Indy Village trials up very well again, his finishing burst wide too smart for NZ Cup entrant Special Ops. The latter had a good run for Mark Jones but could not withstand Indy Village's run. Fine Holmes again tidy. Rona Lorraine broke badly always a half-lap behind the field, she looked magnificent.

THURSDAY HARNESS

Cambridge - Te Awamutu. @ Cambridge Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Clancy Maguire

Conte Del Forno

They Alluvem

Clancy Maguire got back off wide gate at Alex Park last week and no dash in sprint home in 56.9 off the front. Forgive him that and go back to his maiden win this track as best guide. Hard to beat. Conte Del Forno always finds one better but won't meet too many fields like this. Has to rate. Add in They Alluvem, showed speed up around top turn at Alex Park and fought hard in first run for 150 days. Improver.

Race Two

Supper Waltz Wilson

Lindt

Dr Who

Supper Waltz Wilson has always shown the ability and that again on show when he went close to beating them fresh up off a 142 day spell. Looks nearly home this field if he trots away early. Lindt began then galloped at Alex Park last week. Won maiden convincingly this track and could turn the form around here. Dr Who a must have on recent form, another sound try last week at Auckland. Better this track.

Race Three

Swaps

Bow Street Runner

God Knows

Swaps tough to beat on season's form, and has the quick early speed to find lead or trail. Looks the one. Bow Street Runner finally put the package together and got the money last time, a more complete effort after galloping in previous runs. Has to go close again. God Knows possible leader with high speed, add in.

Race Four

Southern Loch

Electrofyng Cullen

Good Karma

Southern Loch lacked dash but couldn't get going wide when they were flying along the inside at Auckland last week. Go on smart debut second this track, undone final strides. Should go well. Electrofyng Cullen qualified in 2:48.6 (2200m) this track and that very good run. Ran second at workouts Saturday and has been forward to go for week or two. Good Karma one for long odds to spice up multiples. Consider 1,2,3,4,9 P6.

Race Five

Dreamweaver

Fidicia

Pablo Bromac

Speedy mare Dreamweaver loves the mobile starts and on recent form it would take a good effort from another runner to be beating her. Another big run when she contested standing start last time. Looks very close to Pick6 anchor. Her stablemate Fidicia also not short on ability and looks second best off draw, while Pablo Bromac is improving with racing and could show up. Take the risk and anchor Dreamweaver.

Race Six

Mystic Mink

Presidential Belle

Ebony Chapel

Mystic Mink freshened since last racing 28 Aug and was impressive second at Alex Park workouts when Maurice McKendry had handfuls of her at post. Can resume with win. Presidential Belle showed her class when winning fresh up off 84 day break when last produced this track. Should go on with it. Ebony Chapel a handy horse, needs to step well but a royal chance on form. Consider 6 & 8 in Pick6.

Race Seven

Caribbean Dream

Queen Of Heaven

Cruiser Franco

Caribbean Dream dashed through when gaps appeared at Alex Park last week, too good. Gets handy gate over 1700m and good enough to win again, though not a good thing. Queen Of Heaven back in the field when they ran home in 56.9 last week at Alex Park. This more to her liking. Cruiser Franco a smart winner fresh up and has the gate to operate from over 1700m. Possibly consider 1,4,8 in Pick6.

Race Eight

The Other Day

Threesacrowd

Wildee

The Other Day caught the eye running home really well at Alex Park last week in a far better field, obviously enjoying a solid clip over the 2700m. Should go close to winning this on that effort. Threesacrowd a good performer on both first and second days at Manawatu meeting and is fit for this. Has early speed. His stablemate Wildee also sound at Manawatu, the second day run better. Montreux next best.

Race Nine

Ohoka Du Nord

Ronan Maguire

Just Wicked

Ohoka Du Nord one of the few by Bella's Boy to appear on the track. He qualified well when second to smart Grace Way and then very impressive trial win at Alex Park when he got home in 56.4 to beat Commander Steel in 2:48.3 (2200m). That good enough for this. Ronan Maguire beaten two noses when he debuted strongly this track a couple of weeks ago. Gets good draw and did show nice gatespeed that night. Just Wicked beat Thomas Maguire when qualifying and looks handy. Face Your Fears a definite include following out good beginner.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Its Adorable a class or two below Brownie just now but she tried hard to beat him last week in good performance. On form she clearly one they have to beat. William Lance is talented trotter going well workouts and trials, only concern he had three runs in week at Rangiora last week. Should go well though. Brite Autumn huge at Kaikoura, trapped wide, game finish. A very even field.

