Margins: head, 1 length, nose

Sectional Times: Mile Rate: 2-10.5 Last 800m: 59.7
 Last 400m: 27.7

*Top colt Smiling Shard ambled up to challenge on the turn and he won without being overly extended by Ricky May. He should improve a lot with another run. Chocolatto was just shaded and went on to win at Addington last Friday night. Clean Cut trialed very well and is one to be on when he lines up.

Race 8 PACE. (Non Winners)

Distance: 2400m Weather: Raining Track: Slushy

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Forbury Park T.C. @ Forbury Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Aylesham

Castletons Boy

Rhythmic Sun

So impressive in winning last week, Aylesham must be hard to peg back once again if his early manners are good. The congestion of front and handicapped runners at the start may provide a wee issue for him. Castletons Boy has 40m to overcome but is capable over the 2700m. Best in the race when right. Rhythmic Sun is always a danger if caught in the mood. Consider 6,10,15,16.

Race Two

Hereshoping

Hanoverthemoneyhoney

Rostriever View

Hereshoping met a better maiden field last week and reverts to fillies and mares company this time. Should notice the difference, and she gets the draw to utilise. Hanoverthemoneyhoney has gone two big races for the new stable. The likely favourite here. She probably should win. Rostriever View ran on well from three-deep last week and should continue that form in a weak field. Consider 10 & 11.

Race Three

San Fran Lady

Shapiro

Double Trap

San Fran Lady raced really well on both days at the recent Marlborough meeting. A genuine filly, she should handle the stand-start well and looks a bit too good for these. Shapiro ran on well in a better field last week. A must have with a safe start needed, of course. Double Trap was a promoted winner on debut. Should fill another top-three placing. Add 2,5,11.

Race Four

Reunite

Torasion

Sea Spray Notch

Not a nice race. Reunite went better last time and that could indicate a win is close at hand. No better chances to win than in this dreadful company. Torasion has also been trying a while. Placings in last five starts could be converted to victory here. Sea Spray Notch can trot a bit and win chance. Add the field in multiples.

Race Five

Storm Light

Jackaroozy

The Mercenary

Barrier draws could be key, with main chances Storm Light and Jackaroozy drawing gates one and two respectively. Storm Light flew home to win last time, showing the ability we had seen in the past. No bother to make it another if she returns in that mood. Jackaroozy beat Galleons Prospect fair and square last week. A tough wee fella, he'll give his best again. The Mercenary, Finbar Abbey, and Akaroa Charlie look best of rest.

Race Six

Dying To Rule

I'm A Dazzler

Shades Of Success

Dying To Rule won a claimer here and has since taken on tough company outside of the claiming races. Now returns and he should notice the difference. Big chance despite wide draw. I'm A Dazzler is a tough old boy, he's found some form in these races over the last month and should be prominent once again. Shade Of Success will need an ounce of luck off the draw, but as he proved last time, he still has plenty of dash left in the old legs. Add 4,9,12.

Race Seven

Juryman

Swift Caesar

Guernica

Nice efforts both days at Marlborough from Juryman when placed on both occasions. A smart type, he looks a great chance off gate two. Swift Caesar won well last week and should figure prominently again despite tricky inside back row draw. Guernica isn't the worst and a trifecta player, while Victor Vtoo could upset, he's been racing well with no luck of late.

Race Eight

Yokozuna

Drivin A Ferrari

Fiery Rascal

Yokozuna was brilliant again last week, showing a great turn of speed on the home turn to put them away. Bad luck looks the only issue to him the way he's racing. Two that had little luck last week were value runners Drivin A Ferrari and Fiery Rascal. Both going well, and will need a few things to go their way, but they are worth a look. Lifes A Giggle will use inside draw. Add 8,12,15.

Race Nine

Franco Quarry

Sunnivue Impulse

Tawnie Jaccka

On his trial at Ashburton Franco Quarry will line up and win this. He dashed away and won very easily that day and has since joined the Chmiel stable. Should bolt in. Sunnivue Impulse was grabbed late last week and is an obvious threat on form, while Tawnie Jaccka and Tactical Attraction are others to consider.

