THURSDAY HARNESS

Cambridge-Te Awamutu @ Cambridge Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Awohali

Cloncullen

Donovan Bromac

Awohali never paced a yard here last time when hot favourite and looked sore. He should have been sorted in the meantime and you'd expect a far better effort. Stick with him. Cloncullen showed more than enough last season to be right in this. He looks a sound chance fresh up. Donovan Bromac is a nice type only going to get better and his debut run was solid. Must be included. Try 1,8,12,13 in multiples.

Race Two

Nicolas Breakspear

Extended Credit

Ruby Ryan

Nicolas Breakspear won at good odds when taking his maiden victory on this track a couple of weeks ago. Since a good workout run without being pushed. Drawn to go very close. Extended Credit was taken on in front last time but was still far too good. Must be tough again. Ruby Ryan was impressive workout winner this track on Saturday and showed plenty last time in. Will have support. Consider 5,8,14.

Race Three

Indian Wells

Chas Luney

Hazel Maud

The claimers get their chance here, with stablemates Indian Wells and Chas Luney both going okay and looking well-placed at the handicaps. Indian Wells had good tote support last time and almost got there. He is due a reward. Chas Luney isn't going that bad and can figure himself. Hazel Maud proves hard to follow but is capable when in the mood. In an open race consider 1,7,11,14.

Race Four

Swift Therapy

Gomeo Romeo

River Field

A great field, though a very difficult race to work out the pattern. The barrier draws have fallen to Swift Therapy, a promoted winner last week, but impressive in doing it, and Gomeo Romeo who looks a Sires Stakes horse more and more each time he's produced. They get the vote from good gates, though the class outside them is huge. River Field is very classy but so are 6,7 & 8. Early speed will play a big part here.

Race Five

Caroline's Cullen

Rowan Three

Maheer Major

On race fitness Caroline's Cullen gets the edge over Rowan Three, though the latter did show a real touch of class a couple of times before heading for a winters spell. They're hard to split. Maheer Major is a tough wee fella and he'll get his chance with a good junior driver on board. Raven Aveross could give some cheek.

Race Six

Huff

Whatawee Babe

Mighty Christian

Not a flash lot. Huff has disappointed last couple and that was surprising given he'd been expected to win after a slick workout effort on this track. Give another chance in this company. Whatawee Babe found some form last time and generally holds her form once she starts racing well. Mighty Christian met a far-stronger field last time and is also well-placed in lesser company. A tricky leg of Pick6.

Race Seven

Perfect Cullen

Awesome Armbro

Queen Of Heaven

Perfect Cullen got home really smartly over the final 200m for a closing third behind Big Dog in the Cambridge Cup last time. Seems to save his best for this track. His stablemate Awesome Armbro was off his game last week and broke. The 65m may not be far enough to stop him winning this. Queen Of Heaven tried her first standing start. Freshened since hat-trick in July. Too good to dismiss. 1,3,6,8,10 to upset.

Race Eight

Dontmakemeangry

Anzac Parade

Anvils Beirnes

Dontmakemeangry went super at Auckland last week, fighting bravely for promoted second after working hard through early and middle stages. He should beat this bunch. Best draws at Cambridge are 1 & 9, and that pair, Anzac Parade and Anvil Beirnes, look solid trifecta chances, even upset winning hopes.

Race Nine

Don Giovanni

Great Getaway

Watch Rose Trot

This is possibly not too difficult if the best ones behave. Don Giovanni hasn't so far but he was again too good for them at the workouts on Saturday. Must surely get it right this time?! Great Getaway has been going well at the local workouts and is sure to have solid support. Will go close. Watch Rose Trot a definite, too.

Race Ten

Wings Of An Angel

Insatiable

Suidelike Meisie

Not the easiest leg to select. Wings Of An Angel has often shown enough ability to win a race or two, then lets the side down next time around. Freshened since last racing 03 July, and could show something here. Insatiable continues to go honest races, and though poorly draw, sometimes that draw can play in your favour if they go hard up front. Suidelike Meisie and Ruby have shown workout form and are worth a look. I'd want the field in Pick6 !!

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Meredith Maguire

Pay Me Painter

Hannah

Meredith Maguire was very impressive in taking out her maiden win on this track. An immediate and steep rise in grade for her, though she appears capable of handling it. Drawn to go well. Pay Me Painter is a classy mare re-suming. Drawn poorly but better than most. Hannah finished on in a sprint home last week and looks well-placed here. Bubba Ho Tep and Meursault for longer odds.

