THURSDAY HARNESS

Forbury T.C @ Forbury Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Top Notch Lavros

Patienceofasaint

Control Freak

An amazing run from Top Notch Lavros at Oamaru when first up for Williamson stable, just failing after breaking and losing a big stretch, then up wide, working hard. Certainty if he trots early. Patienceofasaint continued solid form when run down at Invercargill. Unlucky at Oamaru. Definite threat again. Control Freak also contested that same Oamaru race and was close up, hitting line well. Rates here. Consider 3,12,13.

Race Two

Hannah

Perfect Diva

Royal Red Hanover

Hannah showed her best when run down late at Oamaru, showing a good turn of speed to lead around turn. Very hard to beat off the nice draw this time. Perfect Diva was attacked three to four times in front when a fading fifth at Oamaru. Give another chance with more conservative trip. Royal Red Hanover placed in handy maiden field at Rangiora when fresh. That good enough for this. Add 1,11,12 into multiples.

Race Three

Just An Argyle

Songs O'Spring

Here Comes Homer

Just An Argyle chased hard when placed behind Romulus at Addington last week, a good effort. Impressive wins that track when securing a double. Looks the one, front row draw would be more advantageous. Songs O'Spring never emerged off bad draw over 1700m at Inv, stick with her here, looks better than most. Here Comes Homer returns at ripe old age of 12. He's still got some dash left and could surprise. Add 3 & 8.

Race Four

Laid Back

Tony Dreaver

Artison

Laid Back beat three others when winning Ashburton trial, 29 July, home in 57.4, 27.7 and a four-length winner. Should be very competitive off the ace draw. Tony Dreaver was solid when placed behind Armbr Vale at Oamaru, a good run. Should figure again off nice draw. Artison disappointed at Invercargill but could improve and either place or upset. Of the remainder 3 & 5 worth including.

Race Five

Days Of Action

Bruno

Master Vance

Days Of Action qualified well enough behind Caesajule at Ashburton then beaten two noses when third at Motukarara workouts on Saturday. Should be ready to rumble. Bruno ran on well, an improved effort when placed at Addington. Looks as though a win is close at hand. Master Vance got back, wide around terrible last bend at Oamaru, finished on. Sneaky chance with right trip. 1,8,10,14 the others.

Race Six

Red Dot

Glory R

Bamber

A tricky one with most out of form and usually hard to catch anyway. Try Red Dot, a huge run for seventh at Oamaru after being checked early, then not far from winner at Invercargill. Did win maiden this track. Glory R is a good follower and probably gets every chance off ace draw. Definite threat. Bamber showed better when just beaten at Invercargill. That better than average workout efforts. Could be on the improve. In P6 you may need the field in a percentage ticket somewhere!

Race Seven

Araucana

Lavra Miriam

Bankers Moment

Araucana is the best of these, though the manners would be a bit questionable. Long time off the scene and unplaced at the trials, though since an impressive workout winner at Motukarara. Don't run without her. Lavra Miriam also back off a break, won Timaru trial 05 Aug by five lengths, home in 29.3. Stable has them ready. Bankers Moment well handicapped on 20m and should continue good form after winning last time. Valley Of Fire a bit luckless at Invercargill, held up wrong time, definite chance.

Race Eight

Roses In May

Niraadi

Roadnight Charlie

Taking a line straight through the Kurov Cup, with our top three all coming out of that strong race. Roses In May just 2.1L from Pretty Dollybird, the final 800m in 57.5 so it was a good run. Both Niraadi and Roadnight Charlie were never in the hunt off handicaps, though this easier task. Both are good enough. Of the rest Rosie J could go a good one fresh up and has been to workouts. Mason and Life Goes On for longer odds.

Race Nine

Seafeld Cullen

The Blur

Fiji Babe

Seafeld Cullen falls into a winnable race, his form okay in stronger fields last few. Ready to strike top form. The Blur was again very solid at Invercargill and deserves a win, his Oamaru run two back was also good. Fiji Babe was unlucky last time at Addington. No star but a definite threat in this line up. Of the rest 3,9,12 look the best of those.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Franklin T.C @ Alexandra Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Roll On Red River

Dark Hero

Leica Fighter

Roll On Red River went a beauty a fortnight back then no go behind Mighty Creation in race dominated from front last week. Too good for these with right trip. Dark Hero has run two solid races past fortnight and will find this easier. Deserves reward. Leica Fighter has big finish if saved up and is definite threat. Add 3,6.

Race Two

Jason X

Shezaluckydreamer

Huff

Jason X resumes for Reid - Rogerson stable after racing out of Jeff Crouth's team. He last raced in January. Forward at Saturday workouts at Cambridge and he looks best of a bad bunch here. Shezaluckydreamer has race fitness on her side and has been racing okay. Should get her chance. Huff is a workout winner, can upset.

Race Three

Miss Poppet

Johnnie Deesel

Don Chiola

Miss Poppet was running on okay in much stronger field last week behind smart trotter Cyclone Jake. Has enough ability to take care of these. Johnnie Deesel has been a long-time servant in the grade but can trot when he puts it together, which is rare. No better chance. Don Chiola prominent before breaking last week.

