SELECTIONS

Race One

Balleybofey

Got Milk

Launch Me

Balleybofey had it won all the way to the line last time and was nailed last stride by Jaccka Sparky. Also very sound when placed behind Sam Rule. Looks a bit better than most here. Got Milk has awful form but is talented and joins Butt stable for this. Can win. Launch Me sound place chance this draw, add in 2,3,4,14.

Race Two

Raydon

Shezadorabil

Summerline

Unfortunately Raydon didn't go away at Alex Park last week, he'd have kept them busy if he had stepped. Has these in trouble if he goes early, thats the question. Shezadorabil interesting newcomer to Brent Lilley team and he can get them to go. Can be hard to catch around this track. Summerline good to workouts a must.

Race Three

Georgy Girl

Hart Felt

Cornelia

Georgy Girl again missed out at Motukarara last week but had to make her run a furlong too soon again. She should have the measure of these and looks the one. Hart Felt chased gamely when second last time. Holding up well after busy season for 3yo filly. Cornelia qualified in 2:47.2 (2200m) and since placed at trials.

Race Four

Musgrove

Braig

Aholics Born To Trot

On his last two runs this track Musgrove looks the one. He was very brave on wet tracks and has come solid. Braig a definite threat on class alone and usually races well here. Good enough to overcome tough 55m handicap. Aholics Born To Trot going well and a must off 20m, while 2,8,11 are others to consider.

Race Five

Imatrotnovsky

Victory Trail

Double Ar Jay

Not the worlds greatest ever field. Imatrotnovsky has been a little unlucky not to win one or at least finish closer in last few. Gets her chance to grab maiden win here. Victory Trail becoming more solid and going handy races. A must have. Add in Double Ar Jay, usually does things right. 3yo Broke had support on debut.

Race Six

Internationalplayboy

Huff

Dead Calm

This looks a benefit for Internationalplayboy, racing well in strong Canterbury maidens and close to winning in that company. Looks the best of the night off good draw. Huff qualified well and looks handy type, a must for trifectas off lovely draw, while Dead Calm comes from top stable and must rate place chance.

Race Seven

Napoleon Dynamite

Andrea Jane

Operative Word

Napoleon Dynamite draws wide but he has met better fields than this in the past and class should tell. On 2yo form he'd win. Andrea Jane gets a draw and has gatespeed to use. Her two runs back off a break have been game and she close to a win. Operative Word also going well in Canty and a must. 6,8,11 others.

Race Eight

Miss Chievous

Sean Philip

VC Atom

Miss Chievous joins Butt stable and on her recent form you'd say no, but she is a capable mare who should relish the chance to drop back in class. Has enough early speed to lead and take catching. Sean Philip has looked like a quick winner in two runs off spell and a definite, and add VC Atom off nice draw. Consider 1.

Race Nine

Falcons Idol

Bloss's Flame

Mystical Maddie

A tricky wee leg of Pick6. Falcons Idol probably the best and he seemed to be going well when knocked over at Waikouaiti last time. Races the smaller tracks well and he should win this with right run. Bloss's Flame has found better form lately and must be added along with Mystical Maddie. Possible field job in P6.

Race Ten

Absolute Magic

Mrs McCabe

Garvie Bay

Class should tell here with Absolute Magic a standout. He last raced 02 January at Omakau but he a whiz fresh up and it looks his for the taking. Mrs McCabe a lovely mare with good draw and genuine upset chance, as is Garvie Bay who continues to impress in short career to date. Anchor the fav in P6.

Race Eleven

Funny Boy

Edernay

Red Di

Funny Boy racing super and unlucky not to have won a couple more races lately. Draw shouldn't be a problem and he clear top pick. Edernay genuine and races well here a must include, as is Red Di, back in Ken Barron stable and has quick early speed which is vital this track. Upsetters 2,7,9.

Race Twelve

Carlos

Haylin Hurricane

Sam Rule

Carlos over the odds in winning last time and his form is very good for a race like this. Jumps the gate and he looks strong win chance again. Haylin Hurricane racing better and deserves his turn, while Sam Rule raced well here last trip and should contune the good form. I'd stick to those in Pick6.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Auckland T.C. @ Alexandra Park SELECTIONS

Race One

Phil B

Spy

Lismore Lad

Phil B finally back to an all-weather track. His form on the grass very good, winning at Pukekohe last Sunday in easy fashion. Too good to discount and he an interesting runner. Spy returns after last racing 31 Dec in premier company. Goes well fresh and will be prominent. Lismore Lad did the job last time and took step up after sound maiden win. He gets good chance again this draw. Consider Dudley Poplar, a bit stiff last time.

Race Two

Ohoka Dallas

Arden's Storm

Trigirl Brigade

Ohoka Dallas an impressive winner this track and distance two back, beating Highview Tommy, then game run on grass to Sound Of Thunder in Kumeu Cup. Better than most. Arden's Storm went massive after dishing it to leader 1200m out last time. He quality pacer with better draw, too. Trigirl Brigade broke and lost her chance in big mares race at Addington last time. Alex Park form is good and she a threat. Add 5 & 9.

Race Three

Red

Gold Star

Perigo

Red didn't finish it off at Addington last time but certainly better than he was at Waikouaiti. On West Coast form he'd lap them, but is he in that form? Wouldn't have gone north if Paul Nairn wasn't happy. Gold Star a class mare racing well. The 20m handicap not that tough on her and she win chance. Perigo right up to just a 10m handicap as a claimer and he should relish the chance to start so close. He a must. Consider 5,6,7,13.

