Shinny breaks pastern - out for some time

Quality Mid Canterbury three-year-old Shinny (In The Pocket x Seaswift Franco) has broken a pastern bone in a hind leg and will be off the scene for some time.

Trainer-driver Gerard O'Reilly told Trot Guide the talented colt has had four screws inserted to mend the break, though he doesn't expect to have the horse back in commission any sooner than 12 months from now.

Shinny has had two wins and four placings from just 11 starts, his best performance a stunning two-and-a-half-length win at Invercargill on February 3, rating 2:00.0 for the 2200 metres (mobile).

He broke badly mid-race at Waikouaiti on the grass a fortnight later, though O'Reilly isn't convinced the injury happened that day.

Shinny is still under veterinary care to ensure the operation has been a success.

CAMBRIDGE TO HOST $1.5 MILLION HARNESS JEWELS IN 2008

1. At the HRNZ Executive meeting on Friday 9 March 2007 it was agreed that in line with the intention when the Harness Jewels series was introduced, that this would rotate between the North and South Islands. As a result it has been agreed that the 2008 venue for this series will be Cambridge Raceway, hosted by the Cambridge/Te Awamutu HRC.

2. The inaugural Harness Jewels raceday featuring nine races with total stakes of $1.5m will be held at Ashburton on 2 June 2007.

3. In announcing this HRNZ Chairman Mr John Penney said that "he was confident that Cambridge will build on the platform made by the Ashburton TC in 2007 in making the Harness Jewels raceday an integral part of the harness racing feature calendar. This series has quickly become an important part of the age group racing programmes for horses and a focal point for end of season racing".

4. Cambridge/Te Awamutu HRC President Mr Barry Gordon said "he was delighted by this announcement. This reflects positively on the contribution that the Cambridge/Te Awamutu Club and venue make to the industry, and all the resources of the Cambridge/Te Awamutu Club will be devoted to working with HRNZ to make this day a success".

5. Mr Gordon said "this will be the richest raceday in Auckland/Waikato racing history and will be a great opportunity for Cambridge to showcase its facilities on the national stage".

6. The date for this raceday is currently being addressed in the 2007/08 Dates Calendar process.

Harness Jewels

Odds About To Launch!

Punters start your engines! The NZ TAB is offering the early bird odds for six of the nine Harness Jewels Championship races from Wednesday morning at 9.30am.

The three categories for both three and four-year-olds will be released, with the two-year-old markets to be released early in May, once their series' offer a clearer picture.

The TAB Bookies are framing their markets based on the leading stake earners in each category.

Though only a selected number of horses will be in each market there will be nothing to stop a punter getting a quote on his or her fancy that sits further down the table

The futures markets will close on May 25, at time of final acceptance.

Gore Info (Saturday)

By Jamie Searle

Iraqi Invasion, a close-up fifth at Addington last Sunday, could start the day on the right note for punters at Gore on Saturday.

He has showed promise in five starts for Rolleston horseman Ken Barron and from barrier No 2 at Gore, is fancied to break through for his first win.

Others to consider in the first are the 2-year-old Musgrove and Lansky. Musgrove is making his debut after impressing at workouts and trials.

Lansky was badly checked on the turn at Ascot Park last Friday when looking a danger.

In race two, Lord Forbes possesses the gate speed to lead from barrier No 7. Held in high regard by the Forbes family, Lord Forbes has had luckless runs in two starts to date.

Consistent gelding Born To Win will be at cramped odds for race three, with his main opposition being the well-bred Lucy Legacy. Born To Win was sesational. even though beaten last week and is overdue a winning turn.

Mark Purdon's Fear Factor is expected to be everyone's anchor in race four, while New Year Pride and Ohoka Jasper are place prospects.

Ohoka Jasper's eighth at Forbury Park last Thursday was his first start for five months, so expect improvement on Saturday.

Canterbury raiders Diggers Rest and Another Creation have the credentials to fight out the finish of race five which is the sixth heat of the Southern Supremacy Stakes Series.

The Hunter's sparkling formline makes him a top choice for race six, but Beaudiene Bianca and Umfolozi, who ran a much improved race for fourth at Forbury Park last week, are dangers.

Hezallclass went huge in his Ascot Park win and should back up well in race seven at Gore.

Howard Bromac and Nursemaid, both off 30m, are likely to carry the bulk of the money for race eight.

However, On The Double, who is due for a bold run, Identifiable, Bold Cruiser and Espresso Jaccka have eachway appeal.

