THURSDAY HARNESS

Cambridge Te Awamutu @ Cambridge Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Hoof It

Flaunt It

Ronan Maguire

Hoof It took impressive Auckland maiden win two back then fair fifth when up in grade at a Tuesday meeting last week. Drawn to be handy and seems a good follower with one go at them. Flaunt It is a handy southern mare who went a good race last time for fourth. The 2700m should suit her and she looks a sound chance. Ronan Maguire has the form on the board and must rate highly. Consider 1 & 7 in multiples.

Race Two

Attention Seeker

The Guardian

Deimos

Attention Seeker drew wide at Alex Park last week in a smart field and had no luck. This much easier assignment on the home track and he looks a big chance to bounce back to top form. One of the better bets on the night. The Guardian chased hard, just beaten by Ambrashia last week. Bright chance here despite wide alley. Deimos broke turn last time, seems better this track and could surprise if he leads. Consider 1,3,4,9.

Race Three

Gotta Go Harmony

Flying Pocketlands

Zenstar

A bit puzzling as to why this is a tote race. In saying that, it will be good to see the top fillies battle it out with Gotta Go Harmony the likely winner off gate one, able to lead and dictate the play. Flying Pocketlands the obvious threat, disappointed in Jewels but has been back to workouts. Zenstar should run third.

Race Four

Lightning Magic

Awhohali

Van Esteem

Lightning Magic was run down late at Alex Park when fresh up, beaten by a nice one in Cromac Johnny. Should be better for the run and a win seems likely. Awhohali is an Elsu colt with Geoff Small who qualified smartly at Cambridge, home in good sectionals when beaten a neck. Forward showing expected. Van Esteem raced very honestly on Nelson-Marlborough circuit, now in Ferguson team. Always a place hope. Add 1,4,9.

Race Five

Lightning Raider

Strike Up The Band

Tana

Southern visitor Lightning Raider a big chance on form, racing superbly through the autumn and winter months. The last start second was tidy behind Pretty Dollybird at Forbury after getting a bit too far back in the field. Big chance. Strike Up The Band back to winning form last time, overhauling Balleybofoy. Should keep the form going and a strong chance again. Tana a touch disappointing last week but better than most.

Race Six

Doctor Zeus

Carlos

Commitment

Doctor Zeus ran on okay behind some handy ones when fourth to Family Spirit at Alex Park last week. A very easy winner on this track three starts back. Can give this a shake if he reproduces that form. Carlos came with undeniable finish to win on the track when he last raced. Seems to enjoy this circuit and looks well-placed off 10m. Commitment also likes Cambridge and is racing honestly. In Pick6 consider 1,3,6.

Race Seven

Endeavor

Count Malabar

Iwi Trouble

Endeavor continues to trot good races off tough handicaps, and though she has 40m to overcome here the handicaps are more condensed and therefore not too tough. She races well this way around and should go close on the home track. Count Malabar has been going nice races in strong company and can grab a win if he steps cleanly with headstart in handicaps. Iwi Trouble also a must, back in good form. Consider 2 & 10.

Race Eight

Winsome Courage

Cherokee Franco

Doreens Dream

Winsome Courage is speedy enough to find the lead and that puts her in her favoured position of either leading or trailing. A good handy mare who seems to save her best for this track. Should go close. Cherokee Franco broke the duck with good Auckland win last week. This not a tough task now rising in grade and a forward effort is expected. Doreens Dream just the type to go a good one fresh up for local trainer and worth including at longer odds, despite wide draw. Smooth Brigade and Christian Miss for longer odds.

Race Nine

Starry Styx

Best Time

Norvic Gold

Starry Styx has been an unlucky maiden, trapped wide last week at Alex Park and never had a thing go his way. He stuck on okay under the circumstances. He's race-fit and gets his chance to quit the grade this time. Best Time was a workout winner at Cambridge last week, beating five others. Stable usually has them ready to go first up. Norvic Gold chased a couple of handy ones home when she was sound third on debut at Alex Park. Should be prominent off the draw. For the upset try 4 & 7.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

Race One

Smooth Julius

Caesar's Bracelet

Myouri

Smooth Julius again very good at Rangiora, done late by a smart horse in Move Over. A big win two back when running some time this track and distance. Hard to beat again. Caesar's Bracelet has to be included off his best draw in a long time. Should handle the rise in grade after winning his maiden last week. Myouri is a classy type resuming but fit for recent workouts. One to watch. Others to strongly consider are 5,8,9,10,11.

Race Two

Vatuvei

Night Of My Life

Modern Touch

Vatuvei would have won fresh up when he broke around the turn, then tidy third after working up wide out last lap this track last week. Wide draw not a major concern. Night Of My Life ran home attractively last week for third and looks an improving type. Gets the draw to go close. Modern Touch won a workout nicely before strong resumption at Rangiora. Hard to beat here. Add 4,10,13,14 into the mix.

