Addington Selections - Thursday Night

RACE 1 - The Fed Express - Mister Powell - Ceda Storm - Damascus

THE FED EXPRESS (12) chased a smart one in McDana last time and did well, a tidy second placing. On class he looks a little better than these, despite the draw. MISTER POWELL (15) can be forgiven his last start failure, go on previous two outings when very sound. CEDA STORM (6) was in winning form at the workouts last weekend and can give some cheek.

RACE 2 - Springbank Richard - Speculate - Mystic Sun - Awesome Imace

SPRINGBANK RICHARD (10) returns off a spell. He is very classy when right and his late-season form before a layoff was excellent. Expected to be forward for this. SPECULATE (3) was still too good after a slow start here a fortnight ago and is all class. She'll keep them busy again. For multiples MYSTIC SUN (8), AWESOME IMACE (9), and KING GALLEON (12).

RACE 3 - Johnny Bravo - Romulus - Waihemo John - Raglan

JOHNNY BRAVO (3) was claimed late by Romulus in 1:57.9 mile rate this track a couple of weeks ago, his first start in four months. Should be sharper and he looks the one off nice draw. ROMULUS (8) will undoubtedly provide the toughest opposition again and can win, though wide draw no real help to him. RAGLAN (6) a good winner at long odds last time, and WAIHEMO JOHN (2) back in the south after northern stint, the best for longer odds.

RACE 4 - Dustin Bromac - Matai Hunter - Our Southern Man - Fittler

DUSTIN BROMAC (5) gets the nod as he can use a nice draw to advantage with his quick gatespeed, and that puts him in a winning position early doors. Should get the run to do the job. His dangers are MATAI HUNTER (14) and OUR SOUTHERN MAN (15), both coming from the unruly draws, but very talented. FITTLER (4) ran on late at Methven and could spice up combinations.

RACE 5 - Most Happy Alex - Lionels Meddle - Dreamaway Jess - Explosive Turk

MOST HAPPY ALEX (1) looked forward to run when a sound fourth at the trials behind star pacer Mr Feelgood at Rangiora last week. Stable is firing and this one should go a great race first up. LIONELS MEDDLE (8) is hard to go past, his latest win on this track was grand considering he beat quality pacer Rangataua Ray. EXPLOSIVE TURK (7) fought very gamely at Methven and is a tough type worth having in, along with DREAMAWAY JESS (9) who had no luck at Methven.

RACE 6 - Joshua Mac - Bruce Almighty - Mullingar Mac - El De Rosa

JOSHUA MAC (17) chased To Ri Archie at the Methven workouts and ran well, then went to Rangiora workouts last Sunday and was far too good, home in 56.7. Very talented type who should win this despite tricky draw. BRUCE ALMIGHTY (2) ran on after slow start at Methven and is clearly due a win, keep outside. MULLINGAR MAC (6) was very impressive at Rangiora trials and will go well.

RACE 7 - Nandy Noot - Clover Don - Westmelton Willie - Elizabeth Anne

NANDY NOOT (12) bravely held out the smart Top Notch Lavros this track, 28 Aug. Prior form had been very sound and she should go close to making it another here. CLOVER DON (3) was too good in Tuesday company but will handle this, he's a nice horse. WESTMELTON WILLIE (15) was better last time and mobile start and distance suits. ELIZABETH ANNE (1) and VALLEY OF FIRE (14) for longer odds.

RACE 8 - Georgetown - Bondy - Zenad - Tribute

GEORGETOWN (2) has looked really sharp in two workouts at Rangiora, coming home smartly last Saturday to beat Corka Dream, home in 55.0 for the last 800m. Huge chance if he settles in first four of five early. BETTOR'S STRIKE (1) has benefit of run under the belt and is in similar boat. BONDY (8) won so well last time and is class, great beginner and that's his best asset. REPORT FOR DUTY (7) and TRIBUTE (11) both trialed well last week, too good to dismiss. ZENAD (14) looked bright at the workouts on Monday, not without a chance. Great race.

