Both Armbro Winger and Guv'nor produced fast finishes for 2nd and 3rd respectively, The Gun, who blew the start then circled the field to lead, only to just get overhauled in the shadow of the post and does look a very nice horse in the making.

NOTE

We chose to comment Addington's meeting on Friday night as opposed to the premier meeting at Alexandra Park.

Although we like to preview the premier meetings, the number of small fields and standout favourites on the night at Auckland meant we could tell you little more about the majority of the fields than you would already know.

I'm sure you'd rather we try to find a winner at longer odds in better betting races.

Apologies in advance to anyone wanting comment for the premier meeting where the Pick6 is held.

THURSDAY HARNESS

Forbury Park T.C @ Forbury Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Savona

Bargain Basement

Patienceofasaint

Savona trialed well when winning at Ashburton, 13 April, home in 28.0 final 400m with sustained sprint. Wouldn't have to go a lot better here. Bargain Basement showed ability last time in, and has been forward at the workouts. Expect good run. Patienceofasaint finished well, never really clear at Timaru after slow start. Stick with him. Maple Twist immediate switch to Williamson's after Add failure. Shows enough to rate.

Race Two

Motu Star Of Pacific

Vee

Stefano

Early speed the key, with Vee able to hold up from one and give Motu Star Of Pacific the run through. If they lead-trail then both are hard to beat. Vee won again at Motukarara workouts on Sat in good time. Motu Star Of Pacific well-backed to beat better field last week and almost did the job. Add Stefano out of very-much in-form stable, a Harness Plus bonus up for him, also Brave Wiggly, wide mostly at Add, and Tauber.

Race Three

Mordor

Exposed

Dickie Nee

A very tidy maiden field. Mordor was unlucky on debut in fast-run race at Timaru, parked early then pushed to near last, running on well in sub-57 off the front. Hard to beat. Exposed well-bred and just the one run under the belt. Also had trial and workout to ready him. Add Dickie Nee, a speedy type who can do the odd thing wrong but is far from short on ability. McKellar & Beirut also good enough in top maiden race.

Race Four

Sonnetsson

Oscar Royce

The Brownhouse Kid

Sonnetsson bought out of Southland and now with Margo Nyhan. Went well to win Mot workout on Sat. Looks above-average type. Oscar Royce did a bit last week and faded late. The Brownhouse Kid a local with plenty of trial form, keeps turning up in results as a winner. Watch tote. Add Elvira Bromac a good run on debut for Kirk Larsen.

Race Five

Gimli

Lucky Pat

Popz Delight

Gimli met tough NZ Trotting Derby field two back then solid try behind Dream Machine last time out. In good form and should take care of these with safe start. Lucky Pat a real threat if she can get the wheels in motion early. A sound finish behind Dream Machine last time after good Invercargill win. She up for Harness Plus bonus here. Popz Delight getting stronger and 2200m stand suits him. Add in 3,8,10,16.

Race Six

Salutes Sister

Regent Safe

Late Arrival

Salutes Sister caught the eye getting home strongly last start and looks on the improve. The draw not great but a few scratchings will help the cause. Regent Safe generally average form though some of those runs were 'nt as bad as they read on paper. Looks in with upset chance this company. Late Arrival ran home strongly last bit at Timaru on a 56 and a bit last 800m. Could be improving. 1,2,4,14 for longer odds.

Race Seven

Yul Brunner

Athena Bromac

Whosgunagetit

Room for an upset here. Yul Brunner racing well and just nailed at Winton in shadows of the post when trying very hard. His Canterbury form had been much stronger. Gets his chance off the draw. Athena Bromac came off bad draw to prove too good on debut and rates highly again. Whosgunagetit also in better form and can match most of these. Go 2,11,12 if going wide. Could be tricky leg of Pick6.

Race Eight

Bettor's Strike

Absolute Magic

Cullini

Bettor's Strike did the business in Winton Cup on Sunday, a very good performance after giving them a start. The wide draw shouldn't be a major issue here, either. Absolute Magic clearly good enough and he did hint at better form last time to races. Class carries him long way. Cullini won like Phar Lap last start, wide bell, parked, home in 57.3, 26.5. Big chance if she does that again. Holmezy & Singtheblues the dangers.

Race Nine

Diomedes

Nitro

Elegant Jay

Diomedes run down but fought hard behind class 3yo's Highview Tommy and Rocket Star at Winton on Sunday. Well back in grade here and he looks a leader and winner. Pick6 anchor. Nitro back in good form the other. Elegant Jay often strongly supported and a local with some chance. Upsetters 1,2,10,13.