Race Three

Dream Cover Girl

To Ri Dette

Uroc M'Lady

A good bet here, though the odds could be a bit slim with Dexter aboard. Dream Cover Girl went super last time out, flying home from last for closing eighth in strong field. A smart mare and she'll beat them, though the trick with her is one go at them. To Ri Dette went a big race last time, attacked in front and tried hard to the line. Can win off the ace. Uroc M'Lady a good follower suited to a race like this. Consider 2,4,8,10,11.

Race Four

Move It Molly

Great Place

Waywood Angel

Move It Molly was slow away last week and that cost her the win, again running home very strongly once wound up in the straight. Deserves her turn. Great Place let them off the hook last week, he should have dictated and won. Big chance with a little more of a conservative approach. Waywood Angel missed away when favourite at Rangiora but did okay after. Nice chance with safe start. Consider 5,7,9 in multiples.

Race Five

Cardinal Huff

Miss Chievous

Motu Speedy Star

Cardinal Huff broke badly early and lost his chance here last week. An impressive maiden winner the start before. One gate not ideal but he's the best of an average bunch. Miss Chievous is a tough mare, tries hard and seems suited to a race like this. She should give account. Motu Speedy Star has been a bit luckless last couple but on winter form he's clearly better than most here. Of the remainder try 2,6,13.

Race Six

Music Box Dancer

Fluctuate

Royal Red Hanover

Music Box Dancer again strong to the finish when second last time. She looks the winner if she can hold up from the one gate and either lead or trail. Should beat them for speed. Fluctuate did some work last week and faded. Follows the favourite from this draw and can get some. Royal Red Hanover was tipped to go well last week when fresh up and ran accordingly. Draw a concern but she is close to winning. Add 2,4,8.

Race Seven

Lyalldale Invasion

Nandy Noot

Royal Loch

Lyalldale Invasion comes in fresh for this after showing good ability last time in. You would expect him to be ready to go for a free win. Hard to beat. Nandy Noot has ability and is ready after some good workout form, including a win. Should run well. Royal Loch continues to race superbly and on her maiden victory last week you would think the C1 win is also close at hand. Consider 1,2,6,10 in multiples.

Race Eight

Bondy

Ohoka Arizona

Sir Lance

Bondy has returned with two brilliant wins, showing his class to beat them pointless. He should make it three on end here, though stablemate Ohoka Arizona could make it interesting. His workout and trial runs have been encouraging, he should race well. Sir Lance resumed with handy run, peaking late. All you need.

Race Nine

Galatos

Armbro Vale

Naenae Tabman

Galatos racing like a winner waiting to happen, disqualified last time after breaking a lap out. Big effort at Rangiora, finishing well from back of midfield. Hard to beat. Armbro Vale did a bit and stuck well last week in a sprint home. A nice type ready to put the hoof in the till. Naenae Tabman did far too much work early at Rangiora, attacking a logical leader. Give another chance driven more conservatively. Add 1,5,9,12.

Race Ten

Tor Riley

Torbrae

All The Way

The bet of the night. Tor Riley trialed super at the Addington workouts last Monday week. He came from last and worked wide, hitting the line nicely. A big chance if steps on terms. Torbrae and All The Way are handy stablemates who also went well at that workout venue. Definite chances fresh up. Consider 8,12,16.

Junior Drivers Championship fields

This Friday night at Addington Raceway, 12 of our talented young drivers will battle it out in the 2009 NZ Junior Drivers Championship. Travelling from the North Island to compete is Hayden Cullen, Simon Lawson, Zac Butcher, Anna Stormont, Josh Dickie and David Branch. Meanwhile all hailing from Canterbury to represent the South Island is Dexter Dunn, Tim Williams, Mitchell Kerr, Brett Cusdin, Regan Todd and Robert Butt.

It's an exciting time for Mitchell, Simon, Joshua and David who enter the Championship in their debut season. Whilst Robert is a veteran, set to be the only driver to compete in all three competitions since it was rejuvenated in 2007. Between the 12 drivers, they have 320 season wins and 583 career wins, whilst their average age is a young 20.5 years old.

Many would be predicting premiership leader Dexter as hot favourite, however Tim has been the most successful with a third place in 2008, the only podium finish out of the six that have competed previously. And remember, the luck of the draw plays a part on the night:

Changes To Programming Of Claimers

At this weeks meeting of the Executive of Harness Racing New Zealand, the future of claiming races was discussed at length.

This is a very complex item in the context of New Zealand Harness Racing. Since the introduction of the current handicapping system on 1st December 2001 the opportunity has existed for Clubs to include claiming conditions for horses to compete in races that are not completely restricted to claimers.

It is more than fair to say considerable problems have been experienced with these types of races right across the country, although in recent times this has predominately been North Island based.

Like any other type of concession and/or advantage, others are likely to be affected. It therefore becomes a balancing act for programmers. The programming of these races has been in the hands of the Clubs.

The Executive this week resolved that from 1ST OCTOBER 2009 claimers can not be placed in fields with other runners and that races may be programmed for CLAIMERS ONLY.

The Executive resolved that the 1ST OCTOBER 2009 date would allow time to work through programming of these claiming only opportunities with Club programmers.
