Race 1 QUALIFYING TROT.

(Time Required - 3-22.5)

THURSDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Forbury Park T.C @ Forbury Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Castleton's Jewel

Honey Pie

Twitchit

Castleton's Jewel probably would have won at Rangiora but for a mid-race gallop. Ran home attractively after that. Will win if she trots the journey. Honey Pie very consistent in the grade and must go close again from front row draw. Twitchit no champion but does everything right, big trifecta player.

Race Two

Weka Lass

Line Of Fire

Franco Targa

An outstanding run at Rangiora after getting well back, Weka Lass should back up from that and beat these under the conditions that suit her perfectly. Line Of Fire another tidy run at Addington and should fill trifecta spot, while Franco Targa a definite hope, though he acceptor at Addington, too. Hawksbury Spirit upsetter.

Race Three

Hayden Abbe

Sticks

Franco Radial

The consistent Hayden Abbe is better-suited to front-row draw after doing well from second line last start. Hard to roll, though Sticks could not have been more impressive quitting maidens last time on this track and should be accorded a big chance again. Franco Radial very good at Nelson, stable going well, include.

Race Four

The Forger

Waihemo Cullen

Astro Galleon

The Forger is getting closer to a win. Has been beaten this track in three runs but still a bright trifecta and Pick6 chance. Waihemo Cullen unlucky to be beaten last couple, the draw is awkward, and that's the issue with him. Goes close with luck. Astro Galleon smart on debut, a nice 2yo who will win quickly.

Race Five

Art Rulz

Outstandin

Kabisa

Not the easiest leg of Pick6. Art Rulz rallied well over the concluding stages to nab second money at Rangiora. Had trialled adequately well beforehand, and looks the one here, though second row no help. Outstandin debuted off the second row, gets nice draw here, value runner. Kabisa good effort when strongly backed on debut, keep safe and add in to the mix. Consider 3.6.17 in Pick6.

Race Six

Starry Wood

Bee Bee's Star

Brooker

A game winner at Addington in the slush, Starry Wood looks the leader again here and over 2200m she must be very hard to catch. Bee Bee's Star battled hard in same race, may not have enjoyed the wet as much as the former, however. Keep safe, along with Brooker, off the scene for a while but from good stable and will be ready, you'd imagine. 3.11.12 others for Pick6.

Race Seven

Washington's Girl

Angelea D

H Adour

Close to winning, both Washington's Girl and Angelea D will be strongly favoured and it is hard to go past them. Both mares racing well and they are hard to split. Add H Adour, an eye-catcher making ground last bit when last produced - Gavin Smith sticks with her. Ivana Trump, Baji Bromac, Martha Bromac Pick6 chances.

Race Eight

Presido

Exotic Lady

Tartan Rover

Presido was beaten fair and square a fortnight ago and you'd hope for better this time. On class he wins, and with any improvement from fresh up run he should. Exotic Lady didn't have all the luck at Addington last Friday, she enjoys Forbury and did run past Presido a fortnight ago. Tartan Rover obvious other.

Race Nine

Dainty's Away

Franco Graduate

Jaccka Money

The ace draw sets this race up for Dainty's Away, a high gatespeed mare who loves to lead. Can they catch her over the 2200m around this track? Well, she's hard to beat, anyway. Franco Graduate is classy sort, never disappoints. His draw not great, but he can overcome that. Jaccka Money interesting runner. He showed class last time in, off scene for a while but won fresh up last year. Add 3.7.10,11,12 if you go wide in Pick6.

Race Ten

Front Page Girl

Mactastic

Wanaka Bay

Front Page Girl appears to thrive in Otago with strong races at Forbury of late. Likely to press forward and try for the lead - should be tough to topple. Mactastic flew home on markers from well back a fortnight ago. Any luck from the second line and he's hard to beat. Wanaka Bay a nice filly, handy last start, can win from a lovely draw.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Artishake

Tinisha Franco

Harem Franco

Artishake ran creditable races on Nelson-Marlborough circuit. Freshened since and has a nice draw to operate from here. Should go close. Tinisha Franco is knocking on the door. Her latest placing good after working hard wide. Draw no obstacle over 2600m. Harem Franco ran 3:04.3 to qualify (2400m) - stable going well.

Race Two

Oscar

Dear Diedre

Castletons Boy

The talented Oscar again failed to go from the stand last week and never looked happy on wet track afterward. Too good for maidens once he does it right - could be this week. Dear Diedre came up just short of winning last week - a must include again. Castletons Boy was very sound at trials before he missed on racenight. Good enough to beat these.