Race Four

Anvils Best Ever

Devil Dodger

Eridanus

The best is back. Anvils Best Ever looked every inch a class act when he destroyed them in Young Guns heat, his only start. Has worked up well in preparation for this and he should be winning again. Devil Dodger capped off smart debut placing with nice win last time. He and Eridanus sound threats. Consider 1 & 3.

Race Five

One Over Kenny

Stig

Our Sunny Whiz

Stig may have got the vote had he won last week, but was beaten on his merits by King Charlie. Obviously way too good to drop, but the grand mare One Over Kenny loves and knows this track so well she may have the real edge this time. Our Sunny Whiz genuine upset chance if at her best and do include. 1 & 4 others.

Race Six

Aslan

Highview Tommy

Tintin In America

The first clash of the Derby aspirants. Aslan very slick in winning last time after doing lots of work mid-race, showing his class to beat rival Highview Tommy. Draw could work in his favour here. Highview Tommy back to best with good win last week. He genuine win chance again. Tintin In America the interesting one. He hasn't be sighted since Dec 12 but we all know his capabilities. Too good to dismiss. Consider 2 & 9.

Race Seven

Lauraella

Joyfuljoy

Alexis

Lauraella far too good for them in Sales race at Addington last time, edging ahead as top filly. She missed last week's events and comes in slightly fresh. Has furnished into a lovely specimen and is the one to beat. Joyfuljoy should appreciate the 2700m, the shorter trip last week not ideal for her, though still good when second. She big chance. Alexis below-par after leading last week but can improve. Imagine Me obvious other.

Race Eight

Stunin Cullen

Sleepy Tripp

Rowan Direct

Stunin Cullen no chance from last when he raced last week, flying late but race was over. Should leap to the front and win this. Follow your money. Sleepy Tripp disappointing last week, a level or two below his capabilities. Stick with and he could trail. Rowan Direct a nice type to spice up trifectas. Consider 6,8,9.

Race Nine

Awesome Armbro

Monkey King

Tennis Ball

A race in two? Obviously Awesome Armbro and Monkey King the top class horses here and they should fight it out. Awesome Armbro gets top vote off lovely draw and the Monkey may have to do some work to catch him. You need both, of course. Tennis Ball should finish it off and place.

Race Ten

Future Fire

Cyclone Night

Mydadisachamp

Future Fire did very well last start, flying home from the rear to nab second money behind Harley Earl at Addington. Classy filly bought for good money and she should repay some here. Cyclone Night far from disappointing in two runs off a spell and this easier, if anything. She rates. Mydadisachamp was stiff last week and is getting close to returning to winning form. She's a bet at longer odds. Consider River Belle, a lovely juvenile filly last term and back off lengthy break. Picks a tough race to resume, though.

Melpark Major to miss Interdominion

Courtesy of Brad Bishop, Harness Racing Victoria

Next month's Watpac Inter Dominion will be run without Melpark Major after trainer Alan Tubbs this morning made the gut-wrenching decision to scratch the gelding from Australasia's premier pacing series.

The Victorian gun split the bulb in his off-hind hoof in a paddock accident yesterday and while the injury isn't serious, the timing of it means Tubbs won't have time to get him right for the Inter Dominion, which starts on March 14.

"I can heal the wound in time, but there's not a hope in hell I could have him fit," the Bacchus Marsh trainer said. "We contemplated taking him to the beach and working him that way, but it (the hoof) has got to be stable to heal properly and I can't flex it enough to give him the exercise he needs. That first heat is in three weeks, so in the end the decision made itself because we wouldn't have had the time to get him right."

"We were pretty miserable about it all, but in the light of day and you think about the bushfires and what's happened there, this is just one race in the life of a young horse and we're very, very lucky that it didn't do any real damage."

Tubbs suspects his stable star, a winner of 22 of his 49 starts including the SEW-Eurodrive Victoria Cup at his last appearance, hurt himself while frolicking with a younger stablemate.

"Him and a two-year-old were just running up and down the paddock having a play and he's kicked the trough judging by the evidence," Tubbs said. "He could have kicked a post or anything, but we're pretty sure he's kicked the water trough. Thankfully he only got the skin, he didn't get the cartilage and he could have broken his leg the way they were playing."

Tubbs will now let Melpark Major's injury run its course with the long-range plan to have him right for the 2010 Inter Dominion in Sydney. "Now there's no hurry to heal it now, so I won't be taking any risks with him," Tubbs said. "We'll really take our time and I haven't given any thought at all to what (races) might be coming up. There's always another great race coming up and while this is unfortunate for us, it's not what I would call a tragedy. Very disappointing is all it is."

First4 dividends pay off for punters

Courtesy HRNZ

Since the inception of the TAB's latest betting type, the First4, harness racing punters have been reaping the benefits of its' high payouts.

The First4 commenced on Wednesday 17th December 2008. So far there have been 131 First4 harness races available to punters with the average payout reaching $2,800.08 and 80% of the dividends making it over the $500 mark. Incredibly 49% of the dividends were over $2000. An astonishing $17,882.60 result came in at Wyndham HRC on the 8th February with other high results including $12,091.50 at Franklin TC and $9301.20 at NZ Metropolitan TC.

Like all betting, not all odds are in the favour of the punter with the lowest dividend for a First4 in December at Gore HRC - $34.70. However with only 6% of dividends less than $200, there is great potential for huge returns.

Quaddie to hit harness for first time at Alex Park

A guaranteed $100,000 Quaddie will be available to punters on Friday March 6, Auckland Cup night. This will be the first time the new betting product will be tested on the harness market.
