THURSDAY HARNESS

NZ Metro @ Addington Raceway

SELECTIONS

Race One

Lets Talk Art

Wilusi Blues

Takeiteasyonme

Lets Talk Art led and won two back in fine style, then successful in four-horse Breeders Crown heat last week by eight-lengths. Can get across and lead again. Hard to catch in current form. Wilusi Blues was a little luckless at Rangiora and can atone. His draw may suit him. Takeiteasyonme was an impressive winner at Rangiora and well worth another look. Consider 1,7,9,10 in the mix.

Race Two

Dickies Bromac

Tara Toplady

Wicklow

Dickies Bromac has been in sterling form at the trials leading into this debut race. The second line draw should not stop him winning. Tara Toplady went a very good race at Rangiora last weekend and is a real threat despite a tricky draw. Wicklow gets his chance off the ace. Go on his fast-finishing second two back. Johnny Be should be considered, he needs the last run at them to show his best. Consider 4,5,12.

Race Three

Donaldson

Miss Boomschukaluka

Cheval De Triomphe

Donaldson gets his chance to win in the absence of the better maidens this week. He's very consistent and deserves this one. Miss Boomschukaluka fought on well last week when fourth and won't need to go a lot better to be a serious chance. Cheval De Triomphe also ran well last time and must go close, while All About Alfie and Idle Maple are capable of upsetting.

Race Four

Tuscany Gold

Light Showers

Katchafillie

Tuscany Gold finished it off with purpose again last start behind Lets Talk Art, that following two good efforts at Marlborough. In the right form to be winning. Light Showers burned early and was then pushed back before rattling home last week. Near another win. Katchafillie is racing well, forgive last start failure. Often a good draw to come from in a junior drivers race. Fresco Denario and Sary Hanover the others.

Race Five

Datmymulligan

Chaff Muncha

Mels Dream

A nice field on C1's. Look to impressive recent winners Datmymulligan and Chaff Muncha as being the ones to beat once again despite their relative inexperience. The former was super good in winning last week and can again, while Chaff Muncha is poorly drawn but very smart. Mels Dream rattled home at Rangiora and is a serious threat, he's a handy horse. Consider 1,2,4,7,10 in a really open race.

Race Six

Barmy Army

Alchemy

Chocolatto

Barmy Army returns off a spell but has trialed smartly in the lead-up to resuming. Sometimes a difficult horse to follow, you would expect something bold from him first up. Drawn to jump and run with top driver on board. Alchemy was again too smart at Rangiora, his third win on end. Tougher assignment off this draw but no doubting his class. Chocolatto tries so very hard he's simply hard to go past in all bets. Add 3,8,12.

Race Seven

Empyrean

Pegleg Webb

Bet Away

Needing luck off the draw, try Empyrean to run well on debut. He has shown plenty of ability at trials but is clearly a bit green just yet. Any joy off the draw and he can tidy this field up. Pegleg Webb was just too bad to be true last week. Cannot drop him on one run, he's much better than that. Bet Away went okay when qualifying here last week and can run a race first up. Consider 2,7,11,16.

Race Eight

Rider On The Storm

Smiling Shard

Fake Chance

Its tough to split top horses Smiling Shard and Rider On The Storm. I'm going for the latter as he's been burning up the tracks at the trials and looking very impressive. The Franklin Cup winner of last season can return with a win. Smiling Shard on the other hand still seems to be on the way up and needing the racing. He was beaten in a sprint up the straight in a non-tote last week. Definite chance, of course. Fake Chance is the obvious threat, he was great last time.

Race Nine

Sanjaya

Hot Pepper

Caesarion

Sanjaya came up short last week when a tad disappointing, though any inch of improvement out of the run and he'll be the one here. Give him another chance. Hot Pepper has been trialing well and can get a fair slice of this. Manners seem okay, too. Caesarion showed his better form last week and should continue that now he's found some confidence. Add 1,8,16 into the mix.

