THURSDAY HARNESS

Wairarapa HRC @ Manawatu Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Raydon

Amarok

Braig

A tidy field to start the night. Raydon very classy when he does it right, not quite 100 percent in his gait yet, but no question the ability. Should win again if he trots though not a good thing. Amarok much better second day at Hawera chasing a shadow in Genius who was handicapped to win. She should keep the run of form going here. Braig galloped badly in G1 at Addington. The 55m a good test, though still a big chance.

Race Two

Duncan Finn

River Field

Belle Vista

Duncan Finn dashed up to win on turn at Cambridge last week but Napoleon Dynamite had a little more in the locker over final stages for him. Racing well and he should appreciate drop to this company. River Field an impressive debut winner this track. He looks smart young horse and the immediate rise in grade should not be a major issue. Belle Vista racing well, a must for multiples, with Best Buck and Ruby River the others.

Race Three

Noblesse Royale

Seelstar's Blue Chip

Southern Rose

Noblesse Royale has a bit more ability than these if she turns it on. A handy effort last time in non tote after big run when second to Bintto War at Cambridge, 19 March. Should beat these. Seelstar's Blue Chip did well both days at Hawera, beaten narrowly. On form he's clearly a danger. Southern Rose did a bit to find front and was later cut back in straight at Cambridge last week. Should be prominent off this draw. Consider 4 & 8.

Race Four

Franco Hendrix

Jack Jack Attack

Transcend

Franco Hendrix has shown good ability, he hasn't had all the luck in six starts to date. Should enjoy Manawatu company and he seems likely to be right in the fight. Jack Jack Attack joins Butt stable at Woodend, his recent Rangiora workout okay, running on late from rear for midfield finish. Should show something. Transcend racing well and gets best draw, with Strawbs Fire Chip the sneaky, smart 10L trial winner at Marlborough and Peter Ferguson has opted to take the drive, usually a good pointer. Go 7 & 14 if you want spread.

Race Five

James Burke

Eastwood Pharoah

Wot The Owl

Potentially a tricky leg of Pick6. James Burke gets top vote as now a $3500 claimer and two-win horse in one-win race. Hawera form very sound and he should continue that. Eastwood Pharoah was good maiden winner first up then just as good when fourth in C1 grade. Looks handy. Wot The Owl won twice at Hawera and has to be considered. Lightning Play won't get better chance though old legs look weary. 3,8,11 others.

Race Six

Balleybofey

Mr Whoudini

Clintons Maid

Balleybofey very smart winning a double this track at last meeting. He showed genuine speed both nights and in small field he will be difficult to hold out. Mr Whoudini always a threat in this sort of race, his Hawera first day win very tough, then no chance off draw day two. Clintons Maid dropping in class and gets her chance to return to form. Consider Launch Me who also won a double this track in late March.

Race Seven

Franco Endure

Flyin Interstate

Kaye At Quinns

A good little field. Franco Endure showing good form at workouts in preparation and he's a smart horse. The standing start would be the question mark on him. This is his first attempt on racenight. Too good to risk. Flyin Interstate very brave in Hawera Cup, his Manawatu Cup win this track last month also very sound. He has to be right in this. Kaye At Quinns good enough, better than form suggests. Consider 2 & 7, both talented.

Race Eight

Enchant

Lady Eskay

So Flash

Enchant clear top pick on first day Hawera run when unlucky fourth, though she seemed a bit flat backing up on second day when sound enough, just lacking final dash. She should have the measure of most if she trots all the way. Stablemates Lady Eskay (trainer Brent Lilley back from his 9th retirement to drive) and So Flash, who promises a bit but rarely delivers, are sound threats. Consider a field job in Pick6 if you hate this!

Race Nine

Red Rebellion

Redoubtable

Jackca Sparky

Red Rebellion very good in two runs at Hawera, far from unexpected debut win at good odds then a tough effort after racing without luck on day two, just beaten. Should be a better horse on all-weather track and he's clearly the one to beat. Redoubtable ran on strongly on Monday at Hawera after luckless opening day sixth. She is in the right form. Jackca Sparky was handy this track in late March when fourth on first night then worked far too hard wide out on second night. Upsetter off one on second row. Colonel Pickering the other.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Reefton T.C. @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Nandy Noot

Pink Diamond

Maple Twist

Nandy Noot back off a spell and looking bright at the workouts, beating Tehoro Flirt last Saturday week in good style, home in 29.1 last 400m. Should beat these if she trots like she can. Pink Diamond has been tackling nice horses and going well. Big chance back to this. Maple Twist is Coast-owned and has ability.

Race Two

Lilac Splash

Hey Diduknow

Asset Rich

Lilac Splash always back, no cart up when no moves were made last week, her final 200m very nice under the circumstances. Will win with right suck into it, but she does require bit of luck. Hey Diduknow cost herself with slow start off stand last week, this more like it. Asset Rich, Millwood Nebraska, Unrelenting others.

