FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Wee Brother

Feels Like Magic

Te Kinga Boy

Wee Brother continues to race consistently and seems to suit standing starts. A good chance in an even field. Feels Like Magic returns after luckless Derby tilt at Auckland. Should find this easier. Te Kinga Boy was out late and a touch unlucky at Motukarara. Hard to catch if he gets running early. Tatoo races without luck but might find some at the right time for a premier stake. Consider 8,9,16,17,18.

Race Two

Romulus

Breath Of Life

Rangataua Ray

Romulus was allowed ridiculous early sectionals and therefore unbeatable a lap from home last week. Any repeat of that and he looks home again off the draw. Dustin Bromac has more gatespeed, but will he use it? Racing well. Breath Of Life has raced like a giant at times this term, others disappointing. Best version of her can win this. Rangataua Ray is a very classy horse resuming though extensively trialed. Should be ready. Consider 2,3,6,12.

Race Three

Jacquimo

The Tower

Sun Of Loose

Jacquimo regained winning form when too good on the grass at Motukarara. Very sound placings before that. Hard to beat once again. The Tower was a shade disappointing at Auckland, though better on the final night. Too good to dismiss. Sun Of Loose disappointed last week, give another chance on outstanding Ashburton win. Consider 2,3,15,17,18.

Race Four

Seshny Bromac

Kate Knows Best

Tres Bien Franco

Seshny Bromac is racing enormous, the last-start third in good company when far from disgraced. Should convert that into winning form. Numero Uno gets the draw and on her best night well-capable of using it. Kate Knows Best bolted in on Sunday and can repeat despite tricky draw. Stablemates Magical Topaz and Tres Bien Franco were both game last week, especially the latter. Don't run without them. Add 2 & 3.

Race Five

Hip Hop Anvil

Cracker Black

Limited Edition

Hip Hop Anvil never recovered after being bowled over in the Northern Derby. A huge run when placed in his heat a week earlier. Too classy for these, barring accidents. Cracker Black looks the big threat. His form is very good and he has that touch of class. Drawn well. Limited Edition can use a good draw to advantage so consider him in all bets. Add 2,7,8,15 in multiples.

Race Six

Shezoneoftheboyz

The Fiery Ginga

Kahdon

Shezoneoftheboyz again showed her class when leading and bolting in last week, though in much slower time that Kahdon who won the other heat. The former deserves favouritism having now beaten the colts twice and in impressive style. The Fiery Ginga faded on his run but still game in defeat last week. Drawn to lead at some stage and he must be hard to run down. Kahdon and Chocolate Brownie may be best of the rest, though the quality does not end there.

Race Seven

The Fed Express

Hostile Grins

Justastorm

The Fed Express tackled weak company on the West Coast and won twice in very easy fashion as his build up to premier racing. This much tougher, but he is flying. Hostile Grins just continues to impress though he will need luck this alley. Tough to beat if he gets off the markers. Justastorm bolted in last week after impressive workout win. Not finished yet. Arnoux is best in front and he handed up last week, a bizarre decision. May lead off gate three. Add 6,7,14,16.

Race Eight

Kotare Mach

Smiling Shard

Sir Lincoln

A great way to set the tone for next week's NZ Derby. Kotare Mach seems to have rediscovered his best form after a mixed summer campaign. Very easy win in deep south last time. He should lead here. Smiling Shard is a great little horse on the comeback after injury curtailed his Northern Derby campaign. Trialed well last week, though possibly in need of this outing. Sir Lincoln got a bug and that was less than helpful to his Northern Derby tilt. Should be a better horse now and his class is hard to go past. A strong top three with 1,2,6,7,8 all upset hopes.

Race Nine

Musgrove

Stylish Monarch

Running On Time

A good field, though hard to go past Musgrove who is right in the zone. A good front-running win last week. Tough to hold out once again. Stylish Monarch is a classy customer, freshened since last racing but has trialed. Expect a prominent effort. Running On Time has shown his real ability last couple. No reason why three on end cannot be achieved. Houdini Star races well fresh and can win with the right run. Consider 5,11,17,18.

Race TenBaileys Dream*Raglan*Bettor's Strike

Baileys Dream was gallant in the Auckland Cup, a huge run after backing up from a taxing Interdom campaign in Australia. Races well at Addington and he looks tough to bowl. Raglan was probably a bit stiff last start, wide and done by one that got a better run. He's due to win again. Bettor's Strike had no luck in the Auckland Cup, a mixed pace was his downfall. Class carries him a long way in this. 2,4,5,6 are all good enough to figure in the photo.