Race Ten

Adios Gryphon

Domino Bromac

Tartan Art

Adios Gryphon has trialed up well over the past month and looks a handy chance on debut. No moral by any stretch, but he possesses enough ability to beat these. Domino Bromac has been knocked from pillar to post in two starts to date. He's a nice horse singing out for a bit of good fortune. Wins very soon. Tartan Art went well last week, and Washmepockets ran on late last week, too. Habana and The Balladeer are must haves in multiples.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Thames HRC @ Alexandra Park SELECTIONS

Race One

Red Zone

Gangala

Cloncullen

Red Zone drops into a race that seems rather suitable. He looks able to jump and lead and he races best in front. Could be tough to catch. Gangala was running on well without threat when luckless off the back row last week. Expect him to go close. Cloncullen won at big odds last time, coming with a huge finish. Able to repeat the dose. Awohali has trialed twice and should be fit, while Toddy and Boogiestom are trifecta threats.

Race Two

Delight Brigade

Colour Of Money

Rodrigo

Delight Brigade qualified smartly this track last week. Drawn to get a good run, he should run well first up for in-form stable. Colour Of Money is racing honestly without all the luck. Best draw he's had in some time. Rodrigo ran a tidy third to two smart ones last Tuesday. Worthy of second look. Open race, consider 3,5,6,9.

Race Three

El De Rosa

Mighty Creation

Bruno

They're a tough combination to beat in junior drivers races. Brent Mangos and Roydon Downey rarely miss when they team up and this time it is El De Rosa who should go close to victory. A couple of nice runs off a spell, she seems ready to go. Mighty Creation comes in fresh. He's quite smart on best night and well worth a ticket here off good draw. Bruno is worth another after failing in tougher field last week. Add 1,3,8,13.

Race Four

Mighty Flying Thomas

Pedro Carrington

All Defiance

Two-year-old Mighty Flying Thomas proves a little difficult to follow, though on his last start effort he must be tough to beat. Draw probably suits him. Pedro Carrington should be improved off fresh up run and is drawn well. All Defiance showed good ability at times last campaign, back to strike late in the season. Drawn to go forward, he should give a good sight after handy workout run on Saturday. My Elusive Dream meets an easier field than he did last week.

Race Five

Caballe

Saccha Maguire

Happy Skipper

Caballe dashed late, a nice run last time when fourth. And they previous two were not bad efforts, either. Drawn to get a decent slice of this. Saccha Maguire is the likely favourite and probable winner. Chased a smart one home in Heavens Delight last week. Big chance against fillies and mares company. Happy Skipper showed enough on debut to be given a chance. Machabella and Lady Courage for longer odds.

Race Six

Flying Pocketlands

A New Sensation

Major Day

Flying Pocketlands should win this. Her form has been very good of late in far stronger fields and despite the wide alley she looks home. Her stablemate A New Sensation may be a bit short on race fitness, and that's be the query, though you'd expect her to show something fresh, especially after an impressive workout run on Saturday. Major Day has shown up a couple of times lately and is one for trifectas. Three Wishes and Flojo Two could figure.

Race Seven

Top Notch Lavros

Mya Grace

Diedre's Flash

Top Notch Lavros has looked more like his old self when produced at the workouts lately. Still a bit risky, but he's worth a second glance this week. Mya Grace and Extasia will appreciate a drop back to this class and should measure up despite their handicaps. Diedre's Flash and Canyouwatchoverme are racing really well and definites with a safe start. Consider 6,10,11.

Race Eight

Percy The Punter

Onedin Crusader

Swift Therapy

Percy The Punter won the Winter Cup a fortnight ago is good style. This doesn't look a lot tougher and he should give them something to chase again. Swift Therapy was given all favours when he trailed throughout and won easily last week. This tougher but he continues to step up and deliver. Onedin Crusader was the big eye-catcher last week. He hit the line really hard and looked a winner next time out. Tough assignment but up to it. Dash and All Tiger are next best.

Race Nine

De Lovely

The Guardian

Attention Seeker

De Lovely returns for a run along before the Breeders Crown. She's a long way better than these and only 80 percent right would be enough to towel them up. The Guardian led and wasn't from from winning last time. Bright hope to place. Attention Seeker is a smart type racing well. Second or third a distinct possibility.

Race Ten

El Pinot

Casanova Cullen

West End Girl

Not a great bunch. El Pinot has gone a couple of handy ones and meets an easier maiden field than he has of late. Worth a look. Casanova Cullen and West End Girl can both run a bit. Drawn to get on the speed, they are definite in Pick6 etc. Consider 1,4,8,9,10.
