FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Reefton T.C. @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Sary Hanover

Sonnetsson

OI Man River

A wide open event to start the night. Sary Hanover has performed well last few starts, a good thing beaten two back on this track. Gets top vote for consistency. Sonnetsson drew the back row, did well in tight finish at Motukarara. Expect bold showing. OI Man River could be better suited off stand start, latest form is rather solid. Consider 2,10,12,14.

Race Two

Ultimate Player

Barney Boy

Sea Storm

Ultimate Player returns off a spell, though workout form has been good, including a very easy and dominating win on Saturday. Best horse in the race. Barney Boy was a big flop when he debuted. His trial form had been outstanding. Don't drop him by any means. Sea Storm is a nice 2yo back to maidens and he should appreciate that. Should measure up. Kerry Skipper caught the eye at the workouts. Consider 2,5,11.

Race Three

Gimli

Continental Auto

Rhythmic Sun

Gimli, a horse above-average, returns to the track after some encouraging workout form, leading and winning at Addington on Monday. Just the type to go boldly first up. Continental Auto ran a nice race in the Oaks, a solid finish for third. Classier than most if she can hold the form. Rhythmic Sun went a big race last week and only needs to trot early to be prominent. Add 3,4,7,9,16. All capable.

Race Four

Code Red

Feels Like Magic

Mick Ison

Code Red cops a barrier over 1950m and he'll take some stopping. Should lead or trail and get every chance. Feels Like Magic was a bit disappointing last week though slow away. Wide draw may not be insurmountable. Mick Ison has shown signs of a return to form and should race well. Consider 9,10,12,14.

Race Five

Marissima

Ashley Cullen

Jesala

Marissima looked the goods last season and she should resume on a winning note here. Good efforts at recent workouts and she is fit and ready. Saturday's win was easy at workouts. Ashley Cullen was game in defeat, run down late at Motukarara. Hard to go past her form. Jesala broke from a stand at Motukarara, give another chance, workout form was good. Add 8,3,14, with Esprit Jaccka a place hope off good workout run.

Race Six

Springbank Sam

The Blazing Conman

Latheronwheel

Springbank Sam chased gamely, unable to reel in the very smart Paramount Geegee at Ashburton last time. On his debut win it will take a good performance to beat him. The Blazing Conman is a tidy wee trotter going well. Should be included in all multiples. Dolly Would, Latheronwheel, and Uramao for multiple takers.

Race Seven

OK Courage

Party Girl Becqui

Still Coughin

OK Courage broke and lost his chance when expected to win last week off a long spell. Not likely to do that again, and he should win if he can find the lead. Party Girl Becqui continues to race well, and without luck at times. Has the speed to get handy early. Still Coughin was a good thing beaten last week and will give these a real fight. Got It Seeled and Hunter The Punter worth adding at big odds.

Race Eight

Franco Emirate

Strawbs Fire Chip

Mels Dream

Franco Emirate showed huge ability at trials before winning debut. Since joined Jim Curtin's stable and is undoubtedly the one to beat. His workout win in 2:28.5 (2000m) was brilliant. Strawbs Fire Chip ran 56.0 last 800m to win at Marlborough trials over the weekend. Barrier one a real plus for him, he'll take some stopping. Mels Dream is flying and a realistic threat to the top two despite the draw. Add 4,12,13 to place.

Race Nine

Hour Of Power

Caesarion

Rurik

Hour Of Power may have lacked the final punch at Motukarara but was still close up at the finish. That followed slick trial. Stick with him back on the grit. Caesarion has broken in two stand-start attempts, but better at the trials. Very capable with safe start. Rurik was stiff not to win at Motukarara and could go one better, has been a bit unlucky this campaign. Consider 2,4,5,17.

Race Ten

Chocolatto

Marvin Bailey

Aguilera

Chocolatto is racing really well in probably stronger fields than this, beaten close up behind Mels Dream, Arnoux, and March Banner. Drawn to use early speed and lead, he looks very hard to catch. Marvin Bailey the obvious danger. His form is sound and is yet to go a bad one. Not likely to happen here. Aguilera was a good thing beaten last week and is ready to strike, she is well above average. Tauber ran a bold third two starts back and since handy again. Appreciates lesser race here.

Race ElevenProud Monarch*Ugly Betty*Tehoro Bliss

Proud Monarch trialed pretty good when run down late by the talented Dixie Commando at the Ashburton trials a couple of weeks ago. Out of a top stable and he should go boldly on debut. Ugly Betty drops back from the Oaks and should find this opposition easier. Stabmates Tehoro Bliss and Tehoro Grace can both trot, and likely to run well with safe starts. Add 7,10,14,15.