FRIDAY NIGHT HARNESS

Auckland T.C. @ Alexandra Park

SELECTIONS

Race One

Manhattan Cruzer

Seshny Bromac

Doreens Dream

Manhattan Cruzer was perfectly driven to win last week, a nice run and a deserved win after some improving form. No reason why she can't back up and do it again. Seshny Bromac hasn't had the luck go her way of late but this does appear a nice chance to return to form. Doreens Dream took on a better field last time and was game. She looks a sound threat. Consider 3,4,12.

Race Two

Canyouwatchoverme

Diedre's Flash

Millwood Munchkin

Hard to go past Canyouwatchoverme, a really nice young trotter headed for a better grade. Impressive win last time and he can repeat the dose despite rise in class. Diedre's Flash was taken on a bit last time and only faded late. He's in good form and can win another. Millwood Munchkin seems foolproof and honest. She should further a handy record here. Roxie Heart and Eileen could threaten.

Race Three

Mighty Creation

Chrissy Styx

Elysium

Mighty Creation arrived late as hot favourite at Cambridge, this possibly his go with the 15k up for grabs. Gets the barrier to use, too. Chrissy Styx is racing her way back to top form and the 15k on offer should ensure she's ready to go. Elysium was disappointing last week. She can go much better than that. Give her another chance. Overall a weak field for a good stake. Consider 5,7,9.

Race Four

De Lovely

Gotta Go Harmony

Flying Pocketlands

Not a good idea for a tote race. De Lovely wins after a sensational Australian Oaks victory in amazing sectionals last weekend. Flying Pocketlands and Gotta Go Harmony fight out second and third. Hard to see this encouraging or improving turnover, unfortunately.

Race Five

Don Giovanni

Motu Young Jacob

Mya Grace

Don Giovanni is just a difficult horse to follow but so talented it is hard to let him slip under the guard. He has trialed smartly and raced well despite galloping of late. Should win if he puts a performance together. Motu Young Jacob is the form horse, going well around this track. A must again. Mya Grace is steadily racing into top form and deserves her turn. The field are worthy of a ticket in P6.

Race Six

Red Zone

Cullen's Impact

Awohali

Red Zone grabbed the lead and won impressively last start, and that's his go. Likely to get a similar opportunity off a lovely gate and he looks the one to beat unless he cops it in front. Cullen's Impact trialed smartly last week, home in very slick sectionals around this track. Bright hope despite the draw. Ohoka Courage was well supported last week but failed to deliver. Stick with the ship. Stablemates J Walker and Awohali cannot be discounted.

Race Seven

Exceptional Cullen

Dead Calm

Honey Rose Falcon

An even bunch. Exceptional Cullen gets the draw to get the run he likes, following speed on the marker line. Determined finish to win two back and since a game third in tougher company. Look for bold showing. Stablemate Honey Rose Falcon is drawn to follow and can't be left out of combinations. Dead Calm is better than most and worth an eachway bet, while 3,6,11 are multiple chances.

Race Eight

All Tiger

St Barts

Flem N Em

All Tiger was nicely driven to get the job done last week when expected to. He really suits that last shot at them from the turn and that scenario could happen again. An exciting horse who should win again. Encouraging signs from St Barts in second place last week and no reason why he can't do the same again. Field third.

Race Nine

Greg Brydon

Wee Willam

Just Wicked

Form from the Tuesday meeting should hold up, though Greg Brydon is fresh on the scene and undoubtedly hard to beat. The old boy is racing in great form and should go close. Wee Willam is very honest and always a threat this company. Just Wicked enters claiming ranks and should go boldly, while George Skipper is hard to follow but very capable. Consider Lord Patrol and Midfrew Palisades.

Race Ten

I Cee U

Caesar Court

Dusky Sound

I Cee U rattled home for fourth on debut and was half-a-dozen strides away from winning. Sure to go close with any repeat of that effort. Caesar Court made ground strongly through the middle when a gallant second last time, backing up from sound debut. Must rate. Dusky Sound ran on okay last time and will get a win soon. Kozarozza got home well last time and she can threaten if she can get to the markers. Consider 1,4,6,8.

