Invercargill Cup contender Sleepy Tripp looked a lot more like his old self, at least once he wound into full pace over the final lap. A slick last half and quarter on a slightly "off" track. Crystal Star was third and up turn, a gallant try as always. Not so flash were Joyfuljoy, who trailed and faded, and My Man Dan who ran 27.9 from 800m to 400m, but battled on after. Hard to like Joyfuljoy at Invercargill on this effort, but who knows.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

The Fiery Ginga

Confused Superstar

Vulcan

The first of what is effectively a heat of the Trotting Derby next week. Standout horse is The Fiery Ginga, just a brave warrior and an amazing horse. Not the perfect drive last start, and that cost him victory. Hard to beat, obviously. Confused Superstar looked very sharp at the workouts on Saturday, parading in fine order. He's on the up. Vulcan a great chance off gate one, and filly Continental Auto has the class to test the boys.

Race Two

Arnoux

Gate Bender

Octavian

Arnoux did the job well off the second row at Ashburton to win, never an easy task. Now back in form he should back that with another win. Drawn to jump and lead. Gate Bender is racing well and shouldn't have to leave the marker line. A genuine threat here. Octavian is above-average, the Westport win last week outstanding. Don't discount. Consider 2,6,7.

Race Three

Shezoneoftheboyz

Chocolate Brownie

Rhythmic Sun

Shezoneoftheboyz led and bolted in last time when too smart in the Hambletonian at Ashburton. Priming for the Derby and Oaks over the next fortnight. Has to be very hard to beat. Chocolate Brownie won well here last start and is better than most in this field. Should go close. Rhythmic Sun galloped last time but is capable. Consider 4,10,11.

Race Four

Charge Forward

Red Ransom

Alta Ricardo

Charge Forward looked well above-average at trials in the north before a spectacular debut of sorts at Forbury. Should measure up to these despite the draw. Red Ransom ran impressive 56.7 last 800m on an off track at Motukarara workouts last Saturday, a huge run. Smart enough. Stablemates Alta Ricardo and The Muskeg Express trialed well last week and should run bold races. Consider 3,6,8,12.

Race Five

Musgrove

Lucky Nova

Beat The Monarch

Musgrove looks dangerous if he can strike the lead again here. Always tough to turn down, he should be considered a similar threat here. Lucky Nova flew, making up big ground from the turn when impressive winner last time out. Good enough to back that up. Beat The Monarch trialed well against the pacers and is consistent, a chance as always. Unique Star looked in need at the workouts, perhaps one away but is best on sheer class. Cilla's Earl is interesting runner. Was a battler here, flying in Australia.

Race Six

Anvil On Fire

Meredith Maguire

Royal Cee Cee

Anvil On Fire was bowled over in the early stages of the Northern Oaks, losing her chance. Super form prior to that. She's very classy and looks the one. Meredith Maguire will have plenty to say about that, however. Another gallant performance in the Northern Oaks, chasing Secret Potion. They stand out, with Royal Cee Cee and Our Princess Royal next best.

Race Seven

Fuoco

Tres Bien Franco

Justastorm

Fuoco didn't have all the luck in a better field last start. Likely to use early speed and get handy this time. He looks a good eachway chance. Tres Bien Franco won a trial at Rangiora last week and seemed in the right shape to also race well. Gets a barrier, too. Justastorm won a workout on Saturday and paraded in good order. He should be rather competitive. Consider 1,7,11,14 in all bets.

Race Eight

Sun Of Loose

Savona

Have Faith

Sun Of Loose won like a horse that has a few more up his sleeve when very dominant at Ashburton last time. Seems to be trotting well and he looks the one. Savona chased down all but Jumanji Franco at Ashburton. A genuine mare. Have Faith is better than her form reads and is fitter for the recent racing. Not to be discounted. Consider 6,8,11.

Race Nine

Rona Lorraine

Party Girl Becqui

Belle Eyre

Rona Lorraine was okay when fifth and not that far away in a fast mile at Ashburton when last produced. A genuine top mare when right, she can win this, but possibly needing to use early speed to gain an advantage. Wider out and Party Girl Becqui and Belle Eyre are in top form and in the right race for mares of their class. You'll need both in all bets. Consider 3,5,6,11 in multiples.

