THURSDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Passion N Glory

Goldie Blue

Pamper Don

A smart one comes in fresh here and should win the race. Passion N Glory didn't have everything go his way at two and he looks big and bold now back as a 3yo. Smart workout second behind Auckland Reactor and he should get the cash here. Goldie Blue went very good on debut, racing a touch greenly, but with real purpose nonetheless. Trifecta must. Pamper Don attacked at Methven, never surrendered - nice place bet.

Race Two

Easy Armbro

Juluit

Seaward

Easy Armbro was again very good at Methven, continuing a stellar run of form. Draw probably not against him here and he should go close to winning. Juluit was a good thing licked last start, failing to find the room when needed, hitting the line quickly. Good mare when in form. Seaward a threat fresh, handy workout Sat.

Race Three

Mountbatten

Night Of Glory

Master In Command

A sensational return to the track from Mountbatten last week, cruising in after moving up parked 900m out. Too good again. Night Of Glory very slick winning Saturday workout, trotting strongly off corner to win easily. Master In Command also strong workout form against good company at Motukarara in past weeks.

Race Four

Luckisaladytonight

Amarok

Blackbird Fly

Luckisaladytonight smart fresh up, big win off back of good workout victory. Talented mare and will take stopping again. Amarok no luck over 1950m in same race, her last 200m very nice, though. Draw an advantage to her. Blackbird Fly returned with smart workout run last Saturday, may need one, but too good to dismiss. Consider Beau Rivage, he obviously going well and drops in grade.

Race Five

Harem Franco

Umere Road

Free As A Bird

Nice race. Harem Franco hit the line very nicely at Motukarara on Saturday, beaten narrowly in good company. Looks the shot, though Umere Road will take beating after luckless unplaced run at Methven when blocked for room. They stand out. Free As A Bird handy workout Saturday. Thrifty Anvil better than most.

Race Six

Lord Burghley

Some Direction

Springfield Linda

The top two stand out. Hard to split Lord Burghley and Some Direction. The former is trotting beautifully at workouts and is cherry ripe to resume. Expect a big run. Some Direction in super form at trials and workouts, too. The grand old mare looks set for another bumper season. Springfield Linda flying at workouts, Rhythm Of The Night & Diedre Don also tidy on Sat.

Race Seven

Smoke N Mirrors

Holloway

Miss Double R

An even field. Smoke N Mirrors good enough to place in Oaks and Jewels (later disq) last term. Fresh up, no workouts, but expect bold run as she's class. Holloway has draw against her but a genuine chance on workout form for new stable. Miss Double R a good mare, draw no help, either, but can place.

Race Eight

Baileys Dream

Classic Cullen

London Legend

A great race to get a line on where we stand early in the season. Baileys Dream very slick at races and workouts this term, looks a touch ahead of many here. Big chance. Classic Cullen super duper at workouts, rolling out slick sections to win narrowly but well. He will go close. London Legend appears to be at the top of his game at workouts, running quick sections. Tribute probably more forward than Flashing Red, never discount either, while Waipawa Lad hit line hard at Motukarara, home in a tick over 26 last 400m.

Race Nine

Normie

James Ryan

Montego Hanover

Normie backed up good workout form with big win on debut and has since won Motukarara workout smartly last Saturday, holding all challengers at bay. Nice bet. James Ryan much better last start and draw could favour his chances, allowing last crack at them. Montego Hanover nice horse, eachway all day.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Auckland T.C. at Alex Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Sonic's Legacy

Vinnie Barberino

Rare Response

A couple of smart ones. Sonic's Legacy was quite brilliant when second last start, covering extra ground in going under. Should be very hard to beat. Vinnie Barberino has looked the goods at workouts, running time and winning impressively. A definite include. Rare Response was good on debut, will keep improving, too.

Race Two

Palomine

Kamwood Warrior

Johnny Knoxville

Another race where top two stand out. Palomine had to concede to top class performance from Pembroke Benny last week. A big show. Kamwood Warrior the threat. He showed class as a 2 and 3yo and is in form at workouts. Quinella of the night. Johnny Knoxville looks a good trifecta chance with Elite Lad.

Race Three

Battle Heights

Spot Of Gold

The Wicket Maiden

He's close to winning without doing it. Stick with Battle Heights who gets another good chance to claim elusive win. Spot Of Gold tipped to win last week and was too good. Keep on her tail. The Wicket Maiden is running out of chances but is good enough if she behaves.

