FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Hororata T.C. @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Barney Boy

Black Cracker

Juryman

Some nice maidens here. First starters Barney Boy and Black Cracker have impressed at workouts and trials. The former is usually quick out and a leader, and he's likely to adopt similar tactics here. Hard to beat. Black Cracker has an awkward draw to overcome but is above average. Forget Juryman went around at Ashburton, give another chance, he's smart. Chocolato and Two Twenty should figure.

Race Two

Paramount Geegee

Donaldson

Sastre

Paramount Geegee looks particularly smart. An impressive non-tote win double leading into this. Should win again. Donaldson ran well to win a Rangiora trial last Saturday, beating race rival Sastre who has also looked talented. Dolly Would was also a trial winner on Saturday. Bohemian and Contador others with talent.

Race Three

Spirit Of Speed

Boogie stom

Something

Spirit Of Speed pulled hard when bottled up on the inner and lacked that killer finish as a result when sixth at Waikouaiti. On workout form prior she's a great chance. Boogie stom has found form and deserves his turn. Something shows enough at workouts and trials to be a consideration on debut. Consider 2,4,7,10,13 in mix.

Race Four

Annihilator

Lucky Nova

Medora

Annihilator has promised winning form in recent starts and seems to strike the right field this time. A safe beginning will take him close to victory. Lucky Nova was superb last week, rattling home for second money. Good enough to overcome the handicap. Medora's win at Motukarara was no fluke, she has always had the ability. Hard to contain in that form. Tullyish an obvious include fresh up. Sun Of Loose is also racing well.

Race Five

Baudiene Christian

Artois

Bushfire

Baudiene Christian couldn't match Highview Tommy and Kotare Mach at the trials on Saturday, though it was a good blowout for him and he should be cherry ripe to attack this 1950m sprint. He'll be tough to peg back. Artois gets the draw and on his last run a definite win chance. Bushfire is struggling to grab that elusive win but gets another royal chance here. Consider Wonderful Tonight and Red Baron.

Race Six

Anvils Best Ever

Smokey Hobbs

Romulus

Anvils Best Ever trialed well, chasing Highview Tommy on Saturday. He looked sharp enough to return on a winning note in this company. Looks the one. Smokey Hobbs could be dangerous again if he leaps out and trails. A good win here last week. Romulus will have to try different tactics off the back row this time. Gifted a lovely trail last week and got the job done. Should go well. Consider 4,8,10.

Race Seven

Our Princess Royal

Anvil On Fire

Royal Cee Cee

Our Princess Royal hit a wheel and galloped at Ashburton, since a nice trials winner at Rangiora. This looks her chance to take the lead and control proceedings. Too smart on her best night. Anvil On Fire will provide stern opposition. Her last start second was outstanding, working hard. Genuine threat. Royal Cee Cee shows ability well above average and looks the sleeper off the back row. She is very fast. Consider 1,8,11.

Race Eight

Falcon Performer

Breeny's Luck

Banyula Fella

Drawing one behind the gate was perhaps not Falcon Performer's best place to be last start. I'd forget that and go on his previous runs. Better here from the standing start. Breeny's Luck was well over the odds at Waikouaiti, a ridiculous price. Better than most in this field, too. Banyula Fella and Borat have to rate off nice draws. In an open race consider 2,6,8,9,11.

Race Nine

My Man Dan

Lethal Rocket

J D Fortune

It is hard to go past My Man Dan, who easily accounted for the Waikouaiti Cup field last start after a superb Marlborough Cup win. He looks the winner again in this form. Stablemate Lethal Rocket was also very good last time, rattling into fourth after failing to get a cart into the race at the right time. J D Fortune has been costing a few a fortune, so can he reward them here? He can with a safe beginning. Maximillion trialed well on Saturday, and Bon Ton Boy will improve quickly off fresh up sixth.

Race Ten

Running On Time

Ella Powell

Keepyaguardup

Running On Time bounced back to his best form with a very easy win last week. Will continue that, he's a good horse. Ella Powell cost herself with an early break, a big run after in the same race last week. Go again on her. Moment Of Truth gets another chance and provides value. Keepyaguardup is due.

Race Eleven

Captain Peacock

Courage On Fire

Fuoco

Captain Peacock draws poorly but on the ability he's shown in a short career that just may not matter. A big chance despite having to work harder than he has in previous starts. Courage On Fire was hotly supported last start and was just adequate. Follow the smoke. Fuoco will likely go forward and could be hard to run down if he leads. Consider 1,5,10,11,12.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Auckland T.C. @ Alexandra Park

Race One

Gomeo Romeo

Imagine Me

Caroline's Cullen

Gomeo Romeo trialed like a winner when he ran down a tidy field at the Pukekohe workouts last week. Drawn to use early speed, and he looks a great bet. Imagine Me was very impressive winning fresh up this track, showing her class. Should be prominent again despite tricky draw. Caroline's Cullen kept the strong form going with super win last week. A must again. Consider 1,3,9.

Race Two

Hip Hop Anvil

Franco Hendrix

Sounds Alive

Hip Hop Anvil returns for a crack at the Woodlands Derby and therefore he should be ready to give this a real shake. Drawn to go forward, he may strike the front and would be hard to catch if he does. Not an easy race by any means, and Sounds Alive, a good thing beaten last week, and Franco Hendrix, who trialed smartly, are other top chances. Outside that trio consider 2,11,12, Bella Me best of those.

