SELECTIONS

Race One

Ten Diamonds looked smart at trials before a lovely debut when second at Methven. Since a workout winner at Ashburton. This looks hers with a safe beginning. Debutant Magical Mel is a nice type, trialing well and progressing with each run. Look for a bold effort first up despite the draw. Tapestry Franco went a good race here last week and is close to a win. Sentebale has looked handy at workouts. Consider 7,10,11,16.

Ten Diamonds

Magical Mel

Tapestry Franco

Race Two

JB Maguire was game in defeat at Ashburton, keeping a very consistent formline going. Tough type suited to the 2600m. Looks a strong chance. Ultimate Player is costing punters plenty though not racing that badly. Another good run without paying a divvy at Ashburton. Draw a concern but he will win soon. Storm Attack is better off the mobile start here after slow start off stand last time. Easy trial win suggested a big cheque at short notice. Consider 1,5,8.

JB Maguire

Ultimate Player

Storm Attack

Race Three

An excellent workout run from Choise Acheiever at Rangiora last Saturday, flying home from the tail to secure a big win. Nice second when fresh up in tough 4YO Superstars. Should be too good. Wilusi Blues is coming in fresh but has trialed smartly. Speedy horse with a genuine winning chance. Salem could follow the favourite throughout of the draw and that could be very helpful. He's in top form and a threat again. Add Rebel Scooter and Back In The USSR into multiples.

Choise Acheiever

Wilusi Blues

Salem

Race Four

An even contest. Running On Time drops well back from Flying Mile at Ashburton. He is a very capable trotter looking for best form to secure Dominion Handicap spot. Looks a bet at handy odds. With Intent is going nice races and now fitter for the three runs winning seems rather possible. Doctor Mickey is also about to hit best form so watch him, his trial form suggested early success. Add Jaccka Jack and Biddy Bid, along with Racey Product.

Running On Time

With Intent

Doctor Mickey

Race Five

Liking State Of Affairs off the best gate over 1950m. His last two runs have been excellent without paying a divvy. Running home well in 1:56.5 rate behind Hands Christian last time. Ready to win. Kotare Yaakov took a little while to get wound up last week, though in very quick time. Drawn to jump and run, he's a big chance. And off the third of the three inside draws, Terror To Love must also rate highly. Would have improved off the good fourth first up and is a very smart pacer. For multiples 6,7,10,13.

State Of Affairs

Kotare Yaakov

Terror To Love

Race Six

A repeat performance possible from Indy Village who burned the gate to lead and ultimately bolted in here last start. Should cross and lead Indrah who looks a safe eachway bet trailing. They're a strong two, with Romulus big improver off Ashburton race not run to suit him. Breath Of Life, Christian World for multiples.

Indy Village

Indrah

Romulus

Race Seven

No standout here. Galatos is fitter for the two runs back and did go well at workouts on Saturday. Races best with a few under the belt so this looks like his chance to recapture winning form. Feels Like Magic was again good at Ashburton in nice field. Drawn well and he should go close. Arnoux is very speedy, likely leader. Might get away with it, though 2600m can trip him. Consider 1,4,8.

Galatos

Feels Like Magic

Arnoux

Race Eight

Westburn Creed is perfectly drawn. He weakened final stages fresh up over 2600m but looks big chance over 2000m with that run having improved him. Fuoco was hotly supported at Forbury but left in open and faded after pulling too hard. Follow the smoke. Dunarunner may have turned the corner after taking a while to win maiden. Danger if he steps smartly. Add 2,3,7,13,14 in open field.

Westburn Creed

Fuoco

Dunarunner

Race Nine

Xenon was checked start, did well when fresh up fifth here last week. Lovely workout run preceded that. Should win with mobile big assist. Arabess should go a very cheeky race after showing something at workouts on Saturday, beating a mediocre lot easily. May lead and run them. Dolly Would has been busy, her Invercargill effort on Tuesday very good after breaking and losing plenty. Mobile big help. Consider 3,5,12.

Xenon

Arabess

Dolly Would

Race Ten

Tidy maiden field. Glengowan hasn't had any luck in two runs off the spell and should be ready to fire. Drawn to get plenty of this, as is Mick Finn who impressed first up and again last week when third. They look solid off the 1950m start. Off worse draws look to Machtavish who is racing well and due his turn, and Linel who brings two excellent workout wins to the table and is not short of ability. Consider 5,6,12.