Race Three

Seaswift Princess

Lively Kitten

Bigtime Blue Jean

Seaswift Princess was gallant on the wet track last Friday, winning but never seeming happy in conditions. Should make it another win here. Lively Kitten was a good thing at Rangiora as long as she stepped well and once she did it was all over. Go again, she's in form. Bigtime Blue Jean smart, too, will like front row draw.

Race Four

Moneycounter

Sandinyourpocket

Black Cap

Moneycounter zipped home the final stages after getting back off pace at Rangiora. Should tidy this field up if the race is run to suit. Sandinyourpocket a grand run on wet track last week, franking solid trial form. Should place again. Black Cap making ground late at Rangiora, another good chance for him to win here.

Race Five

Charlie Reign

Rupeni

One For His Nob

A battle in two. Charlie Reign very slick in leading up to win easily last week. May have found it harder had Rupeni not galloped a lap out when trailing him, but the latter never looked happy on wet track. A strong quinella. One For His Nob won on debut, probably not a winner for Pick6 bettors, but sound trifecta chance.

Race Six

Centenary

Madagascar

Cosimo Bromac

A tough race, go wider in Pick6. Centenary running well, genuine sort and though he will have to overcome wide draw not to be discounted. Madagascar talked up as a winner last week, did go solid race, include again. Cosimo Bromac probably had chance at Rangiora but kept coming. Add 2,9,13,16.

Race Seven

Desert Victory

Del's Hoof N It

Chas Luney

An amazing win last start, Desert Victory the obvious choice to win again on absolute raw ability. A must for Pick6 takers. Del's Hoof N It relegated from winning at Rangiora for needless movement into passing lane - she's flying and can win to repay the followers. Chas Luney had it won at Forbury when he broke - could be dangerous if he leaps to the front. Other considerations in Pick6 - 7,9,12,13,16.

Race Eight

Corka Dream

Runnin Outa Excuses

Ochiltree Boy

An obvious Pick6 anchor - Corka Dream shoots for second win in a week after slick Rangiora win. Still not 100 percent ironed-out yet, but he's high on talent. Runnin Outa Excuses smart horse, brother to champion. Big win last start at Forbury, looks the danger. Ochiltree Boy splendid at Rangiora, has the great draw.

Race Nine

Lord Patrol

Wilygo

Beau Rivage

An even affair. From 20m handicap Lord Patrol still strongly fancied. He mixed his gait on bad track last week, nailed on line. Good enough to beat these. Wilygo an improver off Marlborough trip, this type of race suits him, too. Beau Rivage going handy races and is always dangerous with the sit. Lively Kitten a must have if she starts here in preference to race three. 2.3.4.10 for those who want a spread in this leg.

Race Ten

Dead Or Alive

Anotherchristian

Easy Armbro

A mixture this one. Hard to line them up but Dead Or Alive has to get the vote on form, and that is probably against stronger opposition. Anotherchristian well-placed as $3500 claimer, even from wide draw. Do have him in the mix. Easy Armbro ran well at Rangiora after string of unlucky runs. Can upset. Consider 2,3,5,6.

Jewels 2009 Hosting Rights Keen Contest

By Stu Bailey

Harness Jewels 2009 will come down to a bidding process with four South Island clubs in the running to host the third edition.

HRNZ General Manager Edward Rennell told NZ Trot Guide today (Friday) that expressions of interest from Ashburton (the inaugural hosts), Invercargill, Nelson, and the Banks Peninsula Trotting Club are on the table. And given the pleasing support for the concept across the nation, it may not be until August or September until a decision is reached.

“As far as 2008 (Cambridge) is concerned we’ll be finalising the conditions on July 11th at the executive meeting,” said Rennell.

“We hope to have those conditions for Cambridge published prior to the beginning of the new season,” he added.

“In respect of 2009, no decision has been made on venue. I have to do a report for the executive to view on the 11th (July), and a process to determine the venue will follow that.

“Four clubs have expressed interest, and any other club can put their hand up.

“It is healthy, and good that the clubs are interested,” he said.

Rennell said the executive may choose to move rapidly and announce the 2009 host in the more immediate future, though the August-September guideline seems more likely now four clubs are involved and further information will need to be gathered from all parties.

The Banks Peninsula Trotting Club, forthright in marketing themselves, will seek hosting rights at an alternate venue to their own Motukarara Raceway.

Nelson, an ideal track to run mile events, is a definite possibility, along with Invercargill, or a supporting track in Southland, more likely Winton or Wyndham if mile racing is to continue.

“As far as distances are concerned nothing is fixed,” said Rennell.

“That is something that will be considered when we sit down and look at the conditions for Cambridge.

“Whether we run miles, the number of starters in each race, and if Sales Series races count as earnings are things we will be looking at.

