THURSDAY HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Miss Elsie

Lachlan Jack

Alchemy

Miss Elsie is on her way to the Harness Jewels. She hasn't raced since March 12, but was a very impressive workout winner at Rangiora last Saturday. Not likely to be over-driven on the eve of the Jewels, but class carries her a long way. Lachlan Jack has found much better and now fulfilling early promise. Stick with him. San Fran Lady and Alchemy are possibly next best, with 1,7,10,11,13 all worthy of consideration.

Race Two

Banyula Fella

Borat

Dundee Three

Quick beginnings required, though Banyula Fella and Borat look well-placed if they can jump and run early. Both racing well, and genuine chances in an even field. Dundee Three again draws poorly. He did well off a similar draw last week and is no forlorn hope here. Sunglasses N Cigars impressed when winning debut. Consider 5,8,12,14.

Race Three

Ashley Cullen

Esprit Jaccka

Let's Go Cullen

Ashley Cullen was beaten a small nose when she looked home at Timaru last time, continuing a grand run of placed form. The elusive win should come, though this is a handy field. Those standing in her way are Esprit Jaccka, who went super last time in stronger field and is drawn to get a big cheque. Let's Go Cullen chased a smarty in Carabella at Oamaru – can go one better. Add 1,6,10.

Race Four

Reggie Royale

Majestic Cullen

D'Amore's First

Reggie Royale looks that bit above average at trials and should compete strongly on debut. A nice type. As is Majestic Cullen who is completely luckless in three starts to date and should improve the formline this time around. Stablemates Dance Band and D'Amore's First should be considered top contenders as every horse in the team is flying. Consider 1,5,7.

Race Five

Westmelton Willie

Gimli

In Like Magic

Westmelton Willie has trotted very impressively at recent trials, looking fit to resume. Can be touchy early, but if he gets underway they'll know he's there. Gimli tried hard last week and is a must in multiples again, while In Like Magic was driven upside down at Oamaru and can improve quickly with conservative drive. Consider 5,6,9,10,14.

Race Six

Wicklow

Our Mr Darcy

Seefeel Pocket

Expecting a better run from Wicklow who was checked at Timaru fresh up and battled on wide in the straight. A bit better than most of these. Our Mr Darcy looked forward at recent workouts and is a horse with some talent. Should go boldly fresh. Seefeel Pocket is a nice type who ran well at workouts, keep safe in this field. Consider Esprit Jaccka strongly if she races here as opposed to earlier race. Add 2,5,10.

Race Seven

Holme Grown

Figo

Live Lea

A tricky one given most are in average form. Holme Grown worked a bit too hard on a very fast cip when chasing Beaudiene Christian here last week. Prior workout run was very good. Give another chance. Figo is going okay in better fields and due some reward, while Live Lea can keep her run going, that Oamaru win last Sunday very sound. All have some chance in this.

Race Eight

Touch Of Rose

A Legend

Tres Bien Franco

Touch Of Rose was unlucky not to win three back, and since unplaced in Nevele R Final and NZ Oaks. Hard to beat dropping to this class. There seems to be two versions of A Legend. If the real one turns up she looks very hard to beat off a lovely draw. Tres Bien Franco also drops back from the NZ Oaks, and Together Again has been racing well, has some chance. Consider 1 & 13.

Race Nine

Native's Brite Spark

Tehoro Bliss

Sunbrite

Much more like it from Native's Brite Spark at Oamaru when placing behind Another Player. Broke badly on debut. Safe start and she's in business. Tehoro Bliss went a sound race when fourth in same Oamaru event and she is closing in on worthwhile form herself. Sunbrite is handy and a trifecta must, along with 3,8,10,14.

Race Ten

Franco Emirate

Mach Banner

Isinbayeva

Franco Emirate continued the grand run of form in bolting home here last week, showing them no mercy in the run home. Wide draw shouldn't stop him, maybe only Mach Banner capable of stopping the winning run. The latter is a classy horse who seems the logical quinella bet. Isinbayeva flew late in improved showing last start and must be considered. Add 4 & 11.