KAHDON LOSES BATTLE

By Jeff Scott

Kahdon lost the biggest battle of her life to a salmonella infection at a Victorian veterinary clinic on Monday afternoon.

NZ's top 3YO trotter struggled to beat the infection for much of last week.

"She was 50-50 all the way through really, then took a turn for the worse," said trainer Mark Jones.

"They were teeing her up for an operation at 4pm, but she died an hour earlier," he said.

"I feel sorry for Peter Chambers (owner). He loves his horses and was pretty upset."

It was a double blow given Kahdon could not be saved for breeding.

Being a daughter of Sundon from a half-sister to the dam of champion squaregaiter Lyell Creek, her breeding future was assured.

"She would have been a goldmine as a broodmare, but everyone did as much as they could. She was in the right place to do the best for her that they could."

Mark says no-one probably knew quite how severe her infection was due to Kahdon's courage.

"She was a very tough filly and probably didn't show outwardly just how much she was fighting it," Mark said.

Kahdon only raced 14 times for 6 wins and 5 seconds and $177,234 in stakes.

She only raced three times for Mr Chambers, who purchased her only a few days before the $100,000 Harness Jewels 3YO Ruby at Cambridge on June 5.

She finished a gallant second after starting from the back row to Vulcan at the end of a 1:58 mile in the Jewels.

Kahdon then easily won the $A50,000 Victoria Trotters Oaks at Melton on June 11 for Mark, before being outfinished late by Rostevarren in a Victoria Trotters Derby on July 3.

Earlier, for Leeson trainer Paul Nairn she had beaten Miami H in the G1 Northern Trotting Derby on May 7, and won the G2 Hutton Racing Stables Sires' Stakes Trotters Championship at Auckland On May 30.

She had also been the runnerup to another Peter Chambers-owned filly Shezoneoftheboyz in the G1 NZ Trotting Derby at Addington on March 26, and was also the runnerup behind Emma Hamilton in the G3 NZ Trotting Oaks on April 9.

While Kahdon's demise is very sad for her connections, Mark is confident Derby winner Shezoneoftheboyz will regain her best next term.

The Brylin Boyz filly mixed her gait towards the end of her campaign, but Mark found a problem, which has subsequently been rectified.

She will continue to spell at Tony Shaw's Cambridge property for another two months.

"Peter (Chambers) will decide then whether to race her in Australia or New Zealand. We'll map out some plans but will be wanting to qualify her in NZ for the 4YO Jewels," Mark said.

Forbury Park TC & Southern Harness Racing

Southern Harness Racing CEO, Russell Freeman, is pleased to announce that negotiations have been confirmed for his office to carry out the racing bureau duties for the Forbury Park Trotting Club commencing from 1 August 2010.

Forbury Park President, Alan Clyma and acting CEO, Ken Dempster, believe the southern racing bureau will help unify harness racing in Otago/Southland and will allow the new Forbury Park General Manager – to be appointed – to concentrate on the management, marketing and promotions of the Forbury Park Trotting Club as an entertainment venue for the people of Dunedin.

The Southern Harness Racing bureau will accept nominations, withdrawals, scratchings, confirmation of drivers and other raceday matters up to 5pm on the night prior to raceday when the Forbury Park General Manager will take over and run the racemeeting.

CEO Russell Freeman reports his team of Racing Manager, Jason Broad and Office Manager Nichola Hikawai are looking forward to the challenge of performing the duties for an additional 23 racedays in addition to the 44 racemeetings already conducted from their Ascot Park office.

Chairman, Charlie Smaill says he is thrilled to welcome the Forbury Park Club to the Southern Harness Racing bureau which will help strengthen the relationship between the Otago/Southland harness racing Clubs.

Southern Harness Racing contacts are Phone/Fax (03) 2179 117 and mobiles Jason Broad 021 127 2912 and Russell Freeman 021 0788 235.