“The mile (1609m) is a consistency of branding. And looking at Cambridge as the 2008 venue, their two major races each year are both over a mile,” he added.

Travel provides a negative for clubs like Invercargill and Nelson, in particular, if there is a negative.

Undoubtedly it is a long way for a North Island horse to travel to Invercargill, though HRNZ realises the interest from one end of the country to the other, and will never discount any bid.

“Taking the Jewels to Ashburton gave it an edge,” said Rennell.

“The local community got behind it with flags all around the town and shops done up to promote the day.

“Having it at Ashburton was different to a normal day at Addington or Auckland.

“We are committed to Queens Birthday weekend – we have to stick to that because of the timing with age group races (qualification).

“And yes, we are governed by the weather, that’s the big issue.”

In the wash up from Ashburton (June 2), Rennell said the major positive was the support the concept had received from industry participants and those on the fringe.

“You can’t measure the positive in respect of the lift it has given to the industry,” said Rennell.

“I had a number of people coming up to me on the day saying how great it was.

“And that positivity outweighs the turnover aspect on the day, even though we did very well in comparison to Ellerslie (gallops) on the day.”

Rennell said the inclusion of a five-year-old and older section will also be discussed at the executive meeting, though expanding on the day will mean the $1.5 million pot will have to be shared if further races are added.

At this stage it is uncertain whether a “free-for-all” type race, possibly for the open class, or fringe open class horses, will join the party at Cambridge Raceway.

The Kiwi's Just Keep On Winning In States

By Jeff Scott

Search And Rescue (4g Safely Kept x Prompt Call, by Tuapeka Knight) furthered his good United States form at Yonkers Raceway, New York, last Sunday (NZ time).

The former Canterbury pacer led throughout to win a $US13,000 pace in a creditable 1:54.2 on the half-mile track.

He was sold by owner Tony McGrath out of the stable of leading NZ trainers David and Catherine Butt, last October.

Ashburton agent Peter Larkin transacted the sale of Search And Rescue, who is now trained in the States by former Australian Peter Tritton.

Search And Rescue won twice in seven NZ starts earlier this season _ at Kurow in August, and Addington in September.

At Yonkers, he held out a former Mark Purdon-trained pacer in Hez Da Man, with ex-Aussie Leftmillion third.

Among the also-rans were former Australasian Breeders Crown champ Fake Denario (a 1:50 miler this year), who tired to run fifth, just ahead of the ex-Doug Gale-trained pacer Supreme Edition.

Search And Rescue adds to the growing list of American winners sold out of David and Catherine Butts' Woodend Beach stable.

One of the most notable to be sold out of the top NZ stable has been Wherethemoneywent (7g In The Pocket x Van Royal), who last year earned just over $US118,000 and became one of the fastest NZ-breds with a 1:48.4 mile mark.

King Cat Anvil (5g Christian Cullen x Jump The Gun) and Black Reef (8g Jaguar Spur-Jayvee), also featured at Yonkers, both also leading up to win on Sunday, each in 1:54.2.

The former Cran Dalgety-trained King Cat Anvil won a $US25,000 pace, with fellow Kiwis Apatchee (4th) and Adsdean (6th).

Bred and raced in NZ by Small Car World principal Graham Beirne, King Cat Anvil has bankrolled just over $US75,000 from four wins in 20 starts. He has taken a 1:53.2 mark on a half-mile track there.

Black Reef, a half-brother to Sovereign Hill and Tarena Jay (dam of Jays Debut) took out a $US20,000 pace also his 4th win in 20 starts for the year, for earnings of just over $US40,000.

He was sold unraced out of NZ, won 21 races and $138,921 in Australia before heading to America.

* Muhammad Ali (8g OK Bye x French Classic) and Allstar Blue Jean (7g Falcon Seelster x Gina Rosa), both featured in previous weeks, scored good stakes wins again at the Meadowslands, New Jersey, on Sunday (NZ time).

The former was perfectly rated three back on the markers until the final 150 metres by driver David Miller in a $US33,000 pace, getting up in the dying stages to score in 1:50.8.

Allstar Blue Jean led through the half in 54.6s in his $US41,500 pace, and gave nothing else a chance over his final quarter in 26.8s to kick clear by two and a quarter lengths in 1:49.6.

The ex-Ken Barron-trained pacer Ewie Duncan, who ran on from the back for 6th, was claimed for $US100,000.

* Sandstorm (4g Sands A Flyin x Kaanapali Ace) furthered his good year at Pompano Park, Florida, on Sunday, with his 7th win in 23 starts to take his earnings past $US50,000.

The former Pat and Mike O'Brien-trained pacer took out a $US15,500 pace in 1:52 (well outside his 1:50.6 best).