THURSDAY HARNESS

Cambridge Te Awamutu @ Cambridge Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

McAmber

Precious Mach

Dreamy Lover

McAmber looked rather tidy when she qualified at Pukekohe last week. Out of a top stable and likely to go boldly. Dreamy Lover went a big race fresh up and despite tricky draw can figure. Precious Mach has looked a speedy filly at trials and workouts. Another good run here on Saturday. McRacky is better for two races, both handy without being super. Can improve the form in adequate field. Consider 1 & 5.

Race Two

Navarra Franco

Woodlea Warrior

Tatum Franco

Navarra Franco never looked happy when going right-handed at Alex Park last time, pacing quite badly on the bends. Much better left-handed, her trial at Ashburton prior to Auckland failure very smart. Big hope off the ace. Woodlea Warrior many get a nice run following her, and is a handy horse with last run at them. Bucks Back, and Tatum Franco have drawn poorly but both capable of testing this field. Consider 5,6,10.

Race Three

Can't See A Thing

Deimos

Heza Holmes

A bold run from Can't See A Thing at Alex Park last time out when over the odds. This is a handy horse. He's tough and the 2700m will suit. Hard to beat. Deimos had little luck last time, may roll forward and try and lead this time once they settle. Definitely good enough. Heza Holmes is consistent though not brilliant, always a threat, as are 8,10,11,13,14 who can add value in trifecta.

Race Four

Franco Jamar

Sir Lincoln

Romulus

Franco Jamar readies for the Harness Jewels with this blowout. He was very good in winning the Southern Supremacy at Invercargill. A classy horse drawn to jump and get the best run. Sir Lincoln is the obvious threat and likely leader. You would expect Franco Jamar to trail him and they should quinnella the event. Classy sorts to chase them home, including 7,9,10,11. Strike Up The Band went 2:41 at workouts and may try and lead and run like mad as he did there.

Race Five

Gomeo Romeo

Franco Hendrix

Vinnie Barbarino

Stablemates Franco Hendrix and Gomeo Romeo drop well back out of top 3yo company to this moderate event and should be too good as a result. Gomeo Romeo may be the better of the two horses and we'll opt for him just in front. For third try 1,4,5,6,7.

Race Six

Flyin Along

Dustin Bromac

Sunnivue Caesar

A tough one. Flyin Along races well in these types of events and dropping from a tougher Alex Park race last time he may appreciate the easier company. Worth a bet. Dustin Bromac is better suited to this than earlier race, despite 50m handicap. Can figure if this option taken. Sunnivue Caesar is a bit of a Jewels surprise package. Flying in deeper South Island, interesting to see how he goes here. McKellar can't be counted out after top run last start.

Race Seven

Beaudiene Bad Babe

Indrah

Crystal Star

Beaudiene Bad Babe is the Jewels favourite and the logical favourite to win this. But will it happen? Not likely to go forward off the draw, this smells of a somewhat tricky race for her to win. Definite top tip, but wary of how the race will be run. Indrah bounced back to top form last start and since a brilliant performer at Pukekohe workouts in slick sections. Will be punted. Telemecanique and Crystal Star are must-haves.

Race Eight

Count Malabar

Cynisca

Eyes The Man

The handicapped runners look to have the edge, though never too easy off 30m over 200m. Count Malabar a fast local with handy C1 form looks the one to beat, alongside fellow local Cynisca who is also talented and has more wins in store. Liking one of that pair to win, while Eyes The Man must rate after strong Alex Park win last week. 2 & 4 are worthy of a ticket if going wider.

Race Nine

Gangala

Major Nimbus

Takeover Brown

Gangala couldn't win in two starts last campaign but looked stronger when prominent finisher at recent Pukekohe workouts. Drawn to go boldly. Major Nimbus had a gallop before gate left when he debuted. Give another chance off nice draw. Takeover Brown looks handy at trials and is out of in-form stable. Touchtheclouds and Regal Encounter are worth including.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Franklin T.C. @ Alexandra Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Paradise City

Sloane Square

Bettor Move It

Smart juvenile filly Paradise City takes her final step before the Harness Jewels. Off gate one she should secure a lovely run. Looks a sound bet. Sloane Square has been hinting at a win for some time. Racing without a lot of luck, she could get her reward here. Bettor Move It rated 1:55 in a staggering performance when beaten last time by Bettor Cover Lover. Big chance on that. Add 8.

