THURSDAY HARNESS

Cambridge Te Awamutu @ Cambridge Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Noblesse Royale

Secretive

Binto War

A tough one to start the night. Noblesse Royale continued strong workout form with another good win this track on Saturday. One on second line often good draw here and worth a look even though she requires luck. Secretive went a handy race on the grass for fourth last time and though drawn poorly she looks on the improve. Binto War qualified well and did go well at workouts on Sat. Add in. Consider 4,7,11,12.

Race Two

Heza Holmes

Just Like Cullen

Clancy Maguire

Heza Holmes going great out of in-form Todd Mitchell stable, has impressed in each of four starts. Draw is awkward but he seems to be capable of working if he has to. The one to beat. Just Like Cullen generally disappointing though expect forward showing fresh up, he probably suits being in that condition. Clancy Maguire much more like what he capable of last time and since good at workouts. Consider 4,8,9,11.

Race Three

Aslan

Trigirl Brigade

Bow Street Runner

Aslan very good through Derby build-up then sound enough when sixth in the big one behind Stunin Cullen. On class he looks home for the money in this event. Trigirl Brigade a tough mare who went super last start when used early. She will beat most home. Bow Street Runner a talented type, the threat. Add 3,11,12.

Race Four

Just Wicked

Napoleon Dynamite

Thats Gold

Just Wicked was good enough to win twice this track over Xmas - New Year, then fourth to Highview Tommy in Waikato Guineas. Should beat these fresh up. Napoleon Dynamite an able second-stringer for stable after strong Manawatu form. Can use good gate to his advantage. Thats Gold a smart type, drawn poorly but capable of working mid-race. Consider 1,8,12 but favourite looks the one.

Race Five

Continentaldoosie

Lady Boyz

Cameron Jake

A tricky way to kick off the Pick6. Continentaldoosie well below her best since winning impressively in maiden grade. She has advantage if able to trot away from one and get running. Good enough on best night. Lady Boyz has been racing well and backed that with strong workout win on Saturday. In the right form to strike. Cameron Jake ground out tough win at Alex Park last week and seems suited again. Add 8,9,13,14,16.

Race Six

Street Kid

Duncan Finn

Artistic Rulz

Street Kid had no luck on debut at Alex Park, pushed back to rear but made some really nice ground over final 200m. He looks the one despite draw. Duncan Finn obvious danger. He draws well and did have them at his mercy at Alex Park last week before being grabbed by Chardanae. Strong chance. Artistic Rulz has been very sound in two starts and the obvious other on form.

Race Seven

Presidential Belle

McAlister

Anotherchristian

Presidential Belle a good mare out of form. She often saves her best for this track and she won't meet a field like this too often in her grade. Stick with the ship. McAlister the one to beat if he steps well, his grass track form has been good through the latter part of the summer. Anotherchristian going well in probably better fields and is one to add at longer odds. Consider 1,6,11,13.

Race Eight

Lauraella

River Belle

Electrofyng Cullen

Lauraella top class and looks over the line and a clear Pick6 anchor. She has proven herself the best 3yo filly in the country and should be winning again. River Belle was smartly driven to get the money last week and she is a filly that will keep improving. A must have in multiples. Electrofyng Cullen and Honey Rose Falcon the others to consider.

Race Nine

Special Sun

Dreamachiever

Ellevenfiftyseven

Our favourite leg of Pick6, the maiden trot. Special Sun no good thing to trot away, but going on very sound Alex Park performance when good finish for fourth behind multiple winner Cameron Jake last week, he looks the one to beat. Dreamachiever to the fore at trials and workouts and can run well with safe start. Ellevenfifty-seven a bold debut and since tidy workout run. Has to rate. Consider 4,6,7,8,12,14,16 and take spread!

Race Ten

Keystone Copper

Fair Blazing

Cooby

Keystone Copper loomed as winner and peaked late on grass at Pukekohe when third. Has looked early winner at the workouts in the past and should account for these with any luck in the running. Fair Blazing has poor form but is a bit better than that. Another who should improve form in weak field. Cooby battled final stages but stuck on last time. Could go well off another good draw on home track. 3,6,7,12 if going wider.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

A super field. Where they land early the key. Lifeoftheparty showed good speed at the finish in quiet workout on Saturday and seems very forward. He definite chance with a run through. Ima Gold Digger would get top vote but this awkward draw and Dream Machine can be rocky early. Still, he a must have. Pocaro the big danger, she needs to trot a bit better than last time, though. Consider 1,3,6 in great way to start the night.

Lifeoftheparty

Ima Gold Digger

Pocaro

Race Two

A touch unlucky not to win the Woodlands Derby, it looks all over red rover here for Sleepy Tripp, a quality 3yo. What beats him wins. The Jim Curtin-trained pair of Dream Supreme and Slash An Burn were both super last week behind Georgetown, flying home wide. They should give good account again though placings may be best they can do behind the hot favourite. Red Army the obvious other.

