FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

That's All Right

Ride In A Rolls

Blackjacky

An even bunch. Going for That's All Right who does have to overcome a bad draw. She has gone two cracking races to date and still has a winning chance here. Ride In A Rolls showed good ability last time in and looks set to resume on a good note. Blackjacky and Toriana have better draws. Consider 7,9,10,15.

Race Two

Falcon Performer

Deadly Affair

Belle Vista

Another open contest. Falcon Performer may not be greatly disadvantaged from the second row and he's best with the last run at them. Any luck in running and he'll get home better than most. Deadly Affair ran the race of an improver last time and should be considered off a suitable draw. Belle Vista is going well without luck and should be added into the mix. Consider 4,5,6,11.

Race Three

Aruba

Goldstar Invasion

Take For Granted

Aruba has been spoiling her chances with slow beginnings off the stand, so the mobile she be of great assistance here. Capable of winning this. Goldstar Invasion backed up a good win with another strong effort when second in stronger field last week. Has to rate despite tricky draw. Take For Granted is quite smart when in the mood and is also suited to mobile start. Royal Loch and Challenge Opawa can figure.

Race Four

Motu Treasure

Empire Flame

Hoon Hay

Action to come from inside draws, with a very fast beginner in Motu Treasure much-better suited to this after drawing the back row here last Saturday. Very hard to beat over the 1950m. Empire Flame was woeful by his standards after leading at Forbury. Has to be given another chance, may be driven in behind this time. Hoon Hay can use the draw and be handy, one for value. Look to Smooth Julius and J D Fortune as the cover.

Race Five

Lucky Nova

Andand J Cee

Have Faith

Lucky Nova was under three-lengths from The Tower here last Saturday, a top run off the handicap. Back there again tonight, though she probably meets an easier field. Has to rate highly. Andand J Cee always goes well fresh, and though his races are often well-spaced, he is very capable. Workout run suggested her will go well. Have Faith got it wrong last week but go again, she'd looked close to a win beforehand. In an open race try 2,3,7,12,13 in multiples and PICK6.

Race Six

Abide With Me

Bettor Move It

Anvils Delight

Abide With Me has looked the goods at the trials. She has also shown good gatespeed which will help her cause no end off this lovely draw. A big chance to win. Bettor Move It was superb when winning brilliantly at Auckland, as expected. She's the one to beat on that. They are a powerful top two. To chase them home consider 1,3,8,11. Of those Anvils Delight and Paradise City have really impressed at trials.

Race Seven

Amakudari

Wee Brother

Stephs Caesar

Amakudari met a better field off a worse draw here last Saturday. This looks more suitable, and going on her Invercargill run two back she will take plenty of beating. Wee Brother can win again if he can hold up from one. Racing well and dangerous with last crack at them. Steps Caesar, and Romulus both ran solid races last weekend and can figure despite wider draws. Consider 3 & 4.

Race Eight

Beaudiene Bad Babe

Lauraella

Breath Of Life

Beaudiene Bad Babe came all the way from Invercargill for the abandoned race a couple of weeks ago, so she deserves reward for her efforts. A super win at Ascot Park in the meantime, and she gets her chance off a great draw. Stablemates Breath Of Life and Joyfuljoy were no threats last Saturday when chasing a 55.7 last 800m behind Auditor General. Should be primed for this. Lauraella gets a shocking draw, though possibly okay if Muscle Beach leaves the gate fast. Probably the best in the race, Lauraella is a definite win chance. Consider 3,4,5,6 in a race opened up by the absence of Kiwi Ingenuity.

Race Nine

Keepyaguardup

Running On Time

Unique Star

Possibly some improving form to come here. Keepyaguardup was noticeably nursed through the early stages last Saturday and then luckless from the turn when running on late. Definite chance with that under his belt. Running On Time broke turn when mounting a run last week. Much better than that and well worth a look this time. Unique Star broke again last week, give one last chance. Obvious threats are 1,4,8.

Race Ten

Franco Jamar

Atom Of Courage

Straws Fire Chip

Franco Jamar had an early gallop and lost his chance last Saturday. A lovely run at the workouts prior to that. Should return to winning form this time. Atom Of Courage went a beauty to win at Wyndham on Sunday. Off the same draw he looks a top chance again. Straws Fire Chip, Fuoco and Anvils Big Punt are sound chances despite second line draws. Consider Talk About Courage.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Franklin T.C @ Alexandra Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Cruiser Franco

World Of Dreams

Tatum Franco

Cruiser Franco has been freshened since last racing 29 December. A good record this track and was handy when placed at the recent workouts. Look for forward showing. World Of Dreams showed much improvement last time when game in defeat. Could be close to winning form. Tatum Franco and The Actress are last-start winners with some chance. Consider 6,9,10.

Race Two

Leonidas

Son Of Courage

The Oyster Bar

Leonidas joins the McCaffrey stable after early stint with Nigel McGrath. Showed ability in tough Sires Stakes company as a 2yo. Hasn't been sighted at workouts in north so might be ready to rumble. Stablemates Son Of Courage, and The Oyster Bar were both unlucky last week, beaten narrowly. On that form they'll go big races. Jewels Bound is overdue a win and deserves his turn.