Race ElevenGalatos*Centreofattention*Smooth Julius

Galatos gets a good draw and that plays into his hands somewhat as he does like to lead. Hard to catch over the 1950m. Centreofattention, Smooth Julius, and Spero Denario have been given no favours with the draws, though classy trio who are more than a match for these. Early moves will be needed to get them into this, nonetheless. Anvils Best Ever may need a can opener to get a run from this draw but is good enough to win. Consider 4,8,12,13.

SATURDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Cambridge Te Awamutu @ Cambridge

SELECTIONS

Race One

Franco Hendrix

Galleons Honour

Burnaby Kan

Franco Hendrix was game in defeat when placed behind Stormy Sirocco on premier night when last produced. He looks to hold a class edge in this race. Galleons Honour was okay when well supported at Auckland last week, her first run in around 11 weeks. Could be quick improver. Hard to go past the form of Tiz A Falcon and Burnaby Kan, and they have to be considered in all combinations. Add 1 & 6.

Race Two

Supremacy

Tatum Franco

Corza Commotion

Supremacy was well-backed when a stout finisher at Auckland a couple of weeks ago, just failing to beat Balishka. Drawn to jump and run, she looks very hard to beat around this track. Tatum Franco may get a sweet run if Supremacy wishes to lead. Forget the latest run, her overall form is good, including a win here. Corza Commotion was in top form winning both nights at Manawatu and should not find this too tough. Add 3,5,11,12,13 if going wider.

Race Three

Ohoka's Roman

Leonidas

Falcon J D

Debut runner Ohoka's Roman has been beaten in two trials, though he looked a nice type on both occasions. A perfect draw around Cambridge, and he looks capable of claiming a win first time out. Leonidas showed better form last week in a better field. Ready to strike winning form. Falcon J D an obvious choice on good placings last couple. Consider 3,4,9,13 in multiple bets.

Race Four

Major Mark

Jarcullembra

Thumpem

Major Mark bounced back to best form with an easy win on premier night at Auckland, bettering two mixed efforts when defeated. Should lead and win. Jarcullembra raced greenly but really impressed when fourth in the same race, a super effort. He should be right in the mix. Obviously 6 & 8 are realistic chances, with Bettor Party, a debut runner, one to watch after some slick trials.

Race Five

Doctor Kovac

Don Chiola

Flex

Doctor Kovac got home smartly in a stronger field at Auckland last week. This looks very suitable for him on the home track. Very hard to hold out. Don Chiola also drops back from a race he couldn't win last week, to this. Genuine threat. Flex was stronger to the finish last start and getting better with the racing. Looks a definite threat. Consider 2,10,11,12,13.

Race Six

De Lovely

Lancome

Flying Pocketlands

Top filly De Lovely had to bow to Secret Potion in the big fillies races at Alex Park. The last time she visited this track she blew them away with a brilliant sprint. Can return to winning form despite the wide draw. Lancome was possibly off colour when a dismal failure in the Northern Oaks. Should be right again, wouldn't be here if she wasn't. Draw goes her way. 1,5,8,9 can all figure prominently.

Race Seven

Manotick Express

Thomas Maguire

Mister Croker

Manotick Express paid overs when he grabbed a deadheat win at Auckland last week, coming with a very spirited finish. Unplaced in lone standing start attempt, but stick with him, he is in good form. Thomas Maguire comes into this okay off 30m as they are not a strong bunch up front. Can roll past most of these. If caught in the mood Mister Croker and Mythology are capable. Consider 9,10,11.

Race Eight

Remington

Noble Norm

The Guardian

Remington pushed them over the line at Auckland last week when very unlucky in a stronger field. A wide draw is no help here, but he does look a capable type. Noble Norm has beaten better fields and should be prominent. The last couple have been solid. The Guardian was unlucky not to win at Manawatu and can grab one on the home track. Consider 2,5,13.

Race Nine

Lifeoftheparty

Chas Luney

Me And Kel

Lifeoftheparty is better than these, but are his manners? Has to trot early, if he does he will have most in trouble. Chas Luney is luxuriously placed as a $3500 claimer. Undeniably quick if given the right trip. Me And Kel and Ellevenfiftyseven are both capable of winning with good starts off front limit. Consider 3 & 6.

Race Ten

Eye Contact

Secret Smile

Kathleen Turner

Eye Contact got home smartly in a top class field last time. She has shown more than enough ability to win a race like this. Draw shouldn't be an issue. Secret Smile deserves her turn and gets every chance off a good draw. Loma Fay looks above average and should run well on her home track. Kathleen Turner could upset, worked overtime on debut and appears to have some ability.
