SELECTIONS

Race One

Aziza

Renaissance Franco

Isinbayeva

Aziza missed the gate last time, a rare mistake for her as she's usually quick away. Gate one plays into her hands if on best behavior. She is quality. Renaissance Franco is therefore a player off one on the second row, and she did trial well recently. Eachway hope. Isinbayeva is the one good enough to knock those two over. In rare form since a spell. Consider 5,8,12,14.

Race Two

Chaff Muncha

Thanksforthememories

Datmymulligan

Chaff Muncha did a nice job when he debuted off a tricky draw at Rangiora, looping the field to lead and win comfortably. This grade won't hold him long, either. Big chance. Thanksforthememories went a nice race second-up, that after a nice trial. She's close to winning form. Datmymulligan will need an ounce of luck off the draw but is capable of winning so don't leave her out. Some handy types include 3,5,6,7,8.

Race Three

Pegleg Webb

Johnny Be

Wicklow

Pegleg Webb was absolutely luckless last start, never a winning hope after being held up on the inside. He shows class well beyond maiden grade and should get the job done here. Johnny Be was a bit disappointing at Marlborough. His trial and workout form had suggested he'd win up there. Stick with the ship. Sticky Fingers gets a better draw this time, and do add Liberalitus and Wicklow in all bets.

Race Four

Holiday Lover

Sun Lad

Calamity Gal

Holiday Lover resumed for the new stable when a smart third behind The Tin Man in a muddling-run race on June 25. Sure to be a better horse for that run, he looks the obvious winner here. Sun Lad showed some real purpose when finishing strongly at the workouts on Saturday, scooting a nice quarter. He'll run well. Calamity Gal is a workout winner since failing first up for Smith stable, Expect better here. Consider Willy Lightfoot, and good mare Domination.

Race Five

Ultimate Player

Tor Riley

Rojam Cullen

Ultimate Player gave them one here a fortnight ago but was subsequently disqualified for causing interference. Should round these up and give them a lesson. Tor Riley raced well at Marlborough, a bit stiff not win on either day. Close to winning another. Rojam Cullen did too much last time and the effort told. Unlucky start before. Consider 3,7,10,12.

Race Six

Acaptivatingeagle

Itz New Yorks Finest

Panesar

Acaptivatingeagle had caught the eye once or twice at workouts before a very encouraging sixth on debut at Rangiora. This field looks well within range. Itz New Yorks Finest hopped and skipped his way around at Marlborough. Sure to be a better horse this time and well worth a second glance. Panesar has the form on the board and deserves a win. Add in 1,3,7,10.

Race Seven

Johnny Bravo

Joshua Mac

About Ambition

Robert Dunn holds the key with Joshua Mac and Johnny Bravo both very capable and big chances, though in a tough grade nonetheless. The former has proven himself adept at standing starts and another good get-away takes him close. Johnny Bravo is trialing enormous and a big threat fresh up off a spell. About Ambition is going great again and a must despite 20m handicap. Add 9 & 12.

Race Eight

Franco Quarry

Eye Bolt

Atom Of Courage

A super run from Franco Quarry last start, three-wide outside them and absolutely gallant, promoted from second to first. A big Forbury win before that. Drawn to get a big slice of this cake, too. Eye Bolt ran on well when clear last week, a bit luckless. Should run well off the draw. Light Showers usually finds one better but on consistency she's a threat. Atom Of Courage is due better form, the draw won't help. Consider 3,8,10,14.

Race Nine

Classic Armbro

Donaldson

Miss Boomschukaluka

Classic Armbro chased a good one home at Rangiora last time and should be fitter for the two raceday starts, both lovely runs. A nice filly with a future. Donaldson went another good race at Rangiora and deserves reward for a consistent season without winning one. Miss Boomschukaluka is well tried at trials/workouts, but keeps going well. She's due a good cheque. Consider 3,6,7,12,13.

Race Ten

Sanjaya

Caesarion

Not Home Enough

Sanjaya dashed a nice final split when an impressive Ashburton trial winner, making many lengths up from the 800m. Looks above average and maiden grade won't hold him long. Caesarion has been a failure when well supported in three attempts. A better trial suggests worthwhile form is near. Not Home Enough gets a vote for being so consistent, while debut runner Zigi Jones has popped her head up at trials and cannot be overlooked. Consider 3,4,5. Onward Christian trialed well on Saturday.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Kumeu T.C. @ Alexandra Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Toledo

Ohoka Courage

Boogiestom

Toledo went up a notch in performance and did a superb job in winning last week. He had been an unlucky horse a few times, however. Should keep the run going. Ohoka Courage was game to the finish again last time and looks a trifecta must, while Boogiestom and All Defiance are genuine threats off nice draws. The latter was very solid fresh up off the spell. Consider 5 & 6.

Race Two

Underwood Road

Anvil On The Sly

Warbler

Underwood Road is a little hard to follow but on his best night very hard to beat. Nice effort three back in a tough maiden field his best guide to chances. Eachway bet. Anvil On The Sly missed away and did well afterward when he debuted here. Don't let slip under the guard. Warbler was better second-up and any further improvement should take him close. Add 2,5,6.

Race Three

Sunny's Bar

Jazmin Alicia

Roxie Heart

Sunny's Bar has been consistent since joining the Balle-Gillies stable. Recent fourth was sound. Looks well-placed in this company. Jazmin Alicia galloped late when very competitive behind Diedre's Flash last time out. Definite drop in class from most recent starts. Nice chance. Roxie Heart bobs up when not favoured but could have support with Zac Butcher to drive. The rest of the field are not hopeless.

Race Four

All Tiger

Flem N Em

Chesterton

All Tiger sprinted impressively in a walk-and-sprint-home race when he returned off a spell. He looked really bright. Under free-for-all conditions he looks a winner here. Stablemates Flem N Em and Caroline's Cullen are in top form and threats, though not in All Tiger's class. A small field, but a few chances to figure, with Chesterton and He's My Hero far from the worst.

Race Five

Chrissy Styx

A New Sensation

Manhattan Cruiser

Chrissy Styx heads to the Pukekohe arm of the Purdon stable like many, and given she'd trialed well enough before a fresh up 7th, you'd consider her closer to best form. Barrier draw goes her way. Should go close. A New Sensation is the best of these, though draw not great. A handy but battling fourth fresh, maybe a slick workout win a few days earlier took the edge off her. Manhattan Cruiser was unlucky last time, should have won. Ready to strike top form. Consider 2, & 5.

Race Six

Mighty Creation

Bet Your Life

Harry The Maori

Mighty Creation should have bolted in fresh up but he hit a wheel and broke at the wrong time. Shouldn't need a second invite to set the record straight. Bet Your Life went a handy race fresh and is the type that gets better with racing. A definite place chance. Harry The Maori galloped in amateur race last time but he isn't as bad as his form reads. Could place at odds. 1 & 2 some chance.

Race Seven

Devil Dodger

Cullens Crown

Highview Chartom

Devil Dodger capitalised on a good beginning and a nice trip to win handsomely last week in tougher company. This field well within his range and he should get the job done with a gear or two left to use. Cullens Crown chased him home last week and was game in defeat. A logical quinella choice again. Highview Chartom and Ardens Darlin next best.

Race Eight

Precious Mach

Saccha Maguire

All About Fun

Promising 2yo fillies Precious Mach and Saccha Maguire look the best of these. The former was an impressive trialist before she debuted with very sound second at Cambridge. First look this track but she looks the one. Saccha Maguire has had a look around Alex Park and seems the likely challenger. Of the remainder Matty Brogden, Happy Skipper, and All About Fun look upset hopes.