Zitura, also entered for Addington on Thurs day, has the class to win race nine at Gore.

A strong case can be made for Wyndham Cup runner-up Buster Mee.

Top Of The Pile, Lady Fern and Jubilee Lass form a likely trio for the 10th on the Gore programme, while Ken Barron's first starter Stunning, credited with two trial wins recently, is the one to beat in race 11.

* * * * *

Letsgo Jaccka posted probably the fastest time recorded at the Ascot Park workouts for 2200m (mobile) when winning in 2:44.4 last Saturday.

In hot weather, Letsgo Jaccka trailed leader Espresso Jaccka in the main mobile heat of the day.

Letsgo Jaccka proved too strong in the run home and scored from Espresso Jaccka, Proposal and Whata Man.

The final 800m was paced in 58.9 and 400m in 29.9.

Brett Gray trains Letsgo Jaccka (one win) at Ryal Bush.

Captain Khan, trained at Ascot Park by Gil Shirley, won a learners' stand with plenty in reserve.

THURSDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metropolitan T.C. at Addington

SELECTIONS

Race One

Desert Blaze Galleons Assassin Insist
 Desert Blaze trialled impressively before strong-finishing fresh up fourth. Should beat these if he continues on with the good work. Galleons Assassin the obvious danger and will be hard to beat. He was game in defeat fresh up when in need of the run. Insist out of form but ready to strike.

Race Two

Report For Duty Classic Line Mighty Cullen
 Allowed an easy time in front last start, Report For Duty too classy to pass up on the opportunity, bolting in. Can win again, he's very smart. Classic Line may get the jump on the former having drawn inside him, may look for lead - hard to stop. Mighty Cullen back from Aussie, big drop in class.

Race Three

Dux Paradise Earl Ronnie Couté
 Dux is well-schooled up in the north with racing under his belt and has looked a smart type from day one. Should take a lot of beating. Paradise Earl upset chance - he trotted beautifully at Rangiora workouts last Saturday, running 2:37 for 2000m. Ronnie Couté much more solid in his gait - chance.

Race Four

Bon Ton Boy Mystic River Day Of Our Lives
 Bon Ton Boy blew out final stages to be beaten last week but expected to improve. Has to rate highly alongside Mystic River, a super win on debut when hotly supported after strong trial form. Day Of Our Lives out of form but no duffer and a shade luckless last start.

Race Five

Suvarno Hanover Dontdrinkthendrive Chausettes Blanche
 The inside barrier could come up trumps for Suvarno Hanover who always seems happier on the marker line. Drawn to go very close. Dontdrinkthendrive flying at present and may lead with high gatespeed. Chausettes Blanche racing very well, only a touch of luck needed from draw to figure.

Race Six

Gallant Guy Louisiana Blue Jean Justforrobbie
 The Neil Hamilton-trained Gallant Guy is flying at the moment and could kick the $400,000 P6 off in style. Draw the only real concern. Louisiana Blue Jean going strong races and will be prominent - a must include. Justforrobbie not the worst and one to throw into the P6 at big odds. Open race.

Race Seven

Mark Antony Full Of Fire Odds On
 A debut winner, Mark Antony was run off his feet in 1:56 mile at Wyndham. Can atone in this he is no duffer. Full Of Fire impressive debut winner, another Mark Purdon runner. Odds On a big, bold Bettors Delight gelding in top stable. Impressive workout win over Ohoka Arizona - include.

Race Eight

Franco Norseman Dead Or Alive Grecian Star
 Bad draws could be the order of the day in this. Franco Norseman and Dead Or Alive off unruly actually suited to being out of early rush. The former very smart if caught in the mood. Dead Or Alive going well and close to win. Grecian Star boomed home from back at workouts, draw might help, too.

Race Nine

Diana May Beau Rivage Blackbird Fly
 Drawn to get the sweet trip, Diana May could be a winner up the lane here. Beau Rivage going great races and a must have from good draw. Blackbird Fly impressive workout win, Saturday, home in 57.1 and did the job well. Another open field but good draws a bonus over 1950m.

Race Ten

Tozzie Cracker Nova Rhythm Of The Night
 Perhaps the anchor in P6? Tozzie undoubted talent but manners have been letting him down. Very hard to beat if he trots. Cracker Nova at value, she trotted much more fluently with gear changes at workouts. Not to be discounted. Rhythm Of The Night, and probably Power In Motion next best.