RACE 9 - Live Dangerously - McDana - Arnoux - Barmy Army

LIVE DANGEROUSLY (5) had the better of them last time, including ARNOUX (3) who was beaten but not disgraced. They are both strong chances, with MCDANA (10) a big threat after easy maiden win when looking smart, and BARMY ARMY (8) beaten favourite at Methven but may prefer all-weather track.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Forbury Park T.C @ Forbury Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Cullen Speed

Bet The Max

Guapo Bromac

A tidy field of maidens to kick off the night. Cullen Speed had just the one run last term as a 2yo, and has returned with some sound workout and trial form. From an in-form stable and he should go well off a handy draw. Bet The Max shows enough at workouts to be considered, though draw no help. He will be competitive. Guapo Bromac and Chay Bromac are talented stablemates with some chance. Consider 3,7,17.

Race Two

Feels Like Magic

Barrack

Del Sur

Feels Like Magic made it two on end when impressive winner last time out. He stands out on form and should be tough to beat with Dexter Dunn aboard. Barrack can be forgiven for his last start failure, he is a classy type and can win this. His stablemate Del Sur was a good thing beaten at Gore on Tuesday and will win a race soon, worth having in here. Encore Maestro, good at the workouts, and 6,8,9 worth considering.

Race Three

Verlocity

Nai Sivad

Four Starzzz Art

A tricky race with average form among these. Verlocity did finish well for third at Methven behind a smart horse and should run well. Nai Sivad qualified at Gore last week and looked tidy doing it. He should measure up. Four Starzzz Art jumped shadows at Addington when fav. No such problem here, 2,4,9 should also figure.

Race Four

Myouri

Sea Wind

Torbrae

A little more straight-forward this one with former class 2yo Myouri returning from a spell and possibly a class above these. He had good blowout when placed at Motukarara workouts on Saturday, and should be a winner. Sea Wind won well here in maidens last week and looks a nice type. Genuine chance again. Torbrae ran on well, just failing this track last week. Due a win. Of the rest try 2 & 3 if going wider.

Race Five

Relentless Storm

Samarias Bromac

Whatahoot

Relentless Storm hasn't hit the high notes just yet but is talented and the workout effort of late was better, running on last bit. Give a chance here, can get the job done. Samarias Bromac faded on the run here last week when debuting. Ran 3:00.8 (2400m) at trials so is capable. Stick with. Whatahoot was unlucky when second last time and should have won. Looks well-placed this time. Consider 2,10,12.

Race Six

Mackles Creek

Laughing Lord

Inevitable

Mackles Creek has had her chance a couple of times lately in Canterbury, but not that far away at the finish and will notice drop in class here. She should win, though Laughing Lord is likely to give her a run for her money. He was run down by Franco Caesar here last week but fought on. Inevitable had a hard run at Gore on Tuesday but should be prominent here off nice draw. Try Reacher for the upset.

Race Seven

Platinum Plus

Thrill Seeker

Rainbows Wish

A handy lot with Canterbury visitors Platinum Plus and Thrill Seeker getting the nod given their usual good early manners. Platinum Plus was good when winning a workout on Saturday and looks well-placed. Thrill Seeker will be prominent throughout. Of the handicapped runners Rainbows Wish must rate off a good return effort last week, and Bankers Moment, Mexican Invasion, and Lady Margot are worth a ticket.

Race Eight

Eric's Legend

Flyin Interstate

Spero Denario

Eric's Legend and Flyin Interstate look set to battle this out. The former broke from a stand and was no chance behind Bondy last time, the mobile to suit him here, as will the undoubted drop in class. Flyin Interstate will be no pushover, however. He's in red-hot form at the workouts with two wins under the belt and seems in great nick to resume. Spero Denario won so well at Methven and will give some cheek.

Race Nine

Franco Caesar

Fiji Babe

Elite Under Fire

The Dunn brothers may fight this out with Franco Caesar (John Dunn) the top pick after a good win here last time, coming with sustained finish from well back in the field. Fiji Babe (Dexter) got the money in a weak field last time but the draw again falls her way and she should get the trip to go close. Elite Under Fire is racing well and can threaten off the back row, while Imperial Phoenix should go well off the ace.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Auckland T.C. @ Alexandra Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Maheer Major

Caroline's Cullen

Tex Bromac

Barrier draws should hold the key, with Maheer Major likely to get the run he wants from gate one, following a fast beginner and likely leader in Caroline's Cullen. That pair will take some stopping from there. Tex Bromac follows Caroline's Cullen through and will be tough to hold out. He was strongly supported last week and hasn't stopped winning yet. Consider Millwood Nebraska, a huge run working overtime last Friday.