Race Two

Mattnamaras Band again beaten last week but by a nice horse and he gets his chance to win this time even off second row draw. Arden's Darlin had just that little bit too much ground to peg back at Forbury, still a great effort, she class and must include. Diomedes should appreciate drop back from 3yo company and also worth the look at longer odds. Consider 2,3,4 off inside barriers.

Race Three

On Your Mach has impressed me every time I've seen him go, not necessarily winning, yet running it out well without being under any pressure. The latest trial sound as a bell. Might pay a good price from wide draw. Heart Space a big finisher last week in good field and gets good draw this time. Natural chance on form. Amukadari didn't get around last bend at Kaikoura, good after. Add talented sorts 1,8,9,12.

Race Four

Imagine Me capped the impressive workout and trial form with slick Ashburton debut, good enough to sit in the death all the way and dash home in 26.0 last 400m. Looks Oaks fully of high quality. Victoria Rulz was massive when fresh up at Ashburton and holds class edge on most of these, has to rate. Maguinness did the job well last time, and will win more. This within his grasp. Consider Cruise To Glory, lovely workout Sat.

Race Five

Onedin Crusader looks all class at trials, running 3:01.4 to qualify at Ashburton, beating Imagine Me. Will be very hard to stop. Caesar's Bracelet also impressive workouts then trials in past week or two, looking rather smart. Gets draw to use, also. Home Town Hero is underrated and going really well, another tidy workout on Saturday to fit him for this. Others with good ability are 3,9,11,12,15.

Race Six

Spirit Of The Sun Who trots away early will be the key to success here. Spirit Of The Sun failed to do that last time when favourite but is generally solid so give another chance. The third placing two starts ago was huge. Paint The Moon rather forward for this after slick Rangiora workout win last Saturday, running them off their feet. Can win at odds. Sun Of Loose went very nice to win debut, could back that up. 1,2,12,16,18 for Pick6 spread.

Race Seven

Franco Nereus This might be slightly easier given the barrier draws. Franco Nereus has copped decent checks in his first two races and has shown real talent to pick himself up and keep going. Looks the goods off nice draw and will probably go forward. Dustin Bromac very good in Sires Stakes heat last week and this easier. He follows out The Big Mach who is drawn to jump out and go, beaten by a star last time. They strong in Pick6.

Race Eight

Raging Fire No standout here. Stick with Raging Fire, a talented pacer who hasn't put it all together yet but is best one here should he behave. Under Line a danger, home in 56.4, 27.0 last splits at Ashburton workouts, beaten a nose. Always shown ability. Miss Rocket left parked last time, since handy workout. She also not short on ability. Maturity a nice type debuting, worth gold coin eachway. Consider 1,3,4,11 in Pick6 if going wider.

Race Nine

Announcement Open race. Announcement possibly drawn to trail Laytons Girl who leaps the gate and should get nice run. Has been forward at workouts. Angela's Dream no luck at Forbury, chance if they go hard up front. Her stablemate Hilarious Life on the improve, looked in need of a run last week. Consider 2,9,10,14.

Race Ten

Indy Village Indy Village going like a winner at workouts, up to beat NZ Cup starter Special Ops at Rangiora last Saturday with spirited burst wide. Drawn to go very close. Cadence to follow through and improved off last week's run. Shinny only needs luck to figure in finish, going well. Other chances 7,8,13,14.

Harness 'Final Field' Large Wagers

NZ Metro T.C. – Friday 31 October

Race 1 – 1st Eric's Legend opened $1.75 & closed $1.70 – Largest wager $1,200 at $1.75

No surprise to see punters only wanting to be on the first two favourites in the opening race and it was hard to lay any other runner. Our only losing result in the single 'book' was Mattnamaras Band but the winner was heavily wagered in multi's.

Race 3 – 1st Georgetown opened $1.60 – Largest wager $1,700 at $1.60

Bad All Over (2nd) $2,000 at $6.50 & $1,000 at $6.50

Once again we saw only two runners taking all the money and they quinnelled the race. Not a good start to the night with two from two favourites winning and no doubt multi wagering customers will be smiling.

Race 4 – 1st Dream Supreme opened $1.70 & closed $1.70 – Largest wager $1,000 at $1.60 (X2)

The winner was a break even result on the single 'book' but in multi wagering he wasn't a great result. Best backed of the rest was Wild Storm (3rd).