Race Eleven

Live A Vision The Gigolo Chilli
 The final leg of P6 should be dominated by the three-year-olds. Live A Vision ran up to win at Wyndham then galloped. He is all class and should give punters great run for money. The Gigolo won impressively in deep south, a great tradesman with genuine chance. Chilli a lovely type, must have.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Franklin T.C. at Alex Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Top Lot

Coca Vicola

Reality Check

Top Lot was going well when skittled on Auckland Cup night. She won maiden nicely and should go on with the job. Coca Vicola no threat last week but drawn to get close early and that could be the key. Reality Check trounced by Ohoka Moon last Friday, but beat rest easily, eachway hope.

Race Two

Washakie

Barnabus

The Adman

Washakie used ace draw to perfection last week, scoring well. Outside second line different story, though he holds class edge on most. Barnabus a nice type and it was a big effort last start. Inside draw slight concern as he doesn't appear to have high gatespeed. The Adman the obvious one on form.

Race Three

Cornishman

Super Command

Jimmy's Dream

The last start second was much more like the old Cornishman, and he was beaten by a fair sort, too. Should have the measure of these. Super Command top class but off the scene for some time. Do not run without him, though. Jimmy's Dream very solid young trotter, a trifecta must have.

Race Four

Christian Spirit

Alta Sirocco

Ambro The Thug

Things haven't gone the way of Christian Spirit in the last couple of starts. He is all class and this race looks suitable for him to dominate. Both Alta Sirocco, huge run Auckland Cup night, and Ambro The Thug, have to be main dangers. A good race, a battle of tactics likely.

Race Five

Lizzie Maguire

So Deep

Genes West

Lizzie Maguire unable to make up the ground from off the speed last week. Inside draw beneficial this track and can take another win. So Deep was massive in winning last Friday, landing some good bets. Must be tough to beat again. Genes West pushed So Deep closest, a top effort, draws well.

Race Six

Maheer Skipper

Franco Tetris

Cody Banks

Maheer Skipper backed with some conviction last week and went lovely race, never finding the clear space in the straight. Looks over the line here. Franco Tetris unlucky in same race, a huge eachway chance, definite quinella-trifecta hope. Cody Banks an include, has looked smart at trials.

Race Seven

Delizioso

Cruzee Lass

Sherakin Star

Delizioso a brilliant mare on her night and should jump off the gate and be prominent. Hard to roll. Cruzee Lass will enjoy ace draw and a big chance, too, with Sherakin Star plenty good enough to give these a bit to think about. Western Dream first up for some time - prefer to watch this time, though her class never in question.

Race Eight

Slipinn

Wonderland

Matai Mitcee

The chance to win comes here for Slipinn who has raced well in better maiden fields. Should go close to getting the cash. Wonderland went well for second behind Mystic Mink on the grass at Pukekohe. Matai Mitcee a workout winner at Alex Park, March 7, home in 28.9. Definite include.

Race Nine

Johnny Knoxville

Bandito

He's A Country Boy

Two starts, two seconds, the in-form Johnny Knoxville should get deserved success, though this not a bad maiden field. Bandito overdue, and has speed with right trip. He's A Country Boy has been trialling well for Todd Mitchell and not to be overlooked. Watch the tote on Early Maravu, from stable who generally has them ready first up.

Devery makes it FOUR!

By Stu Bailey

Southland horseman Vin Devery has a bit of a liking for one particular race - and how could you blame him?

He took his fourth Nevele R Stakes at Addington Raceway today (Sunday) with the Nevele R-bred Natal Franco (Badlands Hanover x No Time Franco), following victories in 1994, 1999, and 2005.

Driven by top Southland reinsman Brent Barclay, Natal Franco sat three-wide outside the leaders inside the final 800 metres today, but proved too strong, just prevailing in a torrid home stretch battle over Shezachristian (Christian Cullen - Achy Breaky Heart), and Moon Spirit (Jenna's Beach Boy x Fiery Spirit).

Warm favourite Susie Maguire was a very unlucky fifth after being pushed back from a handy spot, though all the accolades have to go to Natal Franco who did all the work wide.

Vin Devery took out the 1994 Tall Tree Stud Sweetheart Stakes (later to be renamed the Nevele R Stakes) with Dreamy Atom, winning a free service that day to Cameleon, who stood at Tall Tree Stud with Kevin Williams, the former trainer-driver of NZ Cup winner, Master Mood.

"The resultant foal from the Cameleon service was Happy Golucky, and she went on to win this same race (1999)," said Devery after today's win.

"Like the day when Dreamy Atom won, it was also a cold and wet day in the mud (on the grass track at Rangiora).