Race Three

Live The Dream

Mystic Sun

Day Of Reckoning

Live The Dream covered himself in glory with very good effort in G1 NZ Trotting Champs when fourth to One Over Kenny. He'll start favourite on that and looks the one to bowl. Mystic Sun much better last week and seems genuine improver. Day Of Reckoning caught the eye last start, add in. Idid It Myway good enough.

Race Four

Have Fun With Mee

Didgeridoo

Reason To Believe

Have Fun With Mee qualified nicely at Addington then backed that with 27.5 final 400m beaten a head at Ashburton trials on Monday. Stable has them ready first up. Didgeridoo disgraced herself when clearly unhappy at Mot when she debuted. Since good trial winner home in 56.5, 27.1 at Ash. Add 4,8,11,12,17.

Race Five

Tintin In America

Slash An Burn

Bunda Cliffs

Tintin In America very good in the NZ Derby, dashing late and would have won with clear go at them earlier. Looks his for the taking in that form off this draw. Slash An Burn gets draw he loves and should run a place at least, with Bunda Cliffs a threat off one on second row. Those on the markers should benefit here.

Race Six

The Fiery Ginga

Continental Auto

Dreamit

Race experience tells the tale with The Fiery Ginga obviously the one as he's been pretty dominant of late. Wide draw never an issue in 2yo trots so disregard that aspect. Continental Auto doing a grand job for a filly, last week's run very solid. Can win it, as can Dreamit, getting better all the time. Add 4 & 15.

Race Seven

Magical Monty

Oscar Royce

Mullingar Mac

Step and run the key here. Magical Monty has tricky draw, relying on those in front to step well. On his debut and earlier qualifying trial this looks his for the taking. Oscar Royce slow early, held up top, then ran on well last bit last week. Can win if he gets away on terms. Mullingar Mac unlucky last week, dashed through late. The one draw tricky at 2000m but he genuine chance. Consider 2,3,7,8,13 in Pick6 and multiples.

Race Eight

Western Flare

Black Mambo

Smiling Shard

A tricky one. Western Flare to back up from super win at Timaru on Tuesday, a quick turnaround for a 2yo. He has class and best draw which is big bonus. Black Mambo went a very nice race last week, running on well behind Kotare Mach in the Welcome Stakes. Can threaten with luck off draw. Smiling Shard game again last week, depends where he leaves from here. Consider 4,7,8,9,11,15 all smart and upset hopes.

Race Nine

Doctor Jock

Jumanji Franco

Stylish Monarch

Doctor Jock back from a solid attempt in NZ Trotting Derby, showing his usual stickability in record-run event. His manners usually good and he looks tough to beat off front. Jumanji Franco the best of these but too tough to follow as she gallops as well as she trots. Would win if able to trot the journey. Stylish Monarch very stylish winning here last week, too smart for handy lot. This not a lot tougher, either. Consider 5,8,10,12,18.

Race Ten

Harley Earl

Lyrical Star

Bronze Jay

The absolute good thing of the night and Pick6 anchor. Harley Earl quite outstanding in NZ Derby, some 100m from leader after 600m, blocked for room in straight looking for a go. Super trial on Monday, home in better than 55.0. Will win. Lyrical Star genuine place chance off ace, good win last time, add Bronze Jay.

Race Eleven

Franco Nereus

Born Again Courage

Johnny Bravo

Franco Nereus could have come up a run short off a break last time, just peaked on his run. Good draw a plus if he quick away. Stay with him. Born Again Courage trialed well at Rangiora workouts a couple of weeks ago and is genuinely better than most in this. Johnny Bravo, Vito, Triple Jay the others.

Race Twelve

Alexis

Raindowne

Torias Secret

Alexis clocked in 25.8 final 400m last week, flying home along inside for unlucky third after being trapped away four-deep on the pegs. She gets the draw to lead this time, something that has eluded her of late. Looked the one. Raindowne going great in tougher fields and she's the threat. Outside strong top two go 8,9,13,16.

Note

The first of the “Drivers Challenges” will take place at Addington on Friday night.

The winning jockey or driver is based on the greatest number of points that accumulate over the meeting or meetings. Points will be accrued from each race with three points for a winning ride or drive, two points for a second place and one point for a third place. It will be run as a Fixed Odds book.

The book listing drivers or jockeys and their opening prices will open an hour prior to the race meetings they are being offered on. The book will close and reopen after each of the first three races whereby the prices will be adjusted according to each race’s result, and then will remain closed after the start of the third race. The minimum bet is $5.

NB: The New Zealand TAB reserves the right to close a book and refund bets if a favoured driver or jockey does not turn up to a race meeting, or if two named drivers or jockeys do not make the meeting. This product replaces Lay of the Day, which finished in March 2009.

Check www.tab.co.nz for the updated information and markets on raceday.