Race 6 – 1st Sleepy Tripp opened $3.80 & closed $2.80 – Largest wager $1,000 at $3.40

The Force (2nd) $1,000 at $3.40 (X2)

Bushfire (5th) $500 at $10 & $500 at $7.00

The late money did come for the winner who crashed in late to close as the tote favourite as well as ours. The first four favourites were all well backed with Bushfire our worst result over The Force. The winner was a winning result on the single 'book' but there are plenty of multi wagers going through him.

Race 7 – 1st Joyfuljoy opened at $1.80 & closed $2.00 – Largest wager $2,000 at $2.00

The winner was heavily backed all day and closed as our only losing result. We saw a few multis finishing on her which added to the loss.

Race 8 – 1st Sovereignty opened $1.40 & closed $1.40 – Largest wager $4,000 at $1.40

Makarewa Sun (8th) $2,000 at $5.50

Some more multi's were finishing on the winner and this made it six from six favourites at Addington so we will be downing the panadol before checking out the multi's finishing on the final two races.

Race 10 – 1st Keprightondreaming opened $31 & closed $31 – Largest wager $50 at $31

Mr Molly (2nd) $2,000 at $4.00

Artishake (4th) $1,000 at $6.50

Finally a good result for the 'book' although one of our customers collected $10,416 for him or her for a $10 four horse multi - Sleepy Tripp $3.00, Tuapeka Tiz $8.00, Sovereignty $1.40 & Keprightondreaming $31. If you saw the multi's finishing and going through the favourite you would believe it when we say we were happy to pay this multi out.

Race 11 – 1st Grant Lea opened $10 & closed $11 – Largest wager $1,000 at $13

Slash An Burn (3rd) $1,500 at $2.00

We had our hands tied in the last race with a huge multi liability on the favourite and plenty also finishing on the second favourite and we couldn't afford to do much more damage. We did lay a large wager on the winner about four minutes out and even at $2.00 money still came for the favourite.

Auckland T.C. - Friday 24 October

Race 7 – 1st Tuapeka Tiz opened $8.00 & closed $6.50 – Largest wager $450 at $8.00

We Shall See (2nd) $2,000 at $3.00 & $2,000 at $3.50, $1,000 at $5.00 & $1,000 at $4.00

Clonmel (5th) $2,000 at $4.00, $2,000 at $3.00 &

All the late money was for Clonmel who closed at $3.60 after opening at $7.50. The winner was a good result.

Dunn crowned Canterbury Junior Sportsman of the Year

Courtesy HRNZ

At the Sir Richard Hadlee Sports Trust Canterbury Sports Person of the Year Awards dinner last Friday, young junior driver Dexter Dunn was crowned Junior Sportsman of the Year.

Dunn was the first harness personality in eighteen years to win such an award in Canterbury. Due to driving commitments at Addington, Dunn wasn't there to receive his award but mum Rose accepted the honour on her son's behalf.

The award was in recognition of an outstanding season (July 2007/June 2008) where Dunn smashed a range of industry records, mainly held by open horsemen, in his first full season as a junior driver. The driving feats saw him enter the history books alongside all-time greats such as Maurice McKendry and Tony Herlihy.

Records Dunn rewrote or smashed over the 2007/08 season that paved the way for him to take out the top Canterbury award were:

- Drove 146 winners in the 2007/08 season being the youngest ever and first Junior Driver to win a Drivers Premiership.
- The youngest driver to win a Group One race in New Zealand at 18 years 153 days.
- The youngest driver to reach the milestone of 100 career wins.
- The second junior driver to drive 100 winners or more in a single season. The previous record was held by former World Champion driver Mark Jones with 100 wins.
- Stands in equal fourth place on the most wins ever in an individual season, joining harness racing legends Maurice McKendry (161, 152, 146) and Tony Herlihy (147).
- The first junior driver to drive horses earning stake money in excess of $1 million in a season. Dunn stacked up a massive $1,384,437 in stakes for the season.
- Drove more winners in his first full season of driving in NZ than Michael Walker (131) did in his first full season of thoroughbred race riding.

Dunn has begun this season as he left it, on a high . He currently sits atop the drivers' premiership on 34 wins, four ahead of North Island driver David Butcher. Dunn looks to be set to reach even dizzier heights this season should he carry on his current form.

HRNZ congratulates Dexter on his award and achievements.
A tremendous return for any driver let alone one as young as 18 .