Race Ten

Franco Jamar

Romulus

Got It Seeled

Franco Jamar keeps winning, and though he was well and truly a class above them last time, this is tougher. Hard to contain on sheer class despite the draw. Falcon Performer keeps winning himself, showing high speed at the finish. No reason why four on end is out of the question. Romulus and Smooth Julius must rate off good draws, while Figo, luckless last two starts, and Got It Seeled, an impressive workout performer, are worth a look. Even Spero Denario can upset in a really good way to the finish the night.

Thames HRC. @ Alexandra Park SELECTIONS

Race One

Caroline's Cullen

Asafa Powell

Lord Federer

A tricky one to select, though on race form and assessment, Caroline's Cullen is the one they'll have to beat. Forget last start when luckless. She should go close. Asafa Powell was a big winner three back and did well when third on premier night last start. This is his go. Lord Federer has the form on the board, though Manawatu form of late. Stick with him nonetheless. Antares is a very talented horse but off the rails of late. May show something better. Consider 1,4,10.

Race Two

Idler

Grace Way

Artistic Rulz

Former top juvenile Idler returns after more than two years off the racetrack. He has been to the workouts and performed well. Probably in need but he is a classy horse in a weak race. Grace Way is racing very consistently and deserves her turn. Wide draw the issue, if any. Artistic Rulz is also racing well week in week out and should go well. Remington tackled premier company fresh up and should find this easier.

Race Three

Vokai

Toledo

Maheer Knight

Vokai is bred to run, a brother to smart pacer Marika. He won his qualifier nicely, and was to the fore with slick win at Saturday workouts at Cambridge. Will be well supported. Toledo resumes off a spell, should have won last campaign. Hard to beat. Maheer Knight impressed when qualifying back in January, a nice run from him. Looks the type to go boldly first up. Leonidas promises a win and may jump and run off a good draw. He's worth a bet. Consider 3,4,10.

Race Four

Clean Cut

Maheer Magic

Talaspring

Clean Cut had no luck though finished his race off with real purpose on premier night behind Stormy Sirocco last week. Deserves his turn on the trip north for Ken Barron. Maheer Magic met a far better field last week in tough premier company and was far from disgraced. Stick with her. Off the back row Fulla Luck and Talaspring are a bit better than most and should run well, though with work to do. An open event, and look to 2,3,6,12 in multiples.

Race Five

Wild Isis

Tuhimata Glass

Miami H

The three-year-olds may dominate here. Wild Isis and Tuhimata Glass are very talented stablemates possibly searching for good form to take to Addington for the Derby and Oaks over the next couple of weeks. Hard to split them with Wild Isis maybe the top tip on exposed form. Boizel and Miami H are other smart three-year-olds who have winning chances again after winning last start. Others to consider are 1,8,10.

Race Six

Indulge

Matai Mies

Flying Pocketlands

Indulge gets her chance to return to top form. Drops back from premier cards and meets easier company this time. Look past her form, this suits. Stablemate Matai Mies went a good race on the grass at Pukekohe and is also well-placed to improve her formline. Former top filly Flying Pocketlands seems to be struggling to recapture the form that bagged her much success as a 2yo. Don't give up just yet. Consider 2, & 10.

Race Seven

Jacuzzisuzzi

Eye Contact

Bettor Abs

Jacuzzisuzzi, a sister to Ambro The Thug and Matnamaras Band, has been to the fore at the workouts, showing good ability. A wide draw won't make it easy for her, but she should debut well. Eye Contact caught the eye when dashing home smartly behind top fillies last week, a huge effort. Only needs an ounce of luck in this race to shine. Bettor Abs ran out of puff final stage in the same race but should account for most of these despite the draw. Consider 1,5,7,11.

Race Eight

Fayanni

Isa Good Looking

Ima Gold Digger

Good mare Fayanni has struggled a bit against the big guns at the premier carnival. This drop back to an easier class should help her regain her best form. Undeniably the best here if she performs to her best. Isa Good Looking chased gamely behind Sno's Big Boy last week, a top run. Has to rate highly here. Ima Gold Digger was much better last week when third and should be prominent, too. Consider 2,8,13.

Race Nine

Wee Willam

Handy Knight

Colonel Pickering

Wee Willam is the highest assessed in the race and meets tougher opposition on a more regular basis as a result. This seems well within his range. Handy Knight had no real luck last start on the grass. No moral but a real danger with own rules in front. Colonel Pickering may be best of the rest in an uninspiring race.