Race Four

Matai Mitcee

Shardon's Pacific

Bee Jay's Money

Matai Mitcee showed good ability last campaign. Sure to be ready from ace draw and should go close. Shardon's Pacific qualified nicely behind a Tony Herlihy-trained runner in handy time. Keep safe. Bee Jay's Money qualified at two, from good stable and should be prominent.

Race Five

Waihemo John

Flyin Messiah

Majhac Meddle

The southerner was the eye-catcher last week. Waihemo John made good ground over the final stages and looks ready to win this. The 2700m will be no bother to him, either. Flyin Messiah logical favourite and hard to beat. He never runs a bad race, again good last week. Majhac Meddle eachway hope, no luck at Camb.

Race Six

Russian Rose

Presidential Belle

Miss Cullen

So brilliant on debut, it is hard to see them beating Russian Rose from a great gate in two. Has high speed and will run time over 1700m. Presidential Belle obvious danger, a very good mare, though how hard will she have to work from her draw? Did win workout on Saturday. Miss Cullen always a trifecta hope.

Race Seven

Roman Conqueror

Another Matter

Lively Royce

Roman Conqueror was super last week, taking into consideration who beat him and the times they ran. Looks the winner on that. Another Matter was tidy on debut in same race, a trifecta must, as is Lively Royce who improves as he goes and also looks bright chance to fill a top three spot with scratching of Franco Tetrus.

Race Eight

Awesome Armbro

Marika

Bachelorette

All class. Awesome Armbro and Marika will go head-to-head in a great battle here. Awesome Armbro in grand form at workouts and appears ready to rumble, top pick just ahead of the more seasoned Marika who has been sensational in two starts in north. Bachelorette ready to resume and a threat if she steps well.

Race Nine

Extasia

Super Command

Taylamade Dee

Sensational win last time from Extasia, a mare going right to the very top. Should win if she brings the A-game with her. Super Command also in top bracket and will be tough, though handicap not easy. Taylamade Dee the improver and genuine value in trifecta.

Race Ten

Ball McCartney

Haylin Hurricane

General George

The top three stand out in this, and they look to be all you need in Pick6. Ball McCartney so impressive on debut and looks hard to beat with repeat, though draw hasn't gone his way. Haylin Hurricane only the right trip away from winning one, a super effort from well back in the field to run fourth at Cambridge. General George fresh up but always in finish and he likely to go well after solid workout midweek.

Tuherbs put down last week

By Stu Bailey

Last season's George Calvert Cleaning Easter Cup winner and rising star Tuherbs had to be put down at Tim Butt's property last week after it was decided the horse would not recover from an injury to a hind leg.

Tim Butt told NZ Trot Guide that the stable tried everything to get Tuherbs right after he injured himself when preparing for the Taylor Mile and NZ Messenger at Auckland following a stunning Easter Cup victory.

But the horse would not recover from the rear fetlock injury, he said, and the sad decision had to be made.

"We'd had plenty of opinions, including flying a vet over from Australia," said Butt.

"He had a key-hole examination last week and it was found that the cartilage had all gone and is effectively bone on bone, with no chance of us being able to repair the problem."

Tuherbs had been confined to a box since his injury, but instead of showing signs of improvement, the injury had worsened.

"Its sad to lose a top horse like him," said Butt.

"Maybe not this season, but I thought he could measure up and be a chance in the New Zealand Cup next year," he added.

Tuherbs (Live Or Die x Futurist) raced 22 times for owners Terry McDonald and Eddie Griffin, winning nine times for $210,777 in stakes.

His best wins came from his first and last starts. On debut he took the Welcome Stakes at Addington, beating Pay Me Christian, and he ended his career with a slick 4:03.9 Easter Cup win.

Avon City Ford Cup fancies run well at Motukarara

By Stu Bailey

Leading trainer Mark Purdon wheeled out a few of his toplineers at Saturday's Motukarara workouts, headed by quality open class pacers Classic Cullen and Likmesiah who quinella'd the main heat from a standing start.

Purdon reined Classic Cullen (6g Christian Cullen x Karara Lass) to a neck victory over Likmesiah (7g Christian Cullen x She's Mighty), that pair just in front of Cup Day and Gimme A Break, with less than a length separating the top four.

Trainer Allan Thomson was back in the sulky behind Gimme A Break, leading immediately after a startling beginning.

Easy early sections left Mark Purdon in no doubt it was time to inch closer and he had Classic Cullen parked outside the leader with 1200m to run.

Classic Cullen led 200m out, holding a very slick finish from Likmesiah, with Cup Day also getting to the line strongly through the middle for Blair Orange.