Race Three

Clean Cut

Chardanae

Manhattan Cruiser

Clean Cut brings sound and somewhat unlucky form north for in-form horseman Ken Barron. The last run at Addington was very unlucky. This horse should win quickly on the northern trip. Chardanae is better than most and drawing wide gate she's a nice chance here. Manhattan Cruiser lacked early speed last week and that was costly. Give another chance. Consider 2,6,7.

Race Four

De Lovely

Secret Potion

Matai Mies

De Lovely looked forward when far too good at Pukekohe workouts, winning easily. Draw looks good for her, and on class she's the one to beat. Secret Potion is likely to offer tough competition. Another smart win last time, she is drawn to jump and run. Kusadasi, although inferior to the other two, can get the right run from gate one so do consider her. Matai Mies, smart trialist, and Kotare Ash, unlucky last Fri, worth a look.

Race Five

Miss Elsie

Abide With Me

Collectable

Miss Elsie brilliantly won her debut and has since been super at the workouts. She looks the best of the 2yo fillies to date. Hard to beat. Abie With Me gets an advantage from better draw and will go forward and lead one would imagine. She's a winning chance. Collectable was super beating the maidens last week and must go close again. Consider 1 & 2.

Race Six

Makarewa Sun

Pocaro

Springfield Hero

Makarewa Sun would have won for fun had he got clear on the turn last week. Hard to go past him, he just flies around this track. Pocaro is the obvious pick on sheer class. Left on her own in Pukekohe workout and gained little benefit. Sure to be ready though. Springfield Hero went massive fresh up and not quite so good next time up. Freshened again and too good to dismiss. Consider 7,11,14.

Race Seven

Tintin In America

Raglan

Tennis Ball

Tintin In America is no doubt the fastest of these. A safe start and he can outspurt them but he's far from over the line. Raglan heads north with top form and a private reputation. He's targeted at the Auckland Cup even though only a six-winner. Here's his first test. Still Coughin and Tennis Ball could upset, both were in good form last week.

Race Eight

Bargain Basement

Scusi Doctor

Don Giovanni

Bargain Basement continues to race well and is just a safe start away from being very tough to beat in this field. He deserves his turn. Scusi Doctor was unable to hold out Emma Hamilton last week but still went a good race. Getting fitter with each run. Don Giovanni performed well at workouts on Saturday and should be considered a definite threat despite being wayward at times. Add 3,5,6,13.

Race Nine

Daniela Hantuchova

Secret Smile

Warp Speed

An even mob. Daniela Hantuchova led and won at the Pukekohe workouts and seems forward enough to give this a shake. Shows ability. Secret Smile has been going good races and strikes the right race for her this time. Must rate. Jillette and Warp Speed have drawn to be included in combos. Consider 7,9,11,12.

Race Ten

The Oyster Bar

McTaggart

Arjayem

Off second row draws possibly The Oyster Bar and McTaggart are our best. The former did a bit of work last time in a better field was quite good. McTaggart has had a couple of chances but worth another go. Arjayem trialed well and looks a threat, while 1,2,5,7,8 may be needed on that Pick6 ticket if you want a spread.

HARNESS RACING NEW ZEALAND PRESS RELEASE

23 February 2010

$1.7M ADDITIONAL DISTRIBUTION TO HARNESS CLUBS

1. In January the NZ Racing Board (NZRB) announced that an interim profit distribution of $6m would be made to the three racing codes. This is additional to the Board's annual funding commitment to the codes and reflects the positive financial result and operational efficiencies being achieved by the NZRB in the current season. Based on market share, the harness code will receive just in excess of $1.8m from this decision.
2. Harness racing currently applies a turnover based funding system. Given preliminary funding, projections from the NZRB for 2010/11, HRNZ has assurance that existing funding rates to clubs are sustainable. Accordingly HRNZ's Executive is keen to allocate our code's share of the interim profit distribution fully to clubs to alleviate some of the current financial pressures being experienced at the "coal face" of the industry. Accordingly a number of options to do this were explored at the Executive's meeting last week.
3. HRNZ is therefore pleased to advise that additional funding will be allocated to clubs on the following basis:
  - Every meeting in the 2009/10 season, with the exception of Tuesdays, is to receive an additional per meeting payment of $6,000 – estimated cost $1.47m
  - Funding off-course results over budget in the 2009/10 season offset against other meetings under budget - estimated cost of $0.242m
4. The rationale for excluding the Tuesday meetings from the per meeting distribution is that these meetings receive guaranteed funding under the code's funding policy. The "overs–unders" adjustment is to allow for the offsetting of over budget turnover results against other meetings for a club where turnover has not met budget in the season. This is all based on off-course turnover and is a performance based adjustment. Provision has been made for an estimated $100k to cover further "overs–unders" adjustments in the balance of the season. This then accounts for the full utilisation of the interim funding to be received from the NZRB.
5. The NZRB is projected to make the interim allocation to the code distribution accounts on 31 March. It is anticipated that the allocations to clubs in line with the formula outlined above will be made in early April. Attached is a schedule estimating what will be distributed on a per club basis.
6. Clubs have continued to experience the competitive challenges of the economy over the last year. In particular declining income through turnover and gaming has put increased pressure on clubs' ability to maintain stake levels. The allocation of this funding will help mitigate some of these financial pressures for the benefit of all industry participants.
7. HRNZ acknowledges the NZRB understanding of the increased financial demands facing the industry. The Board's vision and performance in making this increased funding available to the industry is appreciated and HRNZ extends its congratulations to the NZRB on this.