Race Four

Triple Jay

Flojo Two

Christian Miss

Triple Jay was just 1.0L from Kissimmee here last week, a brave try. She's a tough mare and will outstay most of this adequate opposition. Flojo Two took off before acceptances last time to the races when over-driven. Bright chance if patiently handled. Christian Miss never disappoints and this looks easier. Add 4 & 8.

Race Five

Hoof It

The Great Escape

Soaring Falcon

Giving these a winning chance is being kind, to be fair. A poor field. Hoof It shows enough to be considered off the ace draw, though he'll need the right trip. The Great Escape could be the upsetter. He drew poorly last week when fresh and has been a keen front-runner in the past. Might set them something to chase. Soaring Falcon throws in the odd good one and could surprise. Not a race to hang your hat on. Go field in P6!!!!

Race Six

Big Dog

Fight Fire With Fire

Saucy Magic

Much easier. Big Dog should win again. He was in supreme form through June and has been freshened since. Forward at the workouts and ready to run well. Obvious choice. Fight Fire With Fire couldn't hold out Spy last week but fought well. A must have. Saucy Magic and Family Spirit if you want Pick6 cover.

Race Seven

Noble Norm

Tex Bromac

Jonny English

Noble Norm found winning form again last time, a nice effort in beating some handy sorts. Very hard to beat if he leads up again. Tex Bromac has looked good in winning a double in past month, and shoots for three here. The wide draw is only real concern. Jonny English is the interesting runner. Joins the powerful Reid-Rogerson team after showing promise through the low grades last time in, Gets a barrier to work with, too. Watch the totes. 1,6,7,12,13 if you want the spread.

Race Eight

Dux

Calamity Gal

Genius

Dux sneaks up to 20m line and that should be helpful if he can begin well. Closing in on winning form and he's very talented when in the mood. Calamity Gal won a double here recently and has always been above-average. Big chance in this form. Genius again has tough task off 45m but can never be discounted, either. Other threats could be Endeavor, Hazel Maud, and Sanchipola.

Race Nine

Twist N Shout

Miami Diva

Fireworks

Twist N Shout probably should have won last week, though she was beaten by a nice filly in Matai Mies who seems destined to achieve more. No better chance than to finally grab the maiden victory. Miami Diva looks the danger, wouldn't want to get involved in early fight for too long, can win if she takes a trail. Fireworks could figure in finish from one on second line. Top two look clear Pick6 chances.

Race Ten

Lasvegasherewecome

Lucky Nova

Sunny's Bar

After another good effort last week when working mid-race, Lasvegasherewecome looks the one here. Has been in great form through the winter without winning. Deserves his reward. Lucky Nova couldn't catch Cyclone Jake last week though brave in trying. Off the front she'll be tough to hold out. Sunny's Bar has reached peak form and should keep that going in adequate lineup. Of the remainder 6,9,12,13 possibly the best.

Breeders Crown Reaches Its Climax

By Shaun Kelly (HRV)

The Southern Hemisphere's elite juvenile race series, the Tabcorp Australasian Breeders Crown, reaches its climax in Victoria over the next fortnight.

Tabcorp Park at Melton will host four meetings over nine days as Australia and New Zealand's best pacers and trotters gather for harness racing's lucrative season-ending championship.

The action commences this Friday night and concludes with the nation's richest raceday on Sunday afternoon, August 23 when $1.55 million in prizemoney will be on offer.

Australasia's elite two, three and four-year-old pacers and trotters will feature across a record nine Group 1 races on 'Super Sunday' in what is a battle to crown the best of the best.

Over 210 horses will compete in upwards of 38 races across the finals carnival, with $2 million in prize-money to be distributed over the four meetings at Victoria's new home of harness racing.

The opening night of the carnival features the running of the two and three-year-old pacing semi finals and the inaugural mares graduate free-for-all.

The racing continues with the four-year-old heats this Sunday twilight and the divisional consolations on Friday week, before culminating in the grand finals on Super Sunday.

Qualifying for the Tabcorp Australasian Breeders Crown finals commenced in June and has taken in heats in each state of Australia and on both islands of New Zealand.

The past week has seen repechages conducted across Victoria for the beaten brigade with the final round to be conducted at Maryborough tomorrow for the two and three-year-old trotters.

"This promises to be the best Tabcorp Australasian Breeders Crown ever with the introduction of our inaugural four-year-old series, coupled with the continued growth in the established two and three-year-old divisions,” Harness Racing Victoria chief executive John Anderson said.

“We have horses from every state of Australia and both islands of New Zealand converging on Victoria and Tabcorp Park over the next fortnight which epitomises the growing strength and popularity of the Breeders Crown.

“Fans will not only see the sport’s brightest young talent in action at Tabcorp Park, but also many of our established stars with pacing and trotting free-for-alls offering recording prizemoney for graduates of the Breeders Crown series.

“Admission is free for the first three meetings and only $20 for Super Sunday so I’d encourage people who haven’t visited our new home yet to take the opportunity to get to Tabcorp Park over the next fortnight and witness harness racing at its very best.”

Super Sunday admission tickets can be pre-purchased via Ticketmaster on 136 100 or at www.ticketmaster.com.au, from Tabcorp Park reception over the next fortnight or at the gate on the day of the meeting.

Dining packages for Super Sunday must be pre-booked via Ticketmaster only, but dining bookings for the opening three meetings are to be made with Tabcorp Park on (03) 8746 0600.