Gimme A Break rallied gamely, beaten a neck and two heads.

Classic Cullen ran the 2600m (stand) in 3:30.5, though the final 800m was very quick in 56.7, the 400m in 27.7, a good run around the Motukarara circuit.

He starts in tonight's Avon City Ford Cup at Addington and will be hard to beat.

Purdon also produced hype horse, the unraced Auckland Reactor (3c Mach Three x Atomic Lass), to win earlier in the day.

The bold pacer ran a respectable 2:52.2 (2200m mobile) after leading from gate one, dashing home in 58.7 and 28.9 with plenty up his sleeve.

Auckland Reactor makes his much-awaited debut at Timaru on Sunday and will start at microscopic odds.

Ohoka Utah (3g Christian Cullen x Millwood Pride), Shultz (3g Presidential Ball x Nexus Choice), and Texas Hold Em (3c Falcon Seelster x Petrus) were other impressive winners out of the All Star Stables barn.

London Legend again showed his class winning the main heat behind the mobile gate, outfinishing Keeprightondreaming in the run home to win in a slow 2:56.0 (2200m), but again dashing slick sections in 56.3 and 27.4.

London Legend (8g In The Pocket x Soky's Legend) looks ready to give the Avon City Ford Cup a big shake tonight given the way he is trialling for Cran Dalgety.

Waipawa Lad (7g Live Or Die x Joyrock) also returned today, finishing the heat off nicely, clocked in 26.9 to get home. He will also run in the Avon City Ford Cup tonight.

Some Direction, Lord Burghley on track for Ordeal Cup

By Stu Bailey

Evergreen trotting mare Some Direction looks the standout favourite for tonight's Ordeal Trotting Cup at Addington after another slick winning run at last Wednesday's Ashburton workouts.

The ten-year-old daughter of Sundon and Look turned out in fine order as always for trainers Lynn and Justin Smith, her performance just as good on the track in winning by one-and-a-half-lengths, untouched.

Some Direction, the veteran of 137 starts (23 wins, 35 placings), also won a trial at Ashburton on August 28, her first serious hitout this campaign.

She ran a respectable 3:12.8 for the 2400m (stand), home in 59.9, increasing the pressure from the turn to get home in 28.8.

Rhythm Of The Night showed improvement with a solid second after trailing Some Direction a lap out, trainer-driver Bruce Hutton very pleased.

"He wasn't right after his workout (Motukarara, August 18), but I'm much happier now," he said.

"I thought he could beat the old mare (Some Direction) today with the run he got - but boy, she's just too good, isn't she?"

Hutton was also thrilled with his other top trotter Lord Burghley who contested a maiden pace for mobile barrier practice and came through with flying colours.

Lord Burghley, the lone drive on the day for Colin De Filippi, comfortably held all challenges from the turn after moving up to sit parked 800m out.

"We've abandoned a northern trip with him, mainly because of the Equine Influenza scare which would disrupt travel plans if anything did happen," said Hutton.

"And most of the racing is down here for him, so we'll stay at home.

"I didn't really want to run him behind the gate at this stage. But seeing the Ordeal Cup is there we don't have too much choice."

Both Lord Burghley and Rhythm Of The Night start tonight.

Top pacer Tribute looks forward to resume in the Avon City Ford Cup after a frontrunning win in the main pacers heat.

Driven by regular pilot David Earnshaw, Tribute rattled out good final sections of 57.7 and 27.7 to put the others under pressure, though all those behind him were good, including last season's Horse Of The Year, Flashing Red.

"He (Tribute) is beginning really well from a stand now which is pleasing," said Earnshaw afterward.

"I think he's come up nicely this season, and without the pressure of having to qualify for the Cup like he did last year, which is a help," he added.

Flashing Red sat second-last of six runners and was left flat-footed 250m out when the sprint really went on.

Driver Anthony Butt and trainers Tim Butt and Phil Anderson were all very happy with Flashing Red, a case of mission accomplished even though unplaced.

"He was just winding up when it was all over," grinned Anthony Butt.

Flashing Red runs in the Avon City Ford Cup tonight, then onto the Hannon Memorial at Oamaru on September 23.

Cup hopeful Bondy lost no friends with a smart second placing, handing to Tribute after a brilliant beginning, then trailing throughout.

He will not race this week, but will more than likely begin his build up to a possible NZ Cup start next week at Addington.

Last season's smart 3yo's Mr Molly (3rd) and Days Of Courage (4th) were also very solid in the minor placings behind Tribute.