* The powerful fleet of Joe Muscara-owned former NZ horses were again to the fore last weekend, headed by Napoleon (7g Miles McCool x Alert Sue), who won his US debut.

Napoleon kicked off with victory in an easy $US2800 race at Scioto Downs, Ohio, in 1:54.

Smoky Lonesome (3c In The Pocket x Adios Dream) won a $US4000 pace on the half-mile track at Northfield Park, Ohio, in an impressive 1:53.6, while Two Clouds (5g Tinted Cloud x Double Reign) won his $US5000 American debut on the same programme in 1:55.

Tuffery (5g Fake Left x Beheliem), also now in the Muscara camp with trainer Virgil Morgan, won his US debut at The Meadows, Pennsylvania, on Sunday, taking out a $US10,000 pace in a smart 1:52.8 (1000m track).

Former top NZ pacer Mighty Cullen ran on for third (racetimed in 1:53.2) in his debut on The Meadows programme for Muscara, after being beaten out from the ace, dropping back to 8th at the half.

The Muscara-owned White Arrow, from gate seven, also went back to 8th on settling, and made ground for 4th in the $US15,500 preferred pace at The Meadows.

* The Flyin Doctor (6g Sands A Flyin x Alice In Wonderland), was back in winning form for the Nifty Norman stable at Pocono Downs, Pennsylvania, on Sunday.

The former top Kiwi pacer, raced in America by Perth's Neven Botica, took command of a $US10,000 pace at the 3/4 mark, and came clear by 2 1/4 lengths in 1:52.8 on the 1000m track there.

Pacific Blue Jean (7g Falcon Seelster x Seafield Faye) furthered his top Pocono Downs form with another front-running win on Sunday, this time in a $US14,000 pace 1:54.4.

* Jag Star (7g Jaguar Spur x Beldene Lass), who in January upset Classic Cullen and Badlands Bute in the Group Two Skycity Flying Mile at Cambridge, going 1:54.6, has begun his American racing with two quick wins.

He won the $US10,000 open pace on the half-mile track at Saratoga, New York, last weekend in 1:55.

* Sky Walker (5g Tinted Cloud x Cross Lady), in 1:54.8, and Pandora's Gambit (4g Jeremys Gambit x Pandora's Box) in 1:55.8, were front-running ex Kiwis to score on the 1000m track at Tioga Downs, New York, on Sunday.

* Where Eagles Dare (9g Falcon Seelster X Pacific South), a former 2003 Interdominion Heat winner in NZ for the Andrew Neal stable, won a $US3250 pace at Hawthorne Raceway, Illinois, last weekend in 1:55.

Seelster Belle (8g Falcon Seelster x Belle Jane) took out a $US7400 pace at Hawthorne in 1:53.2.

* Paradusho (9m Road Machine x Letterkenny Bromac) was in form at Rosecroft, Maryland, taking out a $US8000 fillies and mares open pace in 1:56.6.

Red A Late Arrival For NZ Cup?

By Stu Bailey

This season's all-conquering pacing warrior Flashing Red (Echelon x Courvy Kazi) will more than likely miss valuable racing leading into the feature races through the spring in New Zealand, connections instead opting to stay on in Australia and tackle the Grand Circuit.

Flashing Red, the New Zealand and Auckland Cup winner this season, will resume racing this month in Brisbane, and from all accounts will not head back to Canterbury trainers Tim Butt and Phil Anderson until a couple of weeks out from the New Zealand Cup.

"Its disappointing, I'd like to have him back earlier than that," said Tim Butt.

"It takes him a run or two to come right, like he showed last year when he went OK in the Hannon, and at Addington (The Fitness Canterbury) - but he was really coming right by the time we got to the Ashburton Flying Stakes."

Tim Butt would prefer to have his hands on the mighty pacer long before a week or two out from his defence of the New Zealand Cup.

But rich events in Australia, running through to late October, are likely to see the rising 10-year-old stallion remain offshore.

"There are three races he can really win," said Butt.

"The New Zealand Cup, the Hunter Cup, and the Auckland Cup. They are the races to have him peaking for."

Butt is pleased with former Rowe Cup winning mare Inspire (Chiola Hanover x Enthuse), an expensive buy for stable clients out of Paul Nairn's stable who went amiss after just three starts for Premier Stables.

"She got skittled and broke at Kaikoura (October 2006) and it appears she bowed a rear tendon because of it," said Butt.

"She has done two months work and seems OK."

Butt, who enjoys a quieter time during the winter months, has his good horses back in commission as they ready for another busy spring and summer campaign.

In his first season training in partnership with longtime stable employee Phil Anderson, Butt has produced 47 winners of $1.275 million, second in stakes earned behind Mark Purdon, and just ahead of Geoff Small.
