FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Kumeu T.C. @ Alexandra Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Sloane Square has also accepted at Addington, Saturday. If this path is taken then she'll be very hard to beat. Should have won last week, never clear. Her stablemate Franco Hendrix may have found the right race here, not the draw. Add him at odds. Talaspring is going big races in better fields and deserves reward. Add 1,3,8.

Race Two

Imagine Me had no luck last week when hotly supported, late clear and running on into third. Drawn to get a good run and will take beating. Red Zone ran 56 last 800m at workouts here on Saturday. He is a natural leader drawn to get running. Could win. Attention Seeker gained overdue win last week and can back that with another. Add 2 & 7.

Race Three

Sunlaw looks well placed behind the mobile gate. A genuine free-goer, he could slide forward and lead here. Hard to beat over 2200m if he does. Medora has met better fields of late and is drawn to be very prominent. McCready will need ounce of luck off draw but worthy of consideration. Add 2,5,15,16.

Race Four

Unleash The Fury went a good race but was just no chance of making ground in a hot field last week. Some tidy form of late, and she looks a sound eachway bet at good odds here. Liston possibly had his chance as favourite last time but did try hard. He should give account. Reklaw's Boy is going well without luck and can surprise at better odds. An open race and most have some chance.

Race Five

Drawing the back row hasn't helped Bella Me a few times lately, nor the very tough opposition. This seems a genuine drop in grade. Should take advantage. Fulla Luck is a nice horse always with tote support. He too seems well-placed to improve the form. Three Wishes is due a return to winning form herself and gets her chance off the ace. Absolute bolter Alhambra Rocket, no luck last Tuesday.

Race Six

Pasi resumed with a tidy placing and you would only expect further improvement out of that run. A class trotter when right, he looks the one to beat here. Ima Gold Digger may be 40m behind but he did a grand job off handicap last week in better field. Can't run without him. Special Sun won in Tuesday company but was no fluke, he could be coming back to top form. Again an open race, consider 2,4,7,10,11.

Race Seven

Messenger winner Tintin In America should be too smart despite the 40m handicap. He would have to miss away to lose this one would think. In the zone at the moment. Vi Et Animo has gone some very good races at Alex Park and is yet to taste reward. This looks his chance to pay for the trip. Percy The Punter was scratched last week. Recent form better and he should place. Highview Tommy went better in Messenger.

Race Eight

Top 3yo Sir Lincoln returns to the track as preparations gather for the Harness Jewels. Looks too good for these of the real one turns up. Perfect Cullen sat in the breeze and won like a Cup horse last week. He doesn't often run two alike, but on that effort very, very hard to beat. Dash should run on the pace and place.

Race Nine

A massive debut from Runninoutdreams at Cambridge, run down late after super-confident drive. A little more conservative early and he should get the money. Praze And Beeble galloped first turn last week, out of it after. Give another chance. Arma Tom is racing well and though needing luck off the draw he can win. Wide open event, add 1,2,3,4,14.

Race Ten

Grinforme was narrowly defeated in Tuesday company but looked Friday night horse in doing it. Drawn to win. Kelly Maguire has had a chance or two but has trialed well recently and can improve her form this time around. Taffeta Bromac is so consistent and may try a lead-trail with stablemate Grinforme. Consider 2,8,13.

SATURDAY HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

King Charlie

Moment Of Truth

Beat The Monarch

King Charlie picks himself. Two wins off a lengthy break have been very comfortable. The stable is flying, having won nine races in last three visits to races. Should keep punters happy. Moment Of Truth showed better form when placing at Rangiora. Vatuvei and Beat The Monarch are knocking on the door. Consider 2,5,12.

Race Two

Ohoka's Bondy

Gold Ace

Mabrook

Ohoka's Bondy has the experience on his side, maybe not the barrier draw. A tidy finish at the trials last week, looking fit. He's ready to run. Gold Ace gets a good draw and if he can use it will be very prominent. His form is a little better than it reads. Mabrook and Bledisloe are trial performers with a sound chance.

Race Three

Sloane Square

Ask McArdle

Flying Pocketlands

Sloane Square may rightfully be considered a perennial non-winner but she's much better than that. Should have won twice in her last three starts. Not a strong field and she's looking a great bet. Southland filly Ask McArdle should also appreciate the drop in class and is better than most. Flying Pocketlands has shown improved form in the north and will be warmly supported off the ace draw. Consider 3,11.

Race Four

Charlie Wright

Joshua Mac

Code Red

Charlie Wright resumed with a very tidy placing at Rangiora last Sunday off a bad draw. He has class on his side and with further improvement will take plenty of beating. Talented 3yo's Code Red and Joshua Mac are serious chances, though stand-start may trick them. Hard to catch if they step. Dundee Three is flying, huge Rangiora win. Consider 1,12,13,14.

Race Five

Sun Lad

Jacquimo

James' Jazzmine

Some mixed form here. Possibly Sun Lad a fair bet fresh up. He's looked pretty good at workouts and trials and though maybe needing one he does seem to be in the right race. Give Jacquimo another chance. Run of his feet when working wide at Rangiora, better here. Berkshire Son and James' Jazzmine will have their admirers. Add 3,6,9,12,18.

Race Six

Still Coughin

Kotare Mach

Rangataua Ray

A little difficult to label either Kotare Mach or Anvils Best Ever given neither has contested a standing start ever. Clearly very hard to beat if they step well as they are the best in the race, but there is no evidence to suggest they will or won't behave early. Still Coughin who was unlucky at Rangiora, and Rangataua Ray who beat him home, look the main threats. Consider 5 & 14.