Race Two

Tiger Cher

Grinforme

Victoria Chapel

Tiger Cher had no joy fresh up but should get her opportunity this time off a handy barrier. Nice type, overdue the maiden victory. Grinforme lost her place and did make solid ground up from the 400m when last-start fourth. A nice debut second. Eachway hope. Open race with 1,6,9 worth including.

Race Three

Scusi Doctor

Going Commando

Illuminati

Scusi Doctor keeps racing consistently well. A sound effort when third behind Don Giovanni last time. Always an eachway hope in this type of race. Going Commando sat outside the speed last 800m and was gallant in narrow defeat here last week. A repeat of that takes him close to victory. Illuminati's win along the passing cannot be overlooked as a fluke and he could back up and win again. Consider 6,7,9,14.

Race Four

Malak Uswaad

Pacific Warrior

Kurahaupo Quin

Malak Uswaad has shown above-average ability at workouts and trials in Canterbury and chooses this track to debut on in preparation for rich Northern Hemisphere race. Bright chance off the ace. Pacific Warrior was beaten by a nice one when qualifying and is well worth a second glance on debut. Kurahaupo Quin is bred to run and a trial winner in moderate time. Workout win here Sat. Stable has them ready. Consider 3,7,10,13.

Race Five

Toledo

Lord Federer

Anvils Never Easy

Toledo stands out in this line up. Form overall is very strong and it did take Attention Seeker the length of the straight o beat him a nose on premier night last start. Looks too good. Lord Federer may well be suited by back row draw in junior drivers race. Has the ability to test most. Anvils Never Easy has been a flop last couple but might switch back on as she has a tendency to do that. Consider 1,2,10.

Race Six

Lite Gem

Bold Dreamer

Rain Forest

Just a fair lot. Lite Gem showed speed fresh up off a lengthy 840 day break from racing when blowing out 200m from home. Likely to be improved and she did show enough in recent workout to be considered. Bold Dreamer looked handy at workouts since disappointing in two racenight starts. Will not get a better chance in life in this terrible field. Same goes for the rest of them. Not the best race this week.

Race Seven

Imagine Me

Cruiser Franco

Late Flyin

Imagine Me caps the Jewels preparation with this, and though 30m behind she looks far from out of it with a good, safe start. Back to best form last time and she has looked pretty sharp the last month. The obvious one. Cruiser Franco must also rate as her 2700m (stand) win at Cambridge last time was very impressive. Credentials say she is big chance. Unleash The Fury and Late Flyin may be next best. Wonderful Tonight is overdue some good form.

Race Eight

Dr Hook

Real Deal Yankee

Musgrove

Hard to go past Dr Hook in his current frame of mind. He absolutely made a mess of them last week and sounded a big warning to I Can Doosit for Jewels day. Should win again. Real Deal Yankee chased him home last week and looks the obvious threat again, while Musgrove may be an upset chance if able to step and loop them to lead. 3 & 7 place chances.

Race Nine

Devil Dodger

Hip Hop Anvil

Fulla Luck

Class 3yo's Devil Dodger and Hip Hop Anvil will have their last runs before the Jewels and you would expect a bit more than quiet runs from them. Undoubtedly lengths better than these on past performance, a quinella seems logical. To fight it out behind them try 1,2,3,4,5.

Race Ten

Munter

Great Barrier

Syanne

Again, not a great field. Did a similar race last week tell us anything? Not really, though Munter did make mistakes and that was disappointing as he looks a capable trotter if he can hold his gait. Give him another chance. Great Barrier is possibly the best of the lot but his manners do let him down. Even galloping at recent workouts. Risky. Silver Stream and Syanne may upset.