Race Two

King Of Strathfield

Justakiwiboy

Clover Don

King Of Strathfield has looked rather smart in two unbeaten raceday attempts, and did win at Monday's workouts. He seems to step well, and looks a solid winning chance again here. Justakiwiboy found winning form last time and did it well. He has raced consistently all term. Clover Don shoots for four-on-end, and no reason why he can't do it. His latest win was very sharp. De Gaulle and Vatuvei for longer odds.

Race Three

To Ri Archie

Four Starzzz Flash

Charlie Wright

To Ri Archie was beaten by a better one on the day at Oamaru when a brave second last Sunday. Looked the goods winning his debut. Should account for this lot. Four Starzzz Flash trialed impressively on a wet track on Monday when narrowly beaten. His raceday form is very sound. Charlie Wright did the job nicely first up and should continue that form. Te Kinga Boy did upset a big odds on debut, looked handy at trials before that.

Race Four

Kotare Mach

Anvils Best Ever

Live Dangerously

Kotare Mach returned with a resounding workout win at Motukarara on Monday, showing his class. Just the type to run very boldly fresh up and he should use a good draw to his advantage. Anvils Best Ever raced very nicely fresh up a couple of weeks ago when nosed out by Live Dangerously. That pair will offer stern opposition despite tricky draws. Arnoux and Mach Banner should be prominent with recent racing under the belt.

Race Five

Speculate

Musgrove

Master Bomber

Speculate was run down by a very good horse in Springbank Richard in the Ordeal Cup. This is a notch down from that company and she looks the best of good things on exposed form. Musgrove broke at the start and recovered very well at Oamaru. An easy win here two back. Big chance if he trots. Master Bomber trialed well before failing in Ordeal Cup. Quick improver. Unique Star, Trotupastorm and Racey Product the others.

Race Six

Second Wind

Most Happy Alex

Barmy Army

Second Wind claimed his third win on end this season with another professional performance here on Sept 24. This is his first mobile start, though that shouldn't be an issue. He looks a superior stayer to these. Most Happy Alex went absolutely massive when first up off a long spell when rating 1:57.5 here Sept 10. Rates very highly on that alone. Only Barmy Army looks capable of testing the top two, and he could beat them.

Race Seven

Highview Tommy

Harley Earl

Eric's Legend

Highview Tommy deserves favouritism on reputation alone. He has trialed well, the second to Auckland Reactor on Monday was very solid on a bog track. Ready to win fresh up, though a stern task it is in Group company. Harley Earl got the job done beautifully last week, showing his class. The 20m is not enough to stop him in that form, nor Eric's Legend who shares the back-mark. He's in grand form himself. Move Over and Auditor General can upset if a tough Monday workout at Motukarara hasn't taken the edge off them.

Race Eight

Joshua Mac

Glenalvon

Therecomesatime

Joshua Mac was caught going too slowly in front last week and was pounced on mid-race as a result, flinching on his run to the line when beaten. Sure to set a more solid tempo here and he can get home. Glenalvon should appreciate a good pace after winning in sub 2:00.0 at Timaru, home in 55.9. A big chance with repeat. McDana is poorly drawn but racing well Therecomesatime is much better than last-start failure suggests.

Race Nine

Auckland Reactor

Monkey King

Zenad

Auckland Reactor will be all the rage, but will he step away? Going on his trial and workout efforts he won't. He should be on the unruly. Never count out a champion. He's a super horse and standing start manners aside he's the winner here. Worth the risk. Monkey King has his own issues at the start and was poor at Oamaru, brilliant once underway. So who wins if the favoured-pair gallop badly? One of them should do it right and get the money. Zenad and Mr Feelgood will get possibly get their chance to find top form, and needed form at that.

Race Ten

Algeepce

Lord Mamaduke

Spero Denario

Algeepce was brilliant for the second time on end when rating 1:59.6 over 2600m here last week, that after a 1:56.4 (1950m) win this track and distance on Sept 18. Drawn to get the job done again. Hard to see beaten. Lord Mamaduke looked rather ready when he was a recent winner at the workouts, dashing smartly up the straight. Classier than most. Spero Denario a slick workout winner on Monday, and Belhelvie also chances.

Race Eleven

Absolute Magic

Georgetown

Bachelorette

Absolute Magic returns off a spell and finds a very suitable race to kick off in. He looked sharp when placed behind Auckland Reactor in recent Addington trial. Should go boldly fresh. Georgetown looks the one if he takes on this race as opposed to the Free-For-All earlier in the night. He's racing very well without luck. Big chance. Bachelorette may have no form on the board but her two runs haven't been that bad off the clock. Add 8 & 9.