Race Seven

Secret Potion

Lancome

Anvil On Fire

Mark Purdon and Gran Payne obviously hold the key with five runners engaged. Secret Potion and Lancome are possibly the best of those. Lancome had a priming run at Auckland last week and should be fitter. Meredith Maguire performed dismally at the trials but must have had an excuse. Stick with her. Anvil On Fire must be added out of red-hot stable, and 4 & 5 are of top quality, too.

Race Eight

Paramount Geegee

Springbank Sam

Dolly Would

Paramount Geegee will be favoured to keep the winning run intact. He gamely overcame a slightly interrupted run last time to get up and win. His greatest danger is Springbank Sam who flew home in the same race for fourth after an early mistake. They look head and shoulders the best. Add 1,3,5 to place.

Race Nine

Major Mark

Cullen Bromac

Le Sol

All over ? Probably likely given Major Mark had to draw a fair bit worse than this to be in trouble. He comfortably won a trial here last week and did it with ease. Should be a formality. Aussie visitor, Kiwi-bred Cullen Bromac has impressed in Victoria, unbeaten in five. Rated 2:00.0 to win over 2240 at Shepparton on May 1 before travelling across. Draw is an issue. A host of place chances, with 1,4,8,13,15 best of rest.

Race Ten

Bettor's Strike

Baileys Dream

Beaudiene Bad Babe

Impossible to go past Bettor's Strike and Baileys Dream after they ran 3:11 (2600m stand) at Rangiora last Sunday. Back to FFA conditions they're unbeatable if the same horses turn up to play. Beaudiene Bad Babe is a brilliant mare and she's going great guns. Draw against but good enough to overcome it. Consider 2,5,6,8.

Race Eleven

Russley Rascal

Beaudiene Christian

Van Washing Man

Northern Derby winner Russley Rascal should have won the NZ Derby too. He lost a handy spot and zoomed home an unlucky third. Since a lovely trial on this track, flying home. Looks too smart. Beaudiene Christian is going like Phar Lap in fast forward mode. The barrier draw is the issue, but on the last two runs anything seems possible. Van Washing Man and Move Over rate upset chances.

Rowe Cup Night Harness Wagering Report

We opened the four Group 1 races at the Rowe Cup meeting on Wednesday morning and all of those events were won by the favourites.

Race 1: Devil Dodger opened & closed $2.80 (tote $2.60)

Punters got off to a great start with the favourite winning by a neck over our worst result Mach Banner ($5.50). We won on the winner which was surprising as he's usually a bad result for the 'book' but he was easily the best backed in multi-wagers. The late money came for Mach Banner (2nd).

Race 2: Ima Gold Digger opened $26 & closed $26 (tote $18)

We took a $500 wager on the winner on opening at $26 but all the late money came for the favourite Dr Hook ($2.10 - $2.00). We lost a small amount on the winner but the nose margin was a huge turnaround for the 'book' in relation to multi-wagering.

Race 3: Bettor Cover Lover opened $3.00 & closed $2.20 (tote $2.50)

The favourite won and was our worst result with the majority of late money coming for her. The third placed runner Paradise City a $10 chance was the next best backed runner.

Race 4: Supremacy opened $4.00 & closed $3.50 (tote $3.30)

The favourite took this race out and although she is usually well backed she only closed as a small losing result which was a surprise given the $4.00 opening odds. The late mover was for the second placed runner Anvil's Never Easy ($9.00 - $6.00). Tala Spring (4th) was the best backed runner in the morning.

Race 5: Tintin In America opened $4.20 & closed $3.50 (tote $3.50)

The late money came for the winner but it was a good trading race and we closed the 'book' only losing a small amount. Romulus (10th) was the best backed runner in double figure odds.

Race 6: Perfect Cullen opened $9.00 & closed $10 (tote $10.50)

The favourite Imagine Me opened at $2.60 and closed at $1.70 and was easily the best backed runner. The winner was a big result in single wagering but one customer had a good multi return finishing on him and overall we ended up breaking even on the race.

Race 7: Kahdon opened $2.50 & closed $2.10 (tote $2.00)

The late money came for Shezoneoftheboyz (6th) and Emma Hamilton (4th) with the winner closing a small losing result but he was another runner on the night that was heavily backed in multi-wagers.

Race 8: Sundon's Gift opened $3.80 & closed $2.20 (tote $2.30)

We opened the Australian trained winner at good odds on Wednesday but he wasn't wanted in early trading with most of the money coming for I Can Doosit (5th). The late money did come for the winner on the tote but when it arrived we had him at around $2.40 and he closed only a small losing result. Our worst result was I Can Doosit.

Race 9: Attention Seeker opened $14 & closed $18 (tote $26)

The first bet in on the race was $500 on the winner but all the late money came for the favourite Ultimate Player ($1.50). Sloane Square (4th) was also well backed opening at $11 and closing at $6.50.

Race 10: Harrison Maguire opened at $1.60 & closed $1/40 (tote $1.40)

One of the first bets in at 9:00am was $9,000 at $1.60 on the winner. We thought the winner was the good thing for the night but unfortunately so did most of our customers and he closed as our worst result on the night. With such a short priced favourite it was hard going laying any other runner.

With seven favourites winning on the night we managed to contain any damage and ended up only down slightly on the night but if Dr Hook ($1.80) had won instead of finishing second by a nose we would have lost heavily on the night.
