BOXING DAY HARNESS

Westport T.C. @ Patterson Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Roving President

Boogiestom

Dunarunner

Roving President looks smart at the workouts for trainers David and Catherine Butt. He chased Arjuna in a solid 3:24.9 at Rangiora a couple of weeks ago and won well. Looks one of the better maidens to turn up on the circuit. Boogiestom shows good ability for Wayne Higgs and is well worth including. Dunarunner comes in fresh. Impressive workout win recently. Has the talent. Include 3,4,8,12 in multiples.

Race Two

Dr Hook

El Alamein

Another Round

Dr Hook was an impressive winner at Methven, backing up from an unlucky defeat at Waimate when debuting. Sure to carry on the good work on the circuit. Local hope El Alamein was much like his old self when a nice second at Orari. Will be primed on the home track. Another Round has had little luck since smart maiden win and is capable of surprising. Consider 1,6,8,11.

Race Three

Kahdon

Classy Boyz

Wishing Del

Kahdon qualified smartly for Paul Nairn last week and looked handy before that at trials. Always respect the trainer and this one is a little bit better than most here. Classy Boyz is very talented, though wayward. A much more polished effort last time at Orari. Could lap these if he trots all the way. Wishing Del is also a nice type and seems suited here. First starters Master Harbour and Medora have shown good ability at workouts.

Race Four

Cammi Two

Go Go Lavra

Julio Chavez

Cammi Two has gone two nice races for Michael Heenan, a man who likes winning at Westport. Sure to have been set for the meeting and he should go close. Go Go Lavra is a talented mare. Resumes here after long break but trust in her ability, she can run. Julio Chavez went a good race at Addington last time and should figure. Panesar debuts out of good stable and he has shown up off the trials tapes. Consider 3,5,9,12,16.

Race Five

Bruno

Virgin Eyre

Toriana

Bruno has the race form, though he last raced back in September. A recent workout winner and this field looks within his grasp. Virgin Eyre catches the eye at workouts, running them out quite strongly. Might provide some value here. Toriana had no luck last time after good debut. Stick with her. Consider 1,4,6,9,14.

Race Six

Reklaw's Chance

Crystal Star

Another Homer

Reklaw's Chance has met some strong fields over the past couple of months and has often had little or no luck at all. He likes the grass tracks and has been set for the race. Can win. Crystal Star is another to enjoy the grass and on staying ability she will fight it out better than most. A tidy run last week to cap the prep. Another Homer was just beaten over 3000m at Methven and seems well-placed here. In an open race look to 3,8,12,16,17,20 as the cover in multiples.

Race Seven

Highview Kiwi

Fluctuate

Duomo Bromac

Highview Kiwi was just nailed at Waimate in a field better than this. On exposed form she should have the measure of these. Fluctuate is a handy mare, a top run two back when third at Motukarara. Looks a really nice bet. Duomo Bromac is a locally-trained mare who is sure to be ready for the assignment. Add 1,2,5,7,8 into the mix.

Race Eight

Donegal Under Fire

Just An Argyle

Franco Nereus

Donegal Under Fire kept the good form going when placed behind the ill-fated Turbo Tara at Methven, chasing gamely in the straight. Jim Curtin loves Westport and loves winning there. This one looks his best on the day. Just An Argyle capped his preparation with impressive trial run on grass at Orari on Saturday. A handy pacer with a genuine chance. Fantastic Guest, a grass track winner on debut, is also well worth a second glance. Franco Nereus an obvious include despite the tricky 20 barrier draw. 4,5,6,10 if going wider.

Race Nine

James' Jazzmine

Annihilator

Brite Autumn

James' Jazzmine has shown how good she is at times, beating strong fields at Addington. A smart grass-track win at Orari two back. Too good if she leads. Annihilator had a gallop and lost chance last time but go on encouraging form prior. He's quite smart. Brite Autumn regained winning form at Methven last time and seems fit and ready for this. Consider 1,6,8,9,13.

Race Ten

Dying To Rule

Bold Jester

Raven

James' Jazzmine has shown how good she is at times, beating strong fields at Addington. A smart grass-track win at Orari two back. Too good if she leads. Annihilator had a gallop and lost chance last time but go on encouraging form prior. He's quite smart. Brite Autumn regained winning form at Methven last time and seems fit and ready for this. Consider 1,6,8,9,13.