Race Three

Wild Isis

Bargain Basement

Bosscoe

Wild Isis chased hard, beaten fair and square by Chocolate Brownie this track, 21 Jan. A lovely win before that. Genuine class takes her very close to success here. Bargain Basement did very well after breaking when fourth last week. A safe start and he's right in the hunt. Bosscoe showed plenty last time in and has a big reputation. He's a strong chance with Lasvegasherewelcome the other.

Race Four

Flex

Ellevenfiftyseven

Emma Hamilton

Flex has shown some talent in three runs and in an open field he looks a chance to quit maidens. Ellevenfiftyseven came up short when a game second at Cambridge last week. She was confidently expected to go well. Quick improver. Consider Emma Hamilton, Boizel, and Don Chiola in the mix.

Race Five

Eridanus

Happy Chappy

Maheer Monarch

Eridanus looks the best of good things after two outstanding wins this track of late. He has come back big and strong after a spell and looks home for the money again. Happy Chappy has also impressed last couple of starts though seems below the class of Eridanus. A sound quinella bet. Of the rest Maheer Monarch is capable of placing.

Race Six

Bettor Abs

I Have A Dream

Hotinthecitytonite

Bettor Abs was impressive when chasing the smart Bettor Move It this track a couple of weeks ago. She had also looked quite smart at trials. Should go close off the nice draw. I Have A Dream may have done a little too much mid-race when fading late last time. Too good to drop. The Mike Berger-trained Loma Fay, and Hotinthecitytonite have already shown promise at the workouts.

Race Seven

Aslan

Spy

Cyclone Night

Aslan was quite brilliant in rating 1:56.9 (2200m) two starts back, then last of six starters in red-hot 4YO Futurity at Cambridge next time out. Looks the one back to this class. Spy won the Northland Cup in fine style early New Year, unsighted since. A genuine tough competitor with a chance as always. Cyclone Night was taken on in front, fought well last week. In great touch at present. Consider 4,7,9.

Race Eight

Devil Dodger

Imagine Me

Five Star Anvil

Devil Dodger showed his undeniable talent when too smart at Cambridge last start. Touted as a Derby prospect and he should have the measure of these if he is. Imagine Me returns off the spell, though was slick workout winner, home in 27.5. A smart mare. Five Star Anvil was too smart last time and though the second row is far from ideal, he should go very close again. Consider 1,5,8,9.

Race Nine

Regal Flyer

Cullens Crown

Atlas Alliance

Regal Flyer was rocky around last turn but he rallied well to run on again when a sound seventh last time to the races. This field is easier and he appears good bet. Cullens Crown has hit top form and is now consistently delivering. Big threat. Atlas Alliance who is always thereabouts, and Tosti Boy should give plenty of cheek.

Race Ten

Elsu Sheila

Buckland Belle

El De Rosa

Elsu Sheila showed good improvement second up off disappointing debut. Any further improvement and this talented filly should deliver. The opposition are strong, and of those Buckland Belle, El De Rosa, and Secret Smile may threaten. That trio all raced well last start. Eastwood Peal debuts in north after looking handy at times in the south and may show something.

Bondy outclasses in Hunter Cup

The plundering of Australia's greatest races by our Kiwi cousins continued at Moonee Valley's farewell meeting last night when Bondy led all the way to take out the $400,000 BIG6 Hunter Cup. Having watched both the Miracle Mile and SEW-Eurodrive Victoria Cup titles disappear across the ditch in recent months, punters were understandably wary of the old adage about things happening in threes. And they were right.

Backed from $5.50 into $4 on-course in the 3065-metre feature on the basis of his peerless standing start record and dominant victory in last week's Sky Racing Pure Steel, Bondy didn't let punters down.

"He did run a really good race at Ballarat and won really well and I was hoping that run last week would improve him but you just never know," trainer-driver David Butt said. "It obviously did improve him a bit more because he's gone even better tonight. It's great."

After stepping best of the front-line runners even though he played up at the start, Butt's son of Live Or Die was on top after less than 200 metres and from there he was always shaped as the most difficult to beat.

Running through a moderate lead time of 1:55, the eight-year-old gelding was able to gradually increase the tempo over the last mile recording splits of 30.6, 29.1 and 28.5 before exploding away from his rivals entering the straight in a final section of 28.5 to complete a 2:01.7 mile rate.

"I thought I was a big chance if I jumped first," Butt said. "He always plays up a bit but he normally begins well. As long as he faces the right way he gets away quite good."

That pressure came first from Victoria Cup winner Bettors Strike before a three-wide assault from noted stayer Smoken Up transformed the race into a genuine contest for the first time. But it was not to last.

"He did cop a bit of pressure so I was a little bit worried, but then they backed off," Butt said.

"Lance came out with a round to go and I thought I might be in a bit of trouble, but he kept going. I was just a bit worried about someone coming out of the pack but no one seemed to."

When Bondy kicked into high gear 200m out, the only legitimate challenge came from Karloo Mick ($9.40) who – after racing behind Bondy throughout – chased valiantly when extricated but failed by 2.9 metres.

Gun Western Australian, Im Themightyquinn ($6.60), was the hard-luck story of the race, flashing home to grab third, just 1.7m behind Karloo Mick, after coming from five-back the pegs turning for home.