"Peter Davis drove Happy Golucky for us that day, as Ken Barron was over in Australia with one of his horses."

Devery and his wife Daphne went on to breed a Badlands Hanover-Dreamy Atom filly named Western Dream, a stunning performer at two-and-three, taking the 2005 Nevele R Stakes on her way to stardom.

Western Dream completed the Nevele R Fillies Final-Wayne Francis Memorial New Zealand Oaks double as a three-year-old at Addington last year.

“Western Dream has had two workouts for Tony Herlihy and isn’t too far away again now,” said Devery.

“Perhaps one more and she’ll be ready to go again.”

Having bred and raced such good stock for a number of years, the Devery’s teamed up with Invercargill couple Alan and Phillipa Blackler and bought two fillies at the PGG-Wrightson Yearling Sales last year, one being Natal Franco, for $26,000.

“We’d thought about changing things a little, adding some other blood into our breed,” said Vin Devery.

“So Alan bought this filly and we bought another and took them home.”

Her dam, No Time Franco (Falcon Seelster x No Regrets), won a Hydroflow Fillies Heat at Ashburton in March, 2000, running 1:55.9 for the mile, the second of two career victories from just 13 starts, including six minor placings.

She was trained out of Spreydon Lodge at that time by John Hay.

Her fourth foal, Natal Franco showed plenty from an early stage, and even though Devery suggests there was never a firm plan in mind to try and win what is likely to be his favourite race for a fourth time, he certainly knew when it was to be run if he had the right filly.

“She’s as tough as she is quick, and she had to be tough today,” he said.

“And she’s paid up for everything, including the Sales Series, Sires Stakes, and Cauduceus Club - so we have a few options.

“She will go north, and yes, she will be off to Tony Herlihy when she does go.”

Like any good Southlander would, Devery and Blackler wrapped their hand around a cold Speights in the committee room and toasted victory.

“We did sell an Artiscape filly out of Dreamy Atom (Dreamy Lover) at the yearling sales this year for $50,000,” said Devery.

“Dreamy Atom is in foal to Christian Cullen this year,” he added.

Another Badlands Hanover filly (full sister to Western Dream) is currently at foot.

Globetrotting horseman Graeme Rogerson bought the Artiscape - Dreamy Atom yearling filly at the National Sale in Christchurch last month.

FERGIEMACK death

“a real shock”

By Stu Bailey

Tony Herlihy is in shock after losing his best horse and a good old mate in the space of three hours last Sunday morning.

Herlihy lost the services of his star three-year-old Fergiemack who died in his paddock at owner Charlie Hadley's property, the diagnosis a deep-seated ulcer in the lower stomach which in turn ruptured and broke the stomach wall, causing distress, and possibly the setting in of peritonitis.

That was very bad news, though Herlihy was soon to find out a great supporter of his talents, Bill Pemberton, had suddenly passed away that day, too.

“It all came as a great shock - you're not prepared for these things,” the champion trainer-driver told Trot Guide on Monday evening.

“Only a matter of two, maybe three hours after Fergiemack had died, we heard about Bill,” he said.

Herlihy will struggle for a few days, because great horses like Fergiemack are hard, if not sometimes impossible to replace.

“For sure, we'll try to find another (good) one,” he said.

“He was right up there with the best, besides his last couple of runs when he can't have been feeling his best.

“I thought there might be something not right after his last run (Woodlands Derby) and I had a blood done on the Monday.

“The blood wasn't actually too bad, but when I took his rug off he had lightened off so I decided to give him a spell.

“He'd lost weight, and it seems the problem had come on and he may have been in a little bit of pain - thus the loss of the weight,” he said.

Fergiemack raced just 17 times for seven wins and eight placings, with $204,999 in stakemoney.

“I really think he had the makings of a top open class horse in another 18 months,” said Herlihy.

“Speaking to Vin Devery, he told me he had lost a foal of the same thing at only three weeks.

“It appears this can happen to a horse of any age - though it isn't that common.

“He didn't appear to have suffered too much, as his paddock did not suggest a struggle,” he said.

Herlihy drove star trotter Buster Hanover to many victories for the late Bill Pemberton, including two Australasian Trotting Championships at Moonee Valley in 1998 & 1999, also two heat wins and then the grand final at the 1998 Sydney Interdominions at Harold Park.

“We'd always see each other at the races and have a joke,” said Herlihy.

“Bill was great to drive for and I did train the mare, Wee Annie, for him for a while, too.”