Race Ten

Franco Transit

The Duke Of York

Dobby

Franco Transit racing well, good finish for third at Timaru behind Great Divide. He up for Harness Plus bonus here and he does get a good draw off the front. The Duke Of York a noted stand-start exponent, chased gamely at Addington last week behind Johnny Bravo. One for odds. Dobby found new lease on life when first up out of Greg & Nina Hope stable when finally winning at Timaru. Stick with. Consider 3,4,17.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ METRO @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Franco Nereus

Hoon Hay

Motu Living Doll

Franco Nereus very unlucky not to win last week, bowled over at start then huge finish to snare second money. Should get a reasonable trip from the draw, he's the one to beat. Hoon Hay racing strongly and he again drawn to lead, where he likes to be. Tough to catch. Add in Motu Living Doll for odds, and 1,5,9.

Race Two

Jarvsfoks

Pink Diamond

Thrill Seeker

Jarvsfoks yet to win one but promising to do so. Has taken on top 3yo's with some credit and does have the ability to test this field. Looks a good bet. Pink Diamond chased Nandy Noot hard last week, another good run from this handy filly. She goes close with safe start. Thrill Seeker very consistent, a must. Add 2,8,11,12.

Race Three

Imagine Me

Joyfuljoy

Pay Me Painter

Imagine Me too slick for them last time, gets ace alley to work from over 1950m and that's a great advantage. She could have the wood on her stablemate Joyfuljoy, though the latter is so classy and a genuine win chance herself. Forget Derby run, she was barbecued to lead. Pay Me Painter upset hope off inside back row.

Race Four

Cherokee Franco

Bubba Ho Tep

Little Miss Priss

Cherokee Franco qualified smartly after slick workout efforts, looking the goods each time. Ran on well at Saturday workouts to top off the prep. Will go well. Bubba Ho Tep joins Dalgety stable and she showed good speed to beat them on Saturday. Expected to go very well. Little Miss Priss a chance off handy draw.

Race Five

Stylish Monarch

The Tin Man

Miss Warbucks

This will be a good competitive race. Stylish Monarch a good thing licked last week when blocked for a go 400m out, flying home for second money. On the last two starts he's a huge win chance. The Tin Man notably blocked for room and very unlucky in good field last week, a much better field than this, in fact. Ready to return to top form. Miss Warbucks always dangerous, as she showed at Winton. Have in again. Add 3,8,10.

Race Six

Black Mambo

Five Star Anvil

Cullens Party

Black Mambo tipped to run well last week and he didn't disappoint, fighting strongly for over $5 the place. He gets good draw and looks nice chance in even field. Five Star Anvil's form in the north very good, always competitive against strong fields. The draw no help but a good guide for future reference on him this week. Cullens Party impresses at workouts and trials and worth a ticket despite draw. Add 5,10,11,12.

Race Seven

OK Courage

Bushfire

Onedin Crusader

OK Courage cops a terrible draw, but he's hard to tip against in C2-C3 company the way he's been winning. Bolted in this track last time in fast 3:11 (2600m mob) after easy 1950m win. They'll know he's there despite the draw. Bushfire tried hard behind Diomedes last time and is due a win, with Onedin Crusader a logical threat off perfect draw from stand start. Consider About Ambition and Johnny Bravo, though draws awkward.

Race Eight

The Fiery Ginga

Vulcan

Arabess

Best horse cops awkward draw, though in 2yo trots that rarely seems to be a major issue. The Fiery Ginga the horse with all the form and he should beat these again, they seem quite some way behind him. Vulcan is a smart looking type in Butt-Anderson stable making debut. Impressive at trials and can run a race first up. Arabess brave in chasing The Fiery Ginga last time has to rate. Fresh on the scene are handy sorts 4 & 5.

Race Nine

Reine Guinevere

Corka Dream

Red Army

A wide-open race with some smart horses to do battle. Reine Guinevere unraced since unlucky fifth at Winton, 29 March, though she has trialed and looked very forward. Tough mare with genuine chance. Corka Dream possibly the forgotten horse. He did well two starts back then broke badly in Easter Cup. If he goes away he will give them a fright. Red Army unlucky last week is one for long odds. Consider 4,8,12,15,17.

Race Ten

Band On The Run

No Courage Russell

Etruscan

Band On The Run bowled half the field over a lap out and subsequently disqualified last time. He has always shown good ability. Tough to beat and he may choose to lead and stay out of trouble this time. No Courage Russell was smart trial winner at Ashburton and can go boldly first up. Etruscan arrived late for placing first up, looking quick winner. Drawn well. Add 2,8,11, all genuine threats in nice maiden line-up.

Race Eleven

Lightning Raider

Centreofattention

McKay

Lightning Raider unlucky last time, flying home after being trapped away until late. He should have the measure of these. Centreofattention trialed up nicely in preparation for fresh up run. A capable horse who should run well in adequate field. McKay always a danger with right run next best. Consider 1,9,12,13.