Race Two

Sir Lincoln

Gomeo Romeo

Pedro Carrington

Sir Lincoln got the job done at very short odds last week when expected to be far too good. You would expect further improvement from him, though no moral this week. The Geoff Small-trained pair of Gomeo Romeo and Pedro Carrington were slick Cambridge winners last time and have the talent. They'll be right in the finish. Consider Lord Patrol and Bute Brother in multiple bets.

Race Three

Calamity Gal

Genius

Cornishman

Calamity Gal was a sound fourth behind Genius here in mid-August when last produced, that following some very strong winter form when winning. She's a smart mare and will go close to winning with slight advantage in handicaps. Genius again has handicap to overcome but he never knows when to stop trying and will give good account. Cornishman has to rate, always there, and Dux can upset if caught in the mood.

Race Four

Mighty Creation

Flem N Em

Breath Of Life

Mighty Creation returned with slick win over Winnies Central and has been unsighted since. Looks a bit too good for the majority of these and his draw may not be too bad. Flem N Em resumes and is just the type to go a good one fresh up. Likely to be ready to go. Breath Of Life hasn't missed many fights in recent weeks but keeps going honest races. She is due a greater reward. Of the remainder look to 2,11,15 for value.

Race Five

Cyclone Jake

Isa Good Looking

O'Sheas

Cyclone Jake showed his class in doing a job on a reasonable field last week, his good manners taking him a long way to success. Should do a similar job and be very hard to beat again. Isa Good Looking was the challenger last week, finishing well. They look a sound quinella bet again. O'Sheas was running on strongly over the final stages last time and is nearing better form. Consider 1,3,6,12 in opening leg of Pick6.

Race Six

Matai Mies

Christian Miss

Neesey Bromac

Matai Mies was scratched last week, but returns here so you'd expect her to be ready to go. On the two wins this time in she should be able to comfortably make it three on end. Christian Miss tried hard just failed behind Manotick Express last week. A genuine eachway chance. Neesey Bromac is fitter for recent racing and has improved each time. Ready to strike and this is a good option for her against own sex. Consider 2,3,7.

Race Seven

Changeover

Awesome Armbro

Perfect Cullen

It looks a tough task for Changeover and Awesome Armbro off the 30m over 2200m, but they're so classy it is hard to go past them. Both have trialed very well and are forward to go. Changeover should win if screwed down for it. Perfect Cullen, Thomas Maguire, and St Barts look the dangers. Tricky leg of Pick6.

Race Eight

De Lovely

Secret Potion

Galleons Honour

A nice maiden field. De Lovely is bred to run, out of former NZ Oaks winner Copper Beach. Won her qualifier at Pukekohe 18 Aug and was impressive enough. Sure to run well. Secret Potion couldn't grab Vice Regal last week when favourite on debut. A definite chance this time. Another debut runner in Galleons Honour should go a solid race out of good stable, while Twice As Great is another talent well worth a ticket.

Race Nine

Don Giovanni

Benromach

Continental Pride

Don Giovanni returns after a let-up, has been going well at workouts. Undoubtedly good enough but he will need to behave himself, something he hasn't done in three racenight attempts. Benromach went really well for second last week, only to be disqualified. Looks a good chance on that. Continental Pride went some really good races last time in and should be prominent fresh up. Consider 4,9,10 in Pick6.

Race Ten

Courage To Rule

River Field

CC Star

Class pacers Courage To Rule and River Field return to the races with penalty-free 2yo wins under the belt, so they basically get the chance to beat up on maidens as a reward, which is an absolute joke. They are just that much better than these, going Courage To Rule, he is superior. CC Star and Bobby Lashley to fill third.

Timaru Selections - Sunday