Race TwelveLosta Armbro*Jellignite*Tintara Prince

Losta Armbro failed to handle the tight Forbury Park track when he galloped his way around on debut. Huge trial form leading. Expect much better this time. Jellignite looked good in a workout this track then super at Ashburton trials, just nabbed by Sapling Stakes winner Terror To Love. Big chance first up. The rest may struggle to beat that pair, with 1,5,9,11,15 for multiples.

SATURDAY HARNESS

Winton HRC @ Central Southland Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Sonofanearl

Motu Young Jacob

Lady Eskay

Sonofanearl is a talented young trotter tackling much easier company after being beaten in the Trotting Derby last start. Capable of taking this. Motu Young Jacob should appreciate the mobile start and looks ready to regain winning form. Lady Eskay should also like moving start and fitter for recent racing. Add 1,6,11.

Race Two

Turbine

Lovencourage

Carnaby Bromac

Turbine showed extreme ability last time in at trials then failed on debut. Back bigger and stronger this campaign and ready to win first up. Lovencourage has joined Phil Williamson's stable and is going well at trials. Should be right in the finish. Carnaby Bromac's trial form is better than race form but give him a sound upset chance if he can convert trial day efforts. One Lane Bridge no luck in two starts to date. Consider 3,5,10.

Race Three

Captain Peacock

Motu Crusader

Elmer Fudd

Derby winner Captain Peacock should win this, though it is not a poor field by any means. He got the trip to win the Derby but did do it very easily. An anchor. Motu Crusader also contested the Derby and came through with some credit, a good run. He looks the main danger, with 3,5,7 to fight out third.

Race Four

Limited Edition

Outa The Frypan

Pele

Limited Edition travels south for Nigel McGrath and he gets the plum draw to work from. Able to use early speed, he looks very hard to beat whether leading or trailing. Outa The Frypan therefore becomes a player following him from one on the second row. A trifecta must. Pele wobbled around the last bends at Forbury and hated the track last start so forgive him. On previous runs he looked capable. Consider 3,6,12,16.

Race Five

Earl's Son

Geena's Star

Sunnivue Ted

Over 2400m if someone steps and runs the handicapped lot could be in strife. Earls Son was impressive when even looking as though he's improve with the run last week. Any better than he was and he will be very tough to beat. Geena's Star didn't trot well last time but give another chance, much better than that. Sunnivue Ted got home well last week, should win again at short notice. An open lot with 3,11,13,15,17 very capable.

Race Six

Montecrengle

Churchill Bromac

Ringwraith

First starter Montecrengle has shown raw ability at trials for trainer Lauren Pearson, able to reel off some very nice sectionals at times. A winning debut seems likely if he can reproduce that form. Churchill Bromac went quite well last week and might be happier one off the fence this time. He's ready to strike. Ringwraith has always shown some ability, should run well fresh. Oigoldnblack wasn't too bad on debut. Consider 4,7,9.

Race Seven

McBeths Boy

Von Regal

Art Beat

McBeths Boy showed his best form when chasing well into third money at Addington last Friday night. On ability a bit too good despite having work to do off the unruly. Von Regal was dashing late, shade unlucky when fourth behind Anvil On Fire last week. Very smart filly with a realistic chance. Art Beat continues to take the step up when required and should run well again. Add 1,8,9,10.

Race Eight

J D Fortune

Lord Forbes

Rakarebel

J D Fortune has promised a win but yet to deliver it in recent times. A massive run two starts back when second. Needs to step well, but 3200m is tops and he is the one to beat. Lord Forbes also loves the 3200m, with a staggering 3:58 time to his credit. The 40m handicap is tough, but he is too. Tact Lizzie shares the 40m line and has a big task but we all know how good she can be. Consider 4,9,11,13.

Race Nine

Kate Knows Best

Bubba Ho Tep

Laughing Lilly

Canterbury mares Kate Knows Best and Bubba Ho Tep look hard to contain. The former was super in winning at Addington on premier night, and the latter unlucky not to win at Invercargill last week. Big chances here, with 5,9,11,13 the threats.

Race Ten

The Showman

Finbar Abbey

Franco Nick Nack

Both The Showman and Finbar Abbey have probably promised a lot more than they have actually delivered. No denying their talent when caught in the mood. The former trialed well and looks ready to go boldly fresh up, and his draw should help. Finbar Abbey is a tough type needing a hot speed to show his best. Franco Nick Nack rises to the occasion and did again last week, he can't be counted out. Add 5 & 6.

Race Eleven

Aziza

Donna's X Factor

Smile With Me

Aziza is overdue a win for Terry Chmiel, her four runs to date all good, surprising she hasn't won. That may come this time, though no moral off wide draw over a mile. A real even bunch behind her, with Donna's X Factor a threat off inside alley, good run last week, and Smile With Me a chance with ounce of luck off draw. Consider 2,7,8,15.
