but late money did come for her once driver Maurice McKendry tipped her out as a strong chance on Trackside and she closed as our worst result (M McKendry just got crossed off our xmas list). Early morning money came for Indian Wells who closed at $8.00 after opening at $11. Eskimo Banker (3rd) was also well backed late but did close at $5.00 on the 'book' ($4.30 tote) after opening at $4.50.

Race 5 – 1st Clonmel opened at $10 & closed at $9.00 – Largest wager $300 at $8.00

Aquadelmo (11th) $500 at $6.50

Threesacrowd (2nd) opened the second favourite on the 'book' at $5.50 and closed at $4.40 after taking most of the late money. Overall it was a poor trading race but with little form in the race we guess it was just as hard for punters to pick the field as what it was for us to price it. The winner Clonmel did attract a couple of late wagers around the $300 mark and closed as a small losing result.

Race 7 – 1st All Tiger opened at $1.70 & closed $1.60 – Largest wager $3,000 at $1.50

Mr Whoudini (6th) $1,000 at $10

We tried to keep the winner All Tiger safe but even when the 'book' had him at $1.50 and the tote was $1.90 the money just kept coming for him and we held plenty of wagers from $1,000 - $2,000 on him. We did manage to sell a couple of runners in particular Mr Whoudinni and we closed only losing a small amount on the favourite.

Race 8 – 1st Zenad opened at $5.50 & closed at $6.00 – Largest wager $550 at $5.50

Retail Therapy (2nd) $2,500 at $1.75

Retail Therapy was a runner that we wanted to risk as we thought the 20m handicap could be a stumbling block but after All Tiger's race was resulted we had a $300 multi finishing on him to return $101,376 so we had no option to keep his price at our opening odds of $1.60. The six leg multi was - Itz Cherry Ripe ($1.60), Sea Spray Darling ($5.50), Clonmel ($11), All Tiger ($1.50), Mr Jazz ($1.60 greyhound) all winners finishing on Retail Therapy at $1.60.

We risked Mystic Mink in the single market but we were never going to get close to reducing our liability on the race and she did close as our only losing result. The winner Zenad was a good result in the single book but there was a multi for about $15,000 finishing on him.

Race 9 – 1st Genius opened at $6.00 & closed at $10 – Largest wager $50 at $6.50

Fayanni (2nd) $1,000 at $3.60

Dutch Annie (6th) $2,000 at $3.00, & $1,000 at $2.80 (X2)

We opened Genius up short after taking plenty of money for him in his last two starts but tonight he was unwanted and he closed a huge result for us. Dutch Annie was the only runner punters wanted to be on and she closed as our only losing result in the single 'book'. We had a couple of reasonable sized multi's finishing on Fayanni and Dutch Annie which no doubt would have been a lot bigger if Retail Therapy had won the previous race.

A tough way to get into the new season facing a 100k multi payout in what looked to be a reasonably quiet night at the start of the day.

TRAVEL PRACTICE (CHCH)

Just a little tour I've just put together for Melbourne, 30 October - 05 November. Two great Race meetings at Flemington plus an AFL International and a Rugby League Test between Australia and Great Britain. The Hotel Enterprise (on which the tour is costed) is not Melbourne's most upmarket establishment but it's in a great location in the CBD and 5 minutes walk from the Casino. Furthermore we're holding their best rooms. I am in fact holding a few more rooms at other Hotels and Apartments in Melbourne but they will come at a cost increment.

Anyone interested – please give me a yodel.

Cheers and kind regards
Den