Glengowan

Mick Finn

Linel

MONDAY HARNESS

Kaikoura T.C. @ South Bay Racecourse

SELECTIONS

Race One

Artifact

Arden Tetrick

Excellent Art

Artifact has shown raw ability at workouts and trials leading into this debut performance. Hard to see beaten if the occasion doesn't get to him. The danger looks to be Arden Tetrick who has been mixing it in Sires Stakes company. Handy horse, and an eachway hope. Excellent Art has a nice turn of speed and is better than most. Can figure at odds. Add Flaming Freida and Go Man Go in multiples.

Race Two

Brawlinwiththeboyz

Elegant Sun

Brite N Lucky

Brawlinwiththeboyz trialed smartly before a gallant second on mile day at Winton when well over the odds. This is not a strong field and she should win if manners are on song. Elegant Sun has been consistent of late and should measure up well. A sound bet. Brite N Lucky is also going well and should be prominent if able to step cleanly. Consider 4,7,11.

Race Three

Invisible Tonight

Donegal Delight

Ohoka Texas

Invisible Tonight has the distinction of beating Night Of The Stars at the workouts a fortnight ago, and that's a big feather in her cap going into this. Drawn to jump and run, she looks the one to beat. Donegal Delight is a nice filly also drawn well and you'd expect a very bold effort again. Ohoka Texas is also engaged in Sires Stakes on Saturday night. Big threat if this option taken. Add 2,4,6,12 in multiples.

Race Four

Another Player

Endeavour Sunset

You're The Man

Another Player resumes for new trainer Joanne Burrows after being purchased since last racing. Won a workout well last Saturday. Look for prominent effort. Endeavour Sunset could be a big danger if she steps and runs. A handy bet at better odds, leading on this track would suit her. Off the handicaps You're The Man is an obvious choice, as are The Moment, Lifeoftheparty, and In Like Magic.

Race Five

Mach Banner

Fernleigh Renegade

Joshua Mac

A wonderful field. Tipping Mach Banner as the one to beat after a successful return off the spell, then lovely workout run last Saturday. He's a quality pacer. Fernleigh Renegade has been trialing smartly and could be hard to catch with the advantage in the handicaps. Joshua Mac, Onedin Crusader, Lightning Raider, Still Coughin, the list goes on and on. Picking the trifecta will be difficult!

Race Six

Cracker Black

Kiwi Kennington

False Promise

Cracker Black looked really well when unplaced but firing home strongly in a recent Motukarara workout. Poor draw over 1900m but they'll know he's there. Bright chance. Obvious threat is Kiwi Kennington who gained a deserved win at Addington last week. She will probably go forward from the wide draw and will be tough to beat if she can find the front. False Promise could give plenty of cheek if able to find the markers. Consider 11,12,13.

Race Seven

Smiling Shard

Sleepy Tripp

Highview Tommy

An outstanding run from both Smiling Shard and Sleepy Tripp at Ashburton, both missing away in the same race but producing wonderful recoveries. Slick start needed on this track. If they can get underway early then both will take all sorts of beating. Highview Tommy ran well prior to his second in the Ashburton Flying Stakes. Coming back to best form. Nearea Franco is all class, winner of this race last year and trialing well after long layoff. Will go well. You have to consider Bondy, though draw poor.

Race Eight

Chaff Muncha

Nevermind Franco

Westburn Creed

Chaff Muncha retuned with comprehensive victory at Addington off a spell, continuing unbeaten formline. That's not likely to change here. Only bad luck will beat him. Nevermind Franco is a nice, handy mare likely to step and do things right. A good trifecta chance. Westburn Creed is also in at Addington but is a sound place hope here if he starts. Handy horse. The rest have place hopes in a race dominated by the favourite.

Race Nine

Dr Hook

Idid It Myway

Stylish Monarch

Dr Hook and Idid It Myway performed very well for Paul Nairn at Ashburton, the latter possibly should have won had he not gone roughly on the final bend. They'll be hard to catch around this track if stepping well. Top mare One Over Kenny never had a run at Ashburton. She would beat these if on her game. Is she? Stylish Monarch will trot all the way and is a smart horse. He looks a big threat. Better needed from I Can Dooisit who looks a length or two off the pace at the moment but able to improve/

Race Ten

Move Over

Dance Band

Wee Brother

Move Over trialed well last weekend and is a classy pacer likely to go boldly fresh up. Should improve his poor form before a spell. Dance Band is no champion but very honest and deserving of all the support he will have. A must include. Wee Brother also returns off a spell. Better than most here on his best day. Look for bold run. Consider 2,3,11,12.