Sleepy Tripp

Dream Supreme

Slash An Burn

Race Three

Race experience possibly the key to success here, though a few of the first-starters are talented. Mapua Legend ran very quick opening 800m when undone late in Kindergarten last time, the first time he'd been beaten in four starts. Should go close, he great tradesman. Smiling Shard actually went super in last two runs at Alex Park and will beat most here despite draw. Leonidas always sound at trials and has the draw. Consider 1,4,5.

Mapua Legend

Smiling Shard

Leonidas

Race Four

A race where the 3yo's should dominate as they look for yet another free win, which is a rule that remains justly unfair on the four-year-old and older horses and connections in junior races. Eric's Legend last raced in Woodlands Derby and did well, he stands out, with another Derby runner Diomedes also sure to appreciate drop in class and a must include. McKay another 3yo with good chance and has draw. Consider 2,7,12.

Eric's Legend

Diomedes

McKay

Race Five

Springbank Richard has found new confidence tackling easier company in deep south and he should now convert that to winning form at Addington. He seems back to his best. Running On Time will give him a run for his money, though. Another big win last time out and he heading straight to open class. Glenbogle no chance off 50m last time but is close up this time and a definite. Consider 1,6,9, King Charlie getting risky..

Springbank Richard

Running On Time

Glenbogle

Race Six

The Purdon -Payne team to dominate here with class fillies Joyfuljoy and Imagine Me drawn to jump out and keep the others safely held. Looks strong quinella chance with Joyfuljoy considered the better of the two. Rona Lorraine classily with genuine place chance as is Raindowne with top form behind her.

Joyfuljoy

Imagine Me

Rona Lorraine

Race Seven

A tough one to break down. Ohoka Nevada earns top vote after super summer, including beating Fiery Falcon in 4yo Championship at Forbury. Should have won Oamaru Cup when unlucky. Freshened up and his stand start manners are more of a plus than a minus, and they are a negative for others. Chill probably used too soon in Invercargill Cup but big run nonetheless. He genuine chance. Indy Village needs to step but is going great. You'd need 6,7,10 in Pick6 and they all genuine win chances in great race.

Ohoka Nevada

Chilli

Indy Village

Race Eight

The roles reversed this time with Rider On The Storm likely to gain early advantage off gate over Georgetown who was supreme in winning their latest clash. Both horses went terrific and you'll need both in Pick6. Absolute Magic a must if he goes here instead of Gore. Stuart Brown the bolter after good workout win, Sat.

Rider On The Storm

Georgetown

Absolute Magic

Race Nine

Only question over Williamson pair is having missed a run at Forbury meeting that was abandoned, though they trialed against each other last week and quinella'd that heat. Great trainer will have them ready and they are both top class. With Intent grand mare always serious chance and a must. Add 2,4,15,16.

Leighton Hest

Heyzeal

With Intent

Race Ten

Huge run from Algeepce last start when involved in a bit of a senseless 27.0 second burn through early stages, fighting bravely for third. Drawn poorly but this not strong field and he looks the one. Red Baron showed further improvement with stout finish last time when stepping to C1 grade. He has lovely draw and should run well. Brave Wiggy also racing well and won't leave markers from ace. Consider 2,4,13,14.

Bushfire Appeal Stallion Auction

An online stallion service auction will raise funds for the Red Cross Victorian Bushfire Appeal

A service to Art Major will be among those auctioned to raise funds for the Victorian Bushfire Appeal.

Saturday the 7th of February 2009 will long be remembered as the most tragic day in Australia's history.

Bushfires throughout Victoria caused billions of dollars worth of damage and tragically took away the lives of more than 200 men, women and children.

To assist the Red Cross Victorian Bushfire Appeal many of the Southern Hemisphere's leading Stud Farms have donated Stallion Services to be auctioned online on the website www.standardbredsonline.com.

The auction will commence on Sunday the 15th of March and complete on Saturday the 28th of March.

The Farms to date who have provided services include Alabar, Bee Jays Stud, Braycrest Park, Burwood Stud, Concorde Park, Calderwood Farm, Empire Stallions, Karamea Farm, Monarch Farm, Pepper Tree Farm and Royalstar Farm in Australia and Nevele R Stud and Woodlands Stud in New Zealand.

Special thanks are extended to Blue Chip Farms of New York who have supported the Victorian community by making services to their high profile stallions Art Major and American Ideal.

The service to Art Major in particular should be highly sought after as he is fully booked for the 2009 season.

The auction has been instigated and organised by Brett Coffey and Stuart Valentine. For further information please go to www.standardbredsonline.com or contact Brett Coffey on bcoffey@westnet.com.au or (08) 9530 1012.
